LET'S GO TO GREENSBORO.

We must take a large delegation to Greensboro to root for Gen. Royster. We must go there with the same determination as we went there July 5th, and stick to our guns never ceasing for a moment.

JUDGE GRAHAM.

We were exceedingly sorry Judge Graham was defeated at Charlotte for Corporation Commissioner, place. It was our wish that he would receive a nomination but the Lee crowd got together and managed to elect some of the judges. Judge Graham would have made a good Commissioner. He would have looked into these delays and wrecks. He is a hard worker, and well deserves the position to which he aspired.

SOUTHERN HIGHWAY WORK.

From Manufacturer's Record, July 14, 1910.

Midsummer shows little, if any, relaxation in the movement of highway in country, town and city. The weekly statement of bonds voted, or to be voted, contracts awarded, or to be awarded, published in the Manufacturer's Record contains many items of the activity in this form of municipal, county and State improvement, and, although local newspapers may not be giving as much space to the subject as in the earlier part of the year, there is no evidence that there is any falling off in interest anywhere.

Four or five announcements of the past week are typical of the general spirit in the South. The Commissioners Court of Grayson county, Tex., has called for proposals for the construction of 65 miles of macadam road in that district No. 1 of the county. The plans, specifications and profit are on file in the office of A. C. Field, engineer in charge, at Dallas, and the bids are to be opened on August 10. Commissioners of Orange county, Fla., at Orlando, have called an election for September 14 to decide as to the issue of bonds to the amount of $1,000,000 for the construction of brick highways.

The Board of Supervisors of Harrison county, Miss., V. A. Griffith, Gulfport chairman, has agreed to the $500,000 bond issue for road improvement in that county. It is expected that work will begin early in the fall. The City Council of Birmingham, Ala., is now dealing with the ordinances which approve plans for $850,000 of street paving, involving the use of bituminous, asphalt, bituminous binder, macadam, granite, brick and Kentucky rock asphalt, while the Board of Public Works of Louisville, Ky., will open on July 20 proposals for $117,990 of street improvement, including 525 square yards of vitrified brick and 35,599 square yards of asphalt.

Good roads conventions, rallies and permanent organization are necessary preliminaries to the work of giving the South an adequate system of highways one of the most effective agencies for the upbuilding of that section. There have been many of them in the past year, none of them without a definite practical purpose. The actual work now under way in all sections of the South demonstrates that the gatherings have not been in vain.

NO ROOM FOR PESSIMISTS.

Ninety million people in the United States are producing or consuming; most of them are doing both. They are moving to and fro upon the earth. They are traveling or working. They cannot cease their activities. They cannot become negative. They are of necessity positive in their efforts, for manufactured products. Even at the moment they are buying a little less per capita than in former times, they are offsetting this to a large extent by an increase in numbers. Population comes and goes, financial scars come and go, but the momentum of the country moves along increasing its population, raising more agricultural products, turning out more manufactured goods and doing more work. Railroads are wearing out with every wheel that turns and must continue steady replacement. New railroads must be built to open up new territory awaiting development, and new facilities must be provided by existing railroads. Political uncertainty and harassing legislation may effect the ability of railroads to secure money, and these things do very greatly lessen the amount of capital that under more favorable conditions would turn into railroad building, but despite these adverse factors, railroad expansion must continue, or railroads will be bankrupted physically, and that is as bad as being bankrupted financially. Houses are being built, new houses must be built. The increase of population means a constant expansion in building operations. The growth of cities compels the building of water-works and sewerage systems, the extension of new streets and the better paving of existing streets. The awakening sense of the country to the importance of good roads not as a luxury, but as a necessity, an investment yielding a larger profit than any other investment which the country can make, means vast expansion all over the United States. Improvement of the internal combustion engine, as typified in the automobile, means the utilization of these engines in every department of farm work and in thousands of places where heretofore manual labor has been essential.

