By order of the Executive Committee at a meeting held in Greensboro, North Carolina, June 15th, 1910, the Democratic Judicial convention for the ninth Judicial District is hereby called to meet in Greensboro North Carolina July 4th, 1910 at 8, 30 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for solicitor for said district and for transacting such other business as may properly come before the convention. In the convention each County in the district is entitled to one delegate and one alternate for every two and a half Democratic votes and one delegate one alternate for fractions of ceding Gubernatorial election said delegates and alternates to be elective by the respective County Convention in each County. JOHN N. WILSON Chairman. FRANK NASH, Secretary. Grand Entertainment. A charming entertainment was given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. A. A. Hicks at her residence on College Street, on the occasion of the closing for the summer of Kindergarten School. The School was opened last Fall and has had as pupils the Misses Betsy Ballou, Eloise Horner, Dora Allred, Beth Cannady, Mary Owens, Elisabeth Niles, and Master Will Hicks. The children on this occasion were in fine form and with radiant faces and unaffected manners, made up a delightful group. The exercises began with a chorus spiritedly sung by the School. A Musical program was then rendered by a number of Mrs. Hicks private pupils which was admirably calculated to show the proficiency to which each had attained; some of the numbers were of particular excellence. A pleasing feature was the story of the noted music Composers as related by each little Kindergardner as they sat grouped at the feet of their teacher. Each one bearing a picture or a statuette of the Composer of whom they were to relate, told in their own style and language, some of the salient features of the Composers life, the entire group illustrating the theme by singing a bar of his music, as for instance from the Hallelujah Chorus, the Messiah etc. A demonstration of time and rhythm by beginners of only two or three weeks, was novel and very interesting. Then followed a Cantata, entitled Queen of the flowers, written for the occasion by Miss Lillian Minor. The flower chosen for Queen was the Daisy, and in the person of dainty little Miss Mary Owens, was enthroned in solemn state surrounded by her loving and dutiful flower subjects. The children's program ended with a beautiful Pantomime entitled A Tom Thumb Wedding. Mrs. Hick's method of teaching the little ones has been very pleasing to her patrons and has markedly developed the tender minds of the children with out undue strain. Next term Mrs. Hicks will give the children some training in Domestic Science, in which they will learn to cook their own lunches and to do it well and appetizingly. At the close Miss Eva Minor sang a song entitled May, Day, Morn. The song was delightfully and artistically rendered, eliciting hearty applause.
