ROYSTER FOR CONGRESS.

MASS MEETING OF GRANVILLE DEMOCARCY UNANIMOUSLY EN DORSES HIS CANDIDACY AND PASSES RESOLUTION.

Monday and Expressed Flattering C pinion of County's Candidate for High Office.

It is often said that but for politi- A. L. Capehart, clans the people would take no interest in the political game. But the theory was clearly disproved Monday when at the noon hour a large audience gathered in the Court bouse and unanimously endorsed General Royster's Candidacy for Cougress from the "imperial Fifth." Speeches were made by a number of prominent citizens and a committee was appoint ed to forward the General's candidaey in every honorable way. The reso Intions passed were as follows: The Resolutions

But in addition to the high persondemocracy of Granville believes the best interests of the party require that the nomination this year should come to this county. When the smoke began to lift from the disastrous battlefield of two years ago, Granville stood alone among her sister countles as the one county in the District that increased her democratic majority. Under the leadership of Royster, as county chairman in that year, after a campaign of unparallelled bitterness, she stood true and unswervingly loyal to the democratic nothinee.

And this year the district looks to Granville for its majority. Let Gran-Valle name the standard-bearer.

We believe that the democrats of the District, who desire to see the "Imperial Fifth" permanently replaced in the democratic column, ought to consider availability of Granville's candidate. We pledge you, if you will nominate Royster, this district shall be redeemed.

We ask your support for a man who has never been a party to faction, Who is free from the toils of strife and division, and under whose leadthat such leadership can lead only to glorious success.

For these reasons the united democracy of Granville urges the nomination of her gifted son, Beverly S.