TRAGIC SHOOTING AFFAIR

day has been of a wild disposition and his father a number of years ago had to pay him out of a very unsavory escapade, though he always seemed to be a young fellow of fairly good address. He came back from Richmond Sunday morning, and has been about town talking to acquaintances. It was thought that his manners had been somewhat softened by rubbing up against the world, though it is quite evident that he has been dissipating a great deal. There was an air of sang froid a sort of dare devilry about him, for he seemed to have indulged in a number of theatrical expressions. Even in the very last moments of his life while he was actually on his way to commit the tragic deed, he was asked where he had been, replied that he had been "doing a man's work." He had been helping to freeze cream at his sister's house, a party for little Joe Floyd being under preparation. The funeral services of the young man took place the following afternoon at 5 o'clock, quite a number of people being in attendance, and a number of floral offerings being sent. The sermon being preached by Rev. F. M. Shamburger and the interment was made in Elwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Brown has been under the care of Dr. T. L. Booth, S. H. Canaday, and B. K. Hays, who came over from Buffalo Springs Monday night. The wounded woman's courage has been remarkable, her coolness throughout the affair being commented upon. She has been entirely conscious and while friends were cutting her clothes to expose the wound, she directed where to cut, and never seemed to lose her head throughout the ordeal.

She remarked that she did not blame any of the children, not even the one that shot her. She even begged that poor Otis not be hurt, and no one has told her of his death.

The Brown Estate and Will.

The late J. S. Brown left an estate reported as being worth from $40,000 to $70,000 though $60,000 is a fair appraisal. His will short and to the point contains the usual preamble and five items. The first two refer to his burial and the payments of any debts. The third reads: "I give, devise, and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Rachel E. Brown, all my estate, real, personal, and mixed, to be used by her during her life and after her death to be equally divided among my children" directing that this be left to their several wishes subject to the will of the executrix. Item five reads: "It is my desire that my said wife shall take entire control of my estate of every kind, and manage the same according to best judgement, etc. at the same time a desire was expressed in the will that his real business be conducted in the same place in the same manner, etc. as under the circumstances. It was also suggested that the stock in the White Company of Durham, and the J. E. White Company of Oxford be retained so long as profitable though the executrix was directed to make sale either public or private of any real estate or any of my stocks and bonds whenever she may be opinion that such sale would be beneficial to my estate." Further business direction is followed by "my said wife is authorized to make such advances to my children from time to time as she may think best to them, care being taken to make such advances as near equal as may be just or right in her opinion. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Rachel E. Brown, my true and lawful executrix to execute this, my will according to its true contents and meaning and direct that she be allowed to qualify and manage my estate without giving any bond." The will closed with directions to follow in the case of death of a child who should leave issue, and is dated July 13, 1904.

Unpleasantness Result The Will.

Since the death of Mr. Brown, there has been reports of domestic trouble over the estate. Mrs. Floyd, his older brother, John Brown, recently grocer on College St., has received each advances of $3,800 and this is said to have been the basis for young Otis' demand. He had been advised by counsel that under the terms of the will nothing could be done and it seems to have culminated in the tragedy. Mrs. Brown has been reported as having been a good step-mother and to have taken a great deal of trouble to seek the welfare of her step-children. Her friends think she had no option to do otherwise than she did in refusing to give Otis' more money on the grounds that he would squander it as fast as given. It is said that she had been in constant fear for life for a whole summer she has kept her windows closed with blankets. By many, the opinion that the suicide was mentally unbalanced has been expressed, and is no doubt a plausible theory. His theatrical expressions and conduct which seemed to treat the premeditated crime with so little care bears out the theory well. Evidently he has brooded over his failure and planned his campaign with minute exactness and did not realize the awfulness. It is stated that some possible difficulty that he might have been engaged in in Richmond could have been the cause for desperation, but this is very unlikely as no hint of such was in his letters, while on the other hand he seemed to be anxious that small debts be paid. Mrs. Brown is in a very serious condition though there seems to be a permanent turn for the better, and hopes are entertained for her recovery. The shooting has been a terrible shock to the Oxford public, and is universally deplored.

STATE AND GENERAL NEWS

Raleigh.—A requisition was issued today by Governor Kitchen on the Governor of Kentucky for George Ed Nicholson, wanted in Scotland county for bigamy. He is under arrest in Kentucky.

Winston Salem.—The postmasters of North Carolina, or more than one hundred of them, will meet here in their annual meeting, September 23 and 24, and already it is assured that prominent officials of the Post-office Department at Washington will be in attendance.

