SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of authority vested in me by an order and decree of the Superior Court of Granville County made on the 20th day of January, 1920 in a special proceeding therein pending entitled, "Mrs. J. M. Farabow, Leland D. Farabow, Gilbert W. Farabow, Katie Lee Farabow, Ex parte." I shall on MONDAY, THE 23d DAY OF FEB. 1920 sell at public auction at the court house door in the Town of Oxford to the highest bidder for cash a certain lot of land situated in said County near Stem and containing 90-1-10 acres more or less, the same being the J. M. Farabow Homestead. Said land is described by metes and bounds in a deed from A. H. Baird to J. M. Farabow recorded in Book 65 at Page 147 and a deed from H. P. Moore to Mrs. J. M. Farabow recorded in Book 43 at Page 522. This is an exceptionally fine tract of land being well wooded and watered and having two settlements on the same. Time of sale 12 o'clock m.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE PRIZE-HOUSE ON SOUTHERN RAILWAY IN OXFORD.

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by a certain decree of the Superior Court of Granville County, entered in said Court on the 19th day of January, 1920 in a certain special proceeding therein pending, entitled "Harvey R. Bullock and wife, J. N. Wiley, Guardian of R. C. Bullock, and others," I will sell for cash by Public Auction at the Court-house door in Oxford on Monday 23rd Day Of February, 1920, that valuable prize-house and lot and adjacent house known as the Gregory Prize-house lot and later the Dudley Bullock prize-house and lot, situated where the Southern Railway crosses McLanahan Street, this property lies 28 3/4 feet on line of the Parker Lumber yard lot with a spur track known as the Parker Lumber yard track running the entire length thereof. It is three story prize-house, one story brick and two of wood. Said lot is 76 feet wide, 288 1/2 feet long but the South line, owing to the Railroad may be a few feet shorter than 288 1/2 feet.

In addition to the prize-house on said lot there is a good two room cottage house on the rear end thereof.

Time of sale 12 m.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND

The undersigned will offer for sale to the highest bidder, by public auction, for cash at the Court House door in Oxford, N. C. on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1920 AT ABOUT ONE O'CLOCK, P. M. the following described tract or parcel of land:

Lying on the East side of the public road leading from Oxford to Stem, nearly in front of what is known as "Phillip's Place", adjoining Oxford Cotton Mill Tract and J. C. Davis, and more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a stone in R. L. Royster's line (now Oxford Cotton Mills) corner of lot No. 1, and running thence South 15.30 chains to a stone in Davis' line; thence N 71 W 14 chains to the Road; thence along the Road N 21 E 14 chains to a stone on the Road; thence N 75 W 8.50 chains to the beginning, containing 16 acres more or less, and being the same tract or parcel of land conveyed to me by S. W. Parker and wife, see Deed Book 57, page 289, of the Office of the Register of Deeds of Granville County.

There is located upon this land a nice five-room dwelling house recently painted and in good repair. There is also a splendid well of water upon the premises.

This land is well adapted to the growth of tobacco and other crops and would make an ideal Truck Farm.

Parties interested in the purchase of this land may apply to me for further information to the same, and I shall be glad to show it to anyone who may be interested in buying it.

This January 20, 1920.

The American Type of Soldier.

"Saw a big, tall soldier at the Railway station the other day," said a citizen, "and his appearance, as well as his decorations engaged my attention. 'What's your name?' I asked. 'John Zlotiroff.' 'Where are you from?' 'Pennsylvania,' said he. 'I am now with the 60th infantry at Camp Gordon.' 'What are those decorations?' 'The Croix de Guerre and the D. S. C.' 'What did you get them for?' 'Oh, I just swam across the Meuse and got 13 Germans.'
