R. L. GREEN

OFFICE OF OXFORD BUGGY CO., SEPT. 4, 1919.

Resolutions of Respect.

Our associate director and co-worker Mr. R. L. Green has been called to his reward and we shall miss his wise counsel, his genial companionship and his enthusiastic interest in the business of the company.

Loyal, energetic, industrious, with an abiding faith and confidence in the output of the factory, he made of every customer a friend of the company. His ability to sell our vehicles to high class dealers, and deliver just what he sold, gave the company its splendid reputation in his territory.

He was one of the chief factors in building up the present business of the company and his death is not only a great loss to the company, but the directors are personally bereaved. We desire to record our appreciation of his splendid qualities and to express our sympathy to his family.

Therefore be it Resolved: 1. That in the death of Mr. Green, Oxford Buggy Company has lost one of its most loyal and faithful directors and an earnest and efficient promoter of every interest of the company.

2. That the board of directors are deeply grieved on account of the death of our good friend and highly esteemed co-worker.

3. That we tender to his family our deepest sympathy.

4. That a page of our records be dedicated to his memory and these resolutions be suitably inscribed thereon; that a copy be sent to his family; and that they be published in the Oxford Public Ledger.

Z. W. LYON

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Memory of Mr. Z. W. Lyon, President of Oxford Buggy Co.

On the 30th day of September, 1919, Mr. Z. W. Lyon, president of Oxford Buggy Co., passed into the great beyond.

For many years he was a director, and for nearly two years he served as president. The value of his services to the company cannot be measured. He was ready at all times to give of his best to everything which would make the company the equal of any, and as good as the best. He was proud of the company's good name and reputation for fair dealings, and his ideal for its future was that it should be known and respected because of its fixed purpose to grow and conduct its business along the lines of scrupulous integrity.

As chief executive officer and director he was always courteous and considerate of his associates. During his long illness we have missed him at our meetings and now that he has passed away we are deeply grieved. Large-hearted and generous, with a sunny and kindly disposition, he never failed to recognize and appreciate merit and faithfulness and efficient service, and to reward them in a most substantial manner. One of our most conscientious and faithful officers has gone from us but the impress of his splendid worth and character will long remain with us to inspire a higher degree of fidelity on the part of those who shall take his place.

His death is a distinct loss to the company and a personal grief to the officers and directors.

Therefore be it Resolved: 1. That in the death of Mr. Z. W. Lyon, Oxford Buggy Co. has lost an officer and director whose best thought and energies were devoted to its welfare and progress.

2. That the directors mourn the loss of a warm personal friend, and we shall miss his good judgment and lively interest in the conduct of the business of the company.

3. That we tender to his son and daughter our most sincere sympathy in this sore affliction which has come into their lives.

4. That we dedicate to his memory a page in the records of the meetings of the directors and that these resolutions be inscribed thereon; that copies be sent to his son and daughter under the seal of the company; and that a copy be furnished the Oxford Public Ledger for publication.

The Book of the Acts.

The book was written by Luke, Paul's companion. He was a physician.

The key words are: "The Name of Jesus."

The second chapter of Joel, and the second chapter of Acts, lived out, will surely bring a revival.

It is preeminently the "book of the Holy Ghost."

Note three things in the whole book:

- 1. The number of prayer meetings
2. The number of converts.
3. The number of people who got mad.

The following is a complete list of the twenty-eight chapters.

- 1. Ascension chapter.
2. Pentecost chapter.
3. Lame man's chapter.
4. John and Peter's chapter.
5. Ananias and Sapphira's chapter.

- 6. Deacon's chapter.
7. Stephen's chapter.
8. Philip and the Eunuoh's chapter.

- 9. Saul of Tarsus' chapter.
10. Cornelius' chapter.
11. Gentile chapter.
12. Herod's chapter.
13. Antioch chapter.
14. Lystra chapter.
15. Circumcision chapter.

- 16. Macedonia chapter.
17. Athenian chapter.
18. Corinthian chapter.
19. Ephesian chapter.
20. Farewell Message chapter.

- 21. Paul's arrest chapter.
22. Paul's defense chapter.
23. Prison chapter.
24. Felix's chapter.
25. Festus' chapter.

- 26. Agrippa's chapter.
27. Shipwreck chapter.
28. Barbarian and Rome chapter.

Every soul winner should read this book through once a month if possible, and note:

On first reading—How the Holy Ghost carried on the work of Christ.

On second reading—How converts were secured.

On third reading—How all classes of people were reached.

On fourth reading—How joy and faith and the Holy Ghost work together.

On fifth reading—How different results were had in different places.

On sixth reading—How suffering and joy went hand in hand.

On seventh reading—How the first eight chapters contrast with the last twenty.

The book of Acts gives the work, the book of Romans gives the word of the preachers. Note: Right work, right word, right workers.

This book teaches above all else, the need of the power of the Holy Ghost upon the worker.

When reading, read also the epistle which belongs thereto; for instance, when you read the Ephesian chapter, read also Paul's letter to that church; or the Macedonian chapter, then read the Phillipian's, of course.

Get the three missionary journeys of St. Paul well in mind.

A good map is essential to a full knowledge of the book.

Keep in mind that the book covers about thirty years of history, i. e., from A. D. 33 to A. D. 63. It is supposed Paul became a martyr at Rome, A. D. 66, just after his second letter to Timothy. Some think it was June, and that he was beheaded.

Note always that it is the book of the Acts of the Apostles, and not the Resolutions of the Apostles. They did something.—Selection by D. H. Hood, in Apostolic Evangel.

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick est, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.