Raleigh.—The first application came to the secretary of state today for the reservation of a seat for the 1911 general assembly. It came from A. A. Hicks of Oxford, who has been renominated for the state senate and now, without waiting for the result of the election, writes the secretary of state to reserve him a seat which he is especially anxious to have. He feels that Cranville has such a big Democratic majority that he is fully warranted in counting on his election as a certainty.

Charlotte.—A young woman of fine address, and giving her name Marie E. Barwick after spending several weeks here, has departed and behind her are unpaid bills estimated at about five hundred dollars. The young woman secured expensive officers in the realty building and stated that she was interested in the insurance business. She is said to have ordered about three hundred dollars worth of dress goods from one firm but upon investigation the goods were withheld. She left next day.

Tampa, Fla.—Sam McIntosh a negro, was surrounded in a swamp near Kathleen this afternoon and shot to death when he resisted arrest at the hands of a sheriff posse. McIntosh was being pursued for shooting six times at L. Strickland, president of the Strickland Lumber company. I tried to borrow money from Strickland, and when he refused pulled a revolver and commenced firing. The negro was chased to a nearby swamp and trailed with bloodhounds. The negroes are considerably excited over the killing.

Norfolk, Va.—John Sweeney a telegraph operator, died in the street tonight from aneurism of the heart superinduced by the heat. Sweeney was 25 years old and was enroute to a drug store with a prescription accompanied by his star when he fell in the street and died in a few minutes. The heat in Norfolk today caused much suffering. A messenger boy was overcome by the heat while endeavoring to deliver a telegram and was sent to a hospital. The mercury went up to 91 and the humidity was almost unbearable.

Enid, Oklaho.—The signing of a stipulation by which the waters Pierce Oil company is to pay a fine of $75,000 and be restrained from entering into any contract in restraint of trade, resulted in the dismissal today of the quo warranto suit brought by Attorney General West against the company. The fine is to be payable as follows: $25,000 in 60 days; $25,000 in six months, and $25,000 in nine months. It was agreed that the defendant company should maintain uniform prices upon petroleum products in Oklahoma.

Chicago, Ill.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is the fee demanded and may be paid to Attorney Clarence A. Knight for services rendered in straightening out the estate of Charles T. Yerkes, the late traction magnate, Master in Chancery Granville W. Browning, who was appointed as referee by Judge Cutler of the Probate Court, yesterday declared that the fee was just and not exorbitant. He not only gave it as his opinion that Knight was entitled to the full quarter million, but that he well deserved it for honest and loyal work in recouping the dissipating properties following the street car man's death in 1905.

Goldboro.—Early this morning while a severe electric storm was sweeping over the city, lightning struck the steeple of the Baptist church, damaging same very badly and leaving it almost an entire wreck. The union passenger station was also damaged by the lightning and several people who were in the station when the building was struck were slightly crazed. For about an hour the entire city was flooded with water, the streets looking like young rivers. Farmers living near the city report serious damage to their crops.

Richmond, Va.—Ely Runyon the 17-year-old Richmond boy, who has gotten into serious trouble with the police of his city and Washington and who was arrested in the last named city Thursday last on charge of house breaking and turned over to the outskirts of the District, was probably fatally injured on the 17th of July, when in diving from a spring board he struck his head against a submerged rock and fractured one of his spinal vertebrae. He was brought to a Richmond hospital where he is under treatment and where it is stated that he will probably not survive more than a week longer at most.

Norfolk, Va.—There is an expert safe cracker on board the United States receiving ship Franklin, if the statement of Lieut. Commander Chadwick of that ship is true. He declared that the safe in the pay office was cracked on Thursday night and a large sum of money stolen. Lieutenant Chadwick says the amount was not as much as $6,500 as first reported but he declined to say just how much was taken. The question is, "Is the safe cracker?" There are 1,628 on this ship and there is no doubt one of the members is the guilty man. Up to this time, however, we have absolutely no clue to work on and no arrest have been made.

Raleigh.—The state's prison authorities have received the official report from the state farm in Halifax attempting to escape. The convicts were last Friday while they were at there John Featherstone, of Rowan county, and George Caldwell, of Caldwell county, who made a dash for liberty as a squad of convicts were being mortally wounded by the guards. Featherstone was serving seven years for robbery. He began his sentence in 1896 and escaped within a few months, remaining at large until little over a month ago, when he was retaken in Jersey City. N. J. Caldwell was serving eight years for assault with intent to kill.

