CIVIC DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB INAUGURATES CAMPAIGN

Atties, Cellars, Front and Back Yards Must Be Cleaned—Mrs. R. G. Lassiter Heads the Campaign and Asks the Cooperation of All Citizens.

By reference to the announcement of Mayor T. G. Stem, which appears elsewhere on this page, it will be seen that Oxford is to have a genuine clean up and paint up campaign covering five weeks of intense work on the part of the Civic Department, but only a few hours' work on the part of the individual.

Mrs. Lassiter Heads Campaign
Realizing that Oxford should undergo a thorough cleansing, Mrs. R. G. Lassiter, chairman of the Civic Department of the Oxford Woman's Club, invited a number of ladies and gentlemen to her home last Friday night for the purpose of organizing the campaign. At the request of Mrs. Lassiter, Mayor Stem took the chair and outlined the object of the meeting. An informal discussion of the subject ensued, in which it was discovered that Mrs. Lassiter had been turning the subject over in her mind for some time. She realized that the campaign would involve much time and labor and a small cash expenditure.

Addressing each one present, Mrs. Lassiter inquired if they would share the burden to the best of their ability. Every one present pledged hearty cooperation. Mayor Stem, speaking for the City of Oxford, said that he realized the importance of the work and that he would do all in his power to make the campaign a success.

Dr. J. A. Morris, our health officer, who had made many excursions about the town, said that he realized that there is much filth and many germ-breeding places in some of the districts of the town that should be obliterated, and with that end in view he pledged hearty cooperation.

Organization Formed.
Mrs. N. H. Cannady was elected chairman of the publicity committee. Mrs. Lassiter will announce the other committees in the next issue of the Public Ledger. As will be seen by reference to Mayor Stem's announcement, the town has been divided into five districts. The business district will be cleaned up during the week beginning Monday, October 6th, and one week will be devoted to each of the other districts.

The Public Ledger realizes that the health and happiness of the whole community depends upon the sanitary conditions of the town. We pledge our hearty cooperation and we believe that all good citizens who realize the importance of the work will fall in line. There is an ignorant element in the community that must be reached. If reason does not prevail, then the law should be invoked.

SHERIFF HUNT CAPTURES MIDGET DISTILLING PLANT
The Boiler Was a Five-Gallon Lard Can—Erected to Manufacture Flu Liqueur.

Last Friday morning Sheriff Hunt and Mr. C. W. Davis, his office assistant, armed to the teeth, left Oxford under sealed orders which were not to be opened until they reached Cannady's mill, where the hiding place of the moonshiners would be revealed to them.

Reaching Cannady's mill, they were instructed to remove a certain stone at a marked tree on the hillside, beneath which they would find a letter directing them to the still.

On breaking the seal of the envelope, the sheriff found a neatly executed map of the surrounding country, roads, waterways and all. On the banks of a little stream which emptied into the river was an X, indicating the location of the still.

The officers approached the scene with drawn pistols. It was a secluded spot and everything was as silent as the tomb, except the palpitating heart of Officer Davis. Peering into the bushes the Sheriff broke the silence by exclaiming: "Good boy, here she is!"

Two five-gallon lard cans, fastened together with three yards of one-fourth inch copper auto tubing and a three gallon jug constituted the plant.

Judging from the size of the pile of ashes which had accumulated and the well-worn path that led to it is evidence that it had been in use for some time.

The sheriff lifted the entire plant into his auto and brought it to Oxford, where it was viewed by a large number of citizens.

Pinned to a tree to the left of the distillery was a note, which read as follows:
"Dis hura still is to make Flu liker to save folk's life. If de officer ketch us we ask murey. This notice am in evidence of the same."

Our Authorized Agent.
Mr. H. E. Overton, well known to the people of Granville county, is the authorized agent of the Public Ledger to take subscriptions for the paper. He has a list of the county subscribers in his pocket. You will find him on the warehouse floors during sale hours. We will thank you to hand him your name and subscription.

He Will Name His Aids At An Early Date.

CLEAN-UP AND PAINT-UP CAMPAIGN FOR TOWN OF OXFORD

Desiring to cooperate in every possible way with the Civic Department of the Woman's Club of Oxford, which department has inaugurated a Clean-up and Paint-up Campaign, a period of five weeks, beginning October 6th, 1919, is hereby designated for this purpose.

The town will be divided into five districts and cleaned up as follows:
First District—The business district of Oxford—the week beginning October 6th.

Second District—North Oxford east of College street—the week beginning October 13th, 1919.

Third District—North Oxford west of College street—the week beginning October 20th.

Fourth District—South Oxford east of Main and Hancock streets—the week beginning October 27th.

Fifth District—South Oxford west of Main and Hancock streets—the week beginning November 3rd.

This campaign will be more intensive than any ever attempted before in our town. Every citizen is hereby urged to make every possible effort to do his or her part so thoroughly that not a single dirty or unsightly spot will remain in our town after this work is completed.

This campaign contemplates both inside and outside cleaning, including attics, cellars, front and back yards, the abolishing of all places that might breed flies or mosquitoes, the elimination of all weeds, and the thorough cleaning of all lots, including vacant lots.

The town will furnish the necessary wagons and carts for the purpose of hauling the rubbish away. Don't put the rubbish on the sidewalks or streets, but collect it in your back yards where possible, if your back yard is accessible to the wagons and carts. Collect it in some kind of a receptacle or receptacles—boxes, cans, barrels or bags. Collect this refuse and place it so that it can be easily loaded and carted away.

