Women Who Were Hanged in North Carolina.

The Winston Republican asserted that no woman was ever hanged in North Carolina. The Landmark corrected the statement by calling attention to the fact that a white woman was hanged in Burke county many years ago for the murder of her husband. Her name if memory serves us was "Frankie or Frances, Silvers." The papers have published in recent years a lot of barbarous staff she wrote (called poetry) while she was in jail awaiting execution. In mentioning the Burk case the Landmark expressed the opinion that other women had been hanged in the state. The Raleigh News and Observer demanded to know when and where. By way of answer a correspondent informs the News &

Observer that a negro woman was hanged in Rockingham county as late as 1882, and Mr. G. H. A. Lilly mentions the hanging of a negro woman in Montgomery county a short time before the beginning of the civil war. In fact in the old days, when the people "believed in hell, hanging and calomel" women who committed capital offenses not infrequently paid the penalty the same as men. But later there came a feeling that to put a woman to death was barbarous, and following this it became a custom to excuse men so often that now it is almost impossible to inflict the death penalty on anybody save a negro or a mighty ordinary white man. — Statesville Landmark.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR EYES.

The prudent person does not wait until his or her vision becomes perceptible weakened before attending to it. Yet some people will persist in believing their eyes to be the exception to the rule; and will never be obliged to wear glasses. Don't take chances with your eyes. Dr. N. Rosenstein will be at Oxford, Tuesday, Nov. 28th, at the Exchange Hotel and at Creedmoor Wednesday, Nov. 29th. Come to see him and he will give your eyes a thorough examination. His glasses are the best and prices are very moderate, from $2.00 up.

Shady Grove Songs.

We understand that Mr. A. M. Overton has the largest hog in this township. I guess his house will be a good place to fall into about Christmas time.

There has been a few cases of smallpox in this community, but nothing very serious, they are all about well now. The most of us have been vaccinated.

Now to Mr. Herb Crews we want to hear from him again, as he is a jolly old man and full of fun. We like to read his pieces he makes us laugh. Come again Uncle Herb.

Our friend Mr. M. P. Crews is having some good work done on our road, but we don't care to let the mobile folks find it out as my little driving horse is afraid of them.

Our neighbor, Mr. S. T. Barnette has just purchased a nice young buckskin horse from The Long-Winston Company, and its right up to the notch in every respect so this makes him happy as he has a nice new carriage to hook up to.

Oh, I like to have forgot almost the best thing I had to say. My old man tells me that Mr. E. C. Harris is thinking of running for County Treasurer. We think he would make us a good officer as he has served us very faithfully as County Commissioner.

Well, it's most turkey time now, as Thanksgiving is near at hand, and we should give thanks and enjoy our labors in the right way. My old man says he wants to give many thanks. He says he is thankful that he is living and in good health and also thankful that the prospect is good for F. M. Simmons to beat Will Kitchin for the United States Senate.

By request, I will drop in a few words for the Ledger this time. Our newspaper man (Mr. Crowson) who now has charge of the Ledger Office, we learn that he is a Methodist, Democrat and a christian gentleman, this is all good, none much better, but as I am a Baptist I must not talk so loud. We should give this gentleman a cordial welcome in our midst and let him feel at home and help him in the paper business by sending in all the news we can catch up. As no one rarely ever has anything to say from old Shady Grove section you will see from this that we are not all dead, but still living and will soon be ready to go into winter quarters with plenty of hog and hominy, turkey, collards, and turnips and many other things that is passed around after all this, and I do think we should all feel thankful to our great Redeemer for all these blessings. It was so dry through the summer we didn't expect much as it turned out we have a bounty, and are having a good time in this section.

Mrs. Leopold.