Roky Mount.—Three applicants before the city board of aldermen, for near-beer license were granted the privilege of securing them at the last night's meeting of city council and this morning bright and early the city clerk was besieged for the necessary document for the opening up of the places. For over a month the aldermen of the city have had the matter under consideration, during which time the city has been without the saloons and recorders' court has noted a very preceptible dropping off in the drunks of the city in fact the recorder remarked when speaking on this subject that there had been only one drunk tried in the city court in the past three weeks.

Raleigh.—The first application Varnish company of Wilmington, received yesterday, with $75,000 capital by M. Ashley Curtis, C. N. Evans and others.

There were also charters today for the Leeds Milling company, Land's, Rowan county, $25,000 capital for flouring and general milling purposes by Dr. B. O. Edwards and others, the T. H. Pritchard, Transportation company, Swansboro, capital $50,000, by T. H. Pritchard, Frank Thompson and others, for building and operating steamboats and other vessels for carrying freight and passengers; the Woodside Lumber company, Edenton, Beaufort county, capital $25,000, by B. J. Allen and others; the Montgomery Drug company, Graham, Albemarle county, capital $10,000 by T. C. Montgomery and others.

Raleigh.—Friends are searching in vain for J. T. Jones, a well known contracting tinner and roofer, who maintains an extensive shop on Salisbury street. He has not been seen since Friday morning, when he left his boarding house, presumably to go to his shop. He has been greatly troubled for some time, his wife having left him some months ago. He went to the union station Thursday night to mail a letter that he seemed to consider very important. There seems to be no financial trouble that could have seriously disturbed him.

There are fears that he has wandered off in a demented condition. He has suffered a great deal with his head and otherwise for the past year from the effects of falling from the roof of the new Agricultural building at the Agricultural and Mechanical college while working on the roof. He is about 38 years old.

Raleigh.—The farmers Institute parties, five in number, under the auspices of the state department of agriculture and under the direction of T. B. Parker, of the state department, start out this week for trips into every section of the state and continuing until well into August. The Seaboard Air Line party begins its series of institutes at Pittsboro, July 12; the southern party at Cedar Grove, July 15; the northern party at Oxford, July 14, the central party at Carthage, July 20; and the western party at Fletcher, July 20.

At most of the institutes there are to institutes also for wives and daughters of farmers. A prize of $1 is to be awarded at each of these to the wife or daughter of a farmer who brings a best loaf of bread baked on the farm.

Statesville.—J. A. Beach, and Sons, merchants at Morganton, have filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the Federal court. The assets and the liabilities are about the same—about $8,000 J. K. Morrison and Sons company, of Statesville, are creditors to the amount of $200.

Raleigh.—The board of trustees of the North Carolina Soldiers' home is still halting as to the election of a superintendent of the home to succeed the late Capt. R. H. Brooks. The selection was to have been made a week ago, but when the trustees came to give over the list of applicants of whom there were 20 odd, there were a number of questions developed as to just who would make the most desirable superintendent, with the result that there was an indefinite postponement of the election. The trustees wish to select some competent Confederate veteran one whose health and general qualifications will be equal to the requirements of the place.

Monroe, La.—Returning here today with Philip Ward, alleged horse thief, Sheriff Parker and his deputies reported that they came upon Ward while he was standing by the half filled grave of his wife near Quachita City. Ward drew a revolver, but the deputy knocked it out of his hand. He drew another and it met the same fate. As he was drawing a third revolver, the posse decided it was time to intrude still further upon the obsequies and they placed him under arrest and handcuffed him. Ward's wife died yesterday. He says that he had self-destruction in mind when the posse drew up and no thought of harming them. There are at least half a dozen charges of horse stealing against him and he is alleged to have fired on a negro farmer from ambush several days ago.

Pittsburg.—Dr. Robert J. Black today threatened to run on an independent ticket in opposition to Congressman John Dazell in the 36th district. He also said he would demand an audit of Dazell's expense account which could prove very irregular and the money spent during the primaries was greater than Dazell had sworn to.

Asheville.—The fifth place to take out a privilege tax to sell near-beer and kindred illusions of the prohibition variety for the real stuff, was the Old American saloon on West College street. I. H. Revis today paid to the city tax collector the $1,000. This makes $5,000 that Asheville has derived from the privilege on "soft drink places."