Various committees will be appointed for the purpose of rendering every possible assistance in this matter. The Civic Department of the Woman's Club, with Mrs. R. G. Lassiter as chairman, not only originated this campaign, but will see that it is a success from every standpoint.

This is an opportunity for every citizen not only to show his personal pride, but also his civic pride. If it is not attractive or sanitary if it is dirty and littered up. Besides cleaning up, our town needs painting up, and it is earnestly hoped that during this campaign a great deal may be accomplished along this line.

Let us all work together to clean up and paint up Oxford. The result will be a cleaner, healthier, happier and more attractive town.

T. G. STEM, Mayor.

OMAHA IS QUIET AFTER NIGHT OF RIOTING

The Negro-Loving State of Nebraska Turns Its Back To the Colored Race.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—A night of mob rule, during which a negro was lynched, and an attempt made to hang the mayor of Omaha, Edward P. Smith, the county court house burned, one man shot and killed and perhaps forty others injured, the city was quiet today under patrol of Federal troops.

Because Mayor Smith advised against the lynching of the negro, charged with attacking a white woman, the mob attempted to hang him to a trolley pole.

A captured German cannon, presented to the city by the war department, was used by the mob to batter down the courthouse door. County commissioners estimated the damage to the court house at from $100,000 to $250,000.

PENNIES COME HIGH TO NORTH CAROLINA BANKERS

Washington, Sept. 29.—Pennies come high these days. A North Carolina banker complains to Senator Simmons that he has to pay $1.62 per hundred dollars worth transportation from Washington to his bank, and he uses from $300 to $500 per week. A large part of these pennies go to soda fountains and railroad ticket offices for tax change. Senator Simmons has asked Secretary Glass if any relief is to be had for the bankers. If not what would be the attitude of the department toward legislation to remedy the situation.

PRICES FOR TOBACCO ON THE OXFORD MARKET GOES HIGHER AND HIGHER

Good Sales With a Noticeable Advance On Common Grades—Better Grades Still High.

The past week on the Oxford tobacco market has only added to the satisfaction of the tobacco growers in the prices received. The sales have been good with a noticeable advance on the common grades, and a steady strong high price trend for the better grades. The buyers all seem anxious for the weed and the demand is strong. The lighter grades however are still commanding more attention and are receiving better prices. All those who have patronized Oxford that we have been able to interview, express the greatest satisfaction. One man stated to us before his tobacco was sold that "he had heard of the high prices in Oxford but he was from Missouri and would have to be shown." After the sale we saw the same man and asked him the result and he answered "I've been shown."

Since the better grades began to come in it is a common thing to see a pile sell at $1.00 the pound.

THE FLU MAKES ITS APPEARANCE IN 14 STATES

Three Hundred Cases Officially Reported, But is of a Mild Form.

Washington, Sept. 29.—More than 300 cases of influenza were reported to the public health service this week by fourteen states but the disease has not reached the proportions of an epidemic in any state. The service announced today that the cases reported generally were of a mild type.

States reporting and the numbers in each follow:
Alabama 20; Arkansas 14; California 51; Florida 22; Georgia 23; Kansas 31; Kentucky 13; Louisiana 5; Maine 5; Massachusetts 42; Montana 4; New Jersey 20; New York 31; Washington 7.

"The fact that the cases are of a mild type would seem to be a hopeful sign," said Surgeon General Blue. "However, it is too early to make a forecast with any degree of certainty."

"The wisest thing to do is for every person to avoid contact with those affected, to keep out of crowds and crowded places to be on the lookout for the first symptoms and when these appear to go directly and summon a physician."

"City and state authorities should by no means take it for granted that influenza will not return. Every sanitary precaution should be rigidly enforced until the danger is entirely passed."

SMALLPOX VACCINATION.

Due to the fact that there are at present some cases of smallpox in Oxford and also to the fact that no child should be allowed in school until he or she is vaccinated the following ruling is announced:

Every child who has not been successfully vaccinated must show a certificate from the doctor or show a scar by October 15th, 1919, to be allowed to remain in school. This must be done according to law that controls the contagious diseases in schools.

Since there is no quarantine law now vaccination is the only means of protection.

The vaccine can be had free of charge from Hall's Drug store and will be administered free by the county health officer at the Court House. It may be administered by any family physician.

Remember the date, October 15, 1919, is the last one that will be announced regarding vaccination.

To be exact, the load of tobacco weighed 1,316 pounds and it was sold at the Farmers' warehouse and brought $952.66 clear check.

The farm on which the tobacco grew is owned by Mr. John Brummitt, father of Mr. D. G. Brummitt.

PRESIDENT BREAKS DOWN UNDER THE STRAIN OF OFFICIAL CARES

Considerable Period of Rest "Necessary For His Recovery," Says Physician—President Had Not Been Well For Some Time.

When President Wilson's special train reached Wichita, Kansas, two hours late last Thursday afternoon, Dr. Grayson, the attending physician, advised the President to abandon his speaking tour and return to Washington for rest. Remaining dates on the President's schedule were:

Wichita and Oklahoma City Sept. 26; Little Rock, Ark., and Memphis Tenn., Sept. 27; Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28 and 29. He was to arrive in Washington Sept. 30.

Dr. Grayson's statement follows: "President Wilson's condition is due to overwork. The trouble dates back to an attack of influenza last April in Paris from which he has never entirely recovered. The President's activities on this trip have over-taxed his strength and he is suffering from nervous exhaustion. His condition is not alarming, but it will be necessary for his recovery that he have rest and quiet for a considerable time."

Washington, Sept. 29.—A brief bulletin by Dr. Grayson, given out today, says:

"The President passed a restless night, but is sleeping this morning."
