

The Granville County Fair A Phenomena Success In Every Way.

On Thursday the Largest Crowd Was Present in Oxford That Has Been in Many Years. The Exhibits Were Exceptionally Good.

Full Details of The Fair Are Given Below. The Winners of The Prizes. A Description of Each Exhibit And a General Account of The Fair.

In addition to the citizens of Oxford, not less than 3,500 or 4,000 happy people of the county gathered on Wednesday, the 26th of October, at the fair grounds of the town to witness the opening of the first county fair...

exhibits did more to teach even the best informed of our people what his neighbors were doing and what they can and will do in the future...

placed in view the handiwork of the fourteen little tots in her school, and the results were amazing. The future mistresses of households evidently have been taught instructive lessons and likewise have been very apt pupils.

How it Happened. A variety of factors enter in the successful culmination of the annual festival of the county...

What was known as the general exhibit was very good. Mr. J. H. Perry, of Southern Granville, who received the first prize, deserves special mention...

The Crowd. A visitor would have to travel many, many miles and visit many places to see as fine a crowd as was in attendance during the two days of the fair...

The Fair Opens. The day before the opening was threatening. The sun looked unpropitious, but by Wednesday morning a light western wind aroused itself...

Live Stock Exhibits. The next exhibit of interest, perhaps, was the live stock. The new stables being built in the commercial district...

The Poultry. "You never would have had a better exhibit if you had had all the time you wanted," don't you know, Mr. Hill...

The General Exhibit. The centre of the fair, it might be said, was the court room of the court house which had been carpentered to suit the occasion...

The Tobacco Exhibit. Pushing the tobacco, which was ranged in the armory, made up in quality for what it lacked in quantity...

The Winners of The Prizes. Best native stallion, H. C. Floyd; Best brood mare with colt, O. C. Jenkins; Best pair mules, C. G. Daniel; Best saddle horse, Herbert Gregory...

The COLLECTION OF STATE BONDS REPRODUCED IN WHOLE OR IN PART.

The recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, entitled "South-Dakota vs. North Carolina," wherein the former State secured a judgement against the latter on ten bonds, par value $10,000...

The undersigned committee in 1901 pooled all of one issue of North Carolina bonds and originated the plan by which the above successful results were brought about...

This committee is now ready to proceed with the collection of all other repudiated bonds of every class, of each State.

Those who desire to enforce the collections of their bonds will deposit the same with the North American Trust Company, 195 Broadway, New York City...
