VERY SENSIBLE JUSTICE.

How Man Tries to Prosecute Boy For Theft of Five Cents—Case of Hypocritical Honesty.

Philadelphia Record.
Justice is occasionally tempered with mercy and common sense, even in the police courts of Philadelphia. Recently magistrate Scott had before him a youth charged with having taken a 5 cent pack of playing cards from the counter of a store. He asked the prosecutor, "Do you think it right to put the brand of a criminal on a boy for 5 cents?" The prosecutor replied that if the prisoner would steal something of greater value if opportunity offered. "Then," said the magistrate, "how was it that your firm was willing to drop the charge against a clerk who was before me some time ago for embezzling several thousand of dollars when that person promised to repay the money? If it is the money you want, I will order the boy to pay you 5 cents and discharge him, too."

The boy paid, and was discharged. He and the prosecutor had both been taught a lesson. The probability is that the boy will never steal again, and that his accuser will never again contribute to the clogging of the business of the minor courts with proceedings against trivial unprofessional offenders who may be more effectively dealt with in other ways. Bully for Magistrate Scott!

You Can't Get Medicine Too Good

Good medicines are more necessary than good food. When you're strong and well a little poor food won't have any lasting bad effects, but when you're weak and sick a little poor medicine will work untold harm.

Good medicines are the only kind we sell. We put the purest and freshest drugs into prescriptions. Our prices are right, too.

We have an excellent dyspepsia cure, if you are suffering from any form of this common disease. REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS assist the gastric juices, act as a gentle tonic, enable the body to derive all the nutriment from food and cure dyspepsia and indigestion permanently. Sold with the Rexall guarantee.