Winston Salem.—Education has received a decided impetus in the town of King, near here, a modern school building to cost $3,000 being an immediate prospect. Prof. J. T. Smith, county superintendent of schools, secured a few days ago, a deed to four acre track upon which the King High School will be begun very soon.

Durham.—The item has caused the publicity that it needs, but within the past few days announcement has been made of a discharge of Mrs. R. M. Baxley, of Hillsboro, from Watts hospital, where she had been many weeks under treatment of Dr. Joe Graham for pellagra.

She goes away completely cured, the first cure reported here since the scourge was observed to have been doing deadly work. Beginning a little earlier last year, there were observed several cases and 11 deaths were recorded. Within the past few days about Durham four deaths from pellagra were announced. In that the Mrs. Baxley has been cured she came here in April with a dreadful case of it. Following some experimenting along his line, Dr. Joe Graham, began injections into the blood. He has not accepted, nor has he attacked the Indian corn theory, but has worked his way and with experiment along the line are being made.

Lexington, Va.—Information was received here today of the drowning yesterday, at Bryson, N. C. of Charles Fifth Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spencer, of Lexington. He was manager and instructor in a summer camp school conducted at Bryson. The drowning occurred Saturday morning while boating. Mr. Spencer was about 30 years of age.

Raleigh.—Deputy Sheriff J. S. Hunsinger is here from Greenville in jail at Lexington, Governor Kitchen in an order honoring the requisition of the Governor of South Carolina for John Lowe, who is wanted in Greenville to answer the charge of assault with intent to kill. Lowe is now in jail at Lexington. Governor Kitchen is in Scotland Neck at the bedside of his mother who is desperately ill, and Private Secretary A. J. Field has gone to the Democratic state convention at Charlotte. Col. A. H. Arrington of the state treasury, who was private secretary to Governor Glenn, provided the necessary executive order for Sheriff Hunsinger.

Albany, N. Y.—This statement was given out: "Governor Hughes has received an invitation from Gov. Roosevelt to spend Tuesday evening at Oyster Bay as his guest and has accepted." It is understood the Governor will spend the night at Sagamore Hill.

Wilson.—The preliminary hearing of Ed Peyton for the murder of Will Dew with a butcher knife at the county stockade, two weeks ago, while the convicts were at supper, was heard before Squire Barnes this afternoon. After hearing the evidence Peyton was remanded to jail without bail.

New York.—In New York and its vicinity there were four deaths due to heat and two score prostration today. Walter Slade, 17 years old, was found dead in his bed in Brooklyn. It was thought he died from ptomaine poisoning caused by eating ice cream corn. An autopsy showed heat the cause.

Wellesley Mass.—Miss Florence Jennison and Miss Mary Palmer, both members of the class of 1913, Wellesley College, were drowned in lake Wadon the College pond while bathing this afternoon. According to Miss Elsie Jennison and Miss Constance Ruell, Miss Florence lost her life in a vain effort to save that of Miss Palmer.

Oyster Bay.—Theodore Roosevelt was hard at work early today. He said that he expected no political visitors today but as he still has thousands of letters to be answered as well as his editorial work to attend, he was not in want of work today. It is probable that there will be no further important conference at Sagamore Hill until next Tuesday, when Governor Hughes is to come home.

New Bern.—Miss Mary Smith who resides at No 71 Metcalf street, succeeded to an attack of pellagra at Stewart's Sanatorium early this morning. Miss Smith was carried to the Sanatorium Tuesday morning and at that time was suffering intensely, but it was thought there was some hope for her recovery but despite the fact that everything possible was done for her, she succumbed to the dread disease. There are three other cases in the city.

San Francisco.—Tex Rickard has given some inside facts about the deal by which he secured the Jeffries Johnson fight two days before bids were opened in Jersey City. The fighters were signed up with me two days before the opening of bids," he said yesterday. "When I went to New York I saw a joker in their contract. It stated that best inducements would be accepted. I knew that meant they would do as they pleased. I worked on Johnson and also on his wife. I offered Johnson a bonus of $10,000 and told his wife I would buy her a sealskin sack if her husband would sign. The champion accepted, and in addition I had to loan him $2,500 when the articles were signed.
