The motion to build a bridge across Smith Creek was continued until next meeting.

THE FARMERS' AUTOMOBILE Every Member Of The Family Needs One.

A correspondent in the Henderson Daily Dispatch hits the nail on the head when he says:

"Let the poor farmer ride. It seems to me that some one has made a vast mistake, or has not stopped to think that the auto is not the cause of this great slump in the price of tobacco."

"One of our most prosperous farmers has expressed his opinion in as much as to say that had the farmer done less riding in the Ford he would have been more prosperous."

Gentlemen, did you read his article with a clear understanding? I understand from his point of view that the farmer should have spent more time in his tobacco than he did, therefore producing more of the weed.

"Now this farmer claims that he upholds the statement of the manufacturers that there is an overproduction of tobacco and this is the cause of the low price. If this be the case, Brother Farmer, let us not have one Ford in the family for 1921 but let each member of the family have one, and perhaps by this means we will ride still more and not produce quite so much as to glut the whole world with our bright tobacco."

BAD MAN FROM VIRGINIA CAPTURED IN OXFORD

Charged With Manslaughter and Jumping Bond.
While walking along the streets of Oxford Wednesday afternoon a young man recognized a man from Charlotte county, Va., for whom there was a $500 reward. Ollie Clark, of the local police force made the arrest.

The man assumed the name of King, but when Sheriff Predry arrived here from Virginia it was learned that the real name of the man is J. H. Nuby. He is charged with killing a man while driving an automobile under the influence of liquor. He was under a $1000 bond and skipped out, leaving his bondsman in the hole, hence the reward. The incident occurred several months ago, it is said.

A YADKIN MAN SURRENDERS HIS PANTS TO HIS WIFE

He Will Do The Family Washing, Cook Three Meals a Day and Take Care Of The Babies.

(Greensboro Record.)

A Yadkin county man, at the Winston-Salem tobacco market a few days ago, opined that the world is coming to an end. I'm turning the farm over to the old woman next year. She has been wanting to wear the breeches for a long time, so I'm going to let her have 'em. I wasn't expecting this stuff just as yet, but since it has come I might as well give up. I shore believe that the world is coming to an end soon."

Sad times in Yadkin. And will this farmer, turning over his farm and his pants to "the old woman," don her calico? Will he rustle three meals a day often involving a session with the family ax and the family woodpile? Will he take care of the babies? Will he attend to the family wash? Will he scrub and clean starch and iron and make the home homelike? Will he attend to the family's religion? Will he let the old woman work from sun to sun while his work will be never done?

After about a week at that sort of thing the Yaddiner will be hoping that the world will come to an end soon."

DURHAM NO MATCH FOR OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

Oxford Plays Raleigh Tomorrow Afternoon At Horner Park.

The football team of Oxford High School playing its first game of the season Wednesday afternoon, on the Horner Athletic Field, showed the results of the thorough training through which it had been put by James S. Bradsher Jr., principal of the grammar school, assisted by Mr. G. B. Phillips. Although the Oxford boys were outwitted by the visitors by at least ten pounds to the man, the outcome of the game was never in doubt. Oxford scored during the first three minutes of play and in every quarter of the game, the final score being 28 to 6.

Oxford plays Raleigh tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 and since a team cannot do its best work without the support of the town people we want everybody in Oxford who can do so to go to Horner Park and cheer the football boys that you are proud of them when they win and when they lose.

His will, filed today in surrogate's court, leaves the remainder of the estate to be shared equally by his son and daughter, Mortimer T. Schiff of Oyster Bay, and Mrs. Frieda Warburg.

GETTING BACK TO NORMAL

The Places Of Strikers Are Quickly Filled.

Wilson, Oct. 7.—Nine out of 12 foremen in the various departments of the extensive Hackney Wagon factory, because of notice to the effect that the plant would go on an eight-hour schedule, walked out and induced 35 negro yard hands to leave the plant.

On account of the cancellation of large orders coming in daily because of the low price of farm products caused the Hackneys to take this step and to avoid complete shutdown and keep the well from the door of their 400 employees they proposed the eight-hour day, which was scorned by those who walked out. The places of the strikers have been filled and the plant is running.

