BECAUSE you have commodities in your business that people want but they may not know that you have them. BECAUSE if you do not create a demand for them they may become shopworn. Advertising creates the demand. Plan your campaign for 1910 and be prosperous.

$270.40 PROFIT ON TWO ACRES.

A Big Corn Yield Grown Under Demonstration Methods—Fredell Farmer Makes the Fine Yield.

Mr. E. S. Millsaps, of Fredell Co., shows, in the Progressive Farmer, how he made a profit of $270.40 on two acres. He said:

"As you ask for the best crop reports this year, I was asked to make a statement of the results of Mr. J. L. Cloaninger's work on two acres.

Last fall two acres were thoroughly broken to the depth of twelve inches, and then well pulverized and sown in winter or fall oats and crimson clover. A fine stand of both oats and clover was secured, and during the winter several loads of stable manure were scattered over the land and in the spring 200 pounds of acid phosphate and potash, a 10-4 goods, were scattered broadcast. Both oats and clover did well, the clover reached the height of 30 inches.

Then the oats were in the dough state, the whole was mown down and cured for hay, making 12 two-horse loads, estimated at one ton to the load, or twelve tons for the two acres. A liveryman offered to pay $17 per ton for the hay, but it was kept for feed at the farm.

The stubble was then cut up with a disk harrow, and turned under, and the surface thoroughly fined and planted in the Biggs corn. Another light application of manure was scattered over the land and two hundred pounds of acid phosphate drill before planting. Another 100 analyzing 10-4-4 was put in with and potash were put on with wheat the corn planter. The corn was well cultivated according to the demonstration methods, and the yield from the two acres was 183 bushels.

So the result is about as follows: Corn, 183 bushels, at 80 cents per bushel, $146.40; stover, four tons at $5.00 per ton, $20; and 12 tons oats and clover hay at $17 per ton, $204 or a total of $370.40. The cost of production harvesting, and everything, counting rent of land at $10 per acre was $100, which leaves a net balance of $270.40 for the two acres.

These estimates were made out carefully, and the above figures are the results of the work on the two acres. This crop is a record breaker for this section, and M. Cloaninger is well pleased with it, but he is not satisfied. He says he can do better than that and is at work now to beat that record next year."

CRUEL LATIN BLOOD.

How Italian Husband Wrecked Vengeance on Wife and Her Lover—An Almost Incredible Deed.

A Roman husband is accredited with the following piece of unprecedented blood curdling revenge:

"A story of torture unrivaled in fiction was revealed at Potenza today when Vincenzo Tinelli, scion of a noble family, after wreaking a vengeance as terrible as any ever meted out to man and woman on his wife and her lover, surrendered to the police, announcing that they were dead. The tragic tale of his jealousy and revenge is one such as never before was heard. For months Tinelli suspected his wife. Dissembling, he hunted day after day for evidence. Finally he trapped the woman with Giuseppe Saucucci.

Craftily the husband imprisoned the couple. Then began ten days of torturing more refined than that of the Chinese. Bound and starving, they were forced to see food just beyond their reach. The soles of their feet were tickled for hours. Staring them in the face were the chalked figures of the days he allotted them before their death. Sleep and sustenance were denied them, the husband never leaving their side. Finally he resorted to the knife, but he used it first as a scapel before dealing the fatal blows.

Slowly gagging them to prevent their feeble cries being heard, Tinelli flayed them alive. As he removed their skin inch by inch, he rubbed salt into the flesh.

Into their backs he made incisions, inflaming the wounds and preventing his victims from lying in any position except such as would irritate the cuts. While he compelled Saucucci to watch, Tinelli mutilated his wife's features, calling attention point by point of her beauty before he wielded the knife. Then he treated the man in a like manner.

In the end he resorted to unspeakable tortures.

While describing all he had done Tinelli laughed.

"I've been laughing since I caught them," he told the police."

Be Good to the Carriers.

Rural Carriers, like everybody else seem to have their troubles. J. H. Hommer in the R. F. D. news makes these requests, and sensible ones they are, of the public:

"Don't detain your carrier by asking him to wait until you address or write a card or letter.

Don't blame the carrier if there are changes made in route.

Don't ask your carrier to carry notes to your neighbors to avoid paying postage.

Don't ask your carrier to let you ride with him.

Don't put up an old box on your mail route.

Do all you can to help your carrier along on his route.

Do write your letters and cards before your carrier is due; you have 24 hours before he comes again.

Do buy a supply of stamps and other supplies; they will keep; cost no more; in fact, stamped envelopes come cheaper.

Do stamp everything that is mailable that you place in mail boxes, as at the postoffice.

Do get a good box; put it up in good shape in a convenient place for the carrier to drive up to."