Nine hundred and eleven students registered at State College.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF PLAN AND PURPOSE TO BE READ AT COUNTY MEETING

The Executive Committee of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers Association in meeting at Raleigh, October 1st, 1920, recommend and urge that all tobacco growers in North Carolina organize themselves into the North Carolina Tobacco Growers Association and invite all parties interested in the growing and selling of tobacco to join this organization.

We recommend that in every county in every tobacco growing district, there be organized county branches of this Association, with the following officers: A President, Vice-President, Organizer, Secretary, Treasurer and an Executive Committee of five members; that in every township organization with a President, Vice-President, Organizer, Secretary-Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of five members.

The Executive Committee are now preparing for publication the detailed plans of organization with constitution and by-laws.

The Tobacco crop of 1920 is large, but it is not sufficiently large to cause the low prices now experienced. Tobacco is selling at below the cost of production and we urge every tobacco grower in North Carolina to market his crop as slowly as possible, covering a period of eight months, selling only what he is compelled to sell to save and to be just to all cooperative creditors, holding the balance of his crop until adequate prices, covering at least the cost of production and a reasonable profit thereon can be secured. We urge that all farmers agree and bind themselves to largely reduce the tobacco crop of 1921, sufficiently to bring the supply of tobacco produced in that year within the limit of the estimated demand. This will be carefully worked out and the extent of reduction will be soon recommended and will be based on the most accurate obtainable information, secured by a Committee cooperating with the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture.

It is urged that at least one whole time official organizer be put in the field at once to organize the tobacco growing County, preferably for the present the County Demonstrator, if there be one in the County, to perfect at once in every township in the County a township organization; and that teams be organized in each township to cooperate with the State and county organization for securing membership and pledges.

The membership fees and terms of eligibility with blank pledge cards are now being prepared along with the Constitution and by-laws by the State Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is also preparing a charter for the organization.

REV. A. P. TYER DIES AT HIS HOME IN GREENSBORO

Paralysis Claims Honored Methodist Minister—Was Well Known in State and Highly Esteemed in Oxford.

Rev. Andrew Perry Tyer, aged 67 years, one of the best known ministers of North Carolina Methodism, died at his home in Greensboro last Tuesday afternoon of paralysis, and the funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Greensboro Market Street Methodist Church by Dr. E. L. Bain, pastor of the church, Dr. S. B. Turentine, president of Greensboro college, and Dr. J. H. Barnhardt, presiding elder of the Greensboro district. Interment was at Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro.

Dr. Tyer was stricken down on the streets of Greensboro with paralysis three or four months ago, and although his condition improved somewhat at times, he was never able to overcome the malady. Surviving are his wife, who, before marriage, was Miss Mary Coltrane; two sons, W. B. Tyer, of Greensboro, and John J. Tyer, of Greensboro, and three daughters, Mrs. S. P. Collier, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. W. T. Sawyer, of Elizabeth City and Miss Edna Tyer, of Greensboro, the latter being a member of the city school faculty, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Graham, of C. C. C. E. and H. T. Hudson, of Greensboro.

He was born near Greensboro. While he was quite young, his family moved to Tennessee, but after a few years his parents returned to North Carolina. He was given the education, and in 1876 he joined the Western North Carolina conference.

Rev. Mr. Tyer served as presiding elder of the Charlotte and Statesville districts and as pastor at a number of places in this conference. Some years ago he was transferred to the eastern conference and there served as presiding elder of the Elizabeth City district and as pastor at Raleigh, Durham, Wilmington, Oxford and other places.

HON. CHAS. M. STEDMAN

HON. CHARLES M. STEDMAN LAYS BARE THE MISDEEDS OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Made Splendid Speech In the Court House Last Night—Number Of Ladies Present.

A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the Democratic speaking in the Court House last night. Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, member of Congress from this district and a candidate to succeed himself, was the first speaker, being introduced by Mr. B. W. Parham.

Major Stedman reviewed rapidly the wonderful achievements of the democratic party in the nation during the past eight years declared that the nation has never made such progress and all of her people enjoyed such an abundance of prosperity in all the sweep of time, that every principle and tenet of faith proclaimed by the republican party for a hundred years had been exploded and that the great theories of democracy have been vindicated in the matchless achievements of the last eight years. He declared that there should be and would be the greatest reign of happiness and prosperity in this nation and throughout the world but for the perfidy and treason of the republican party in defeating the hopes of all mankind in obstructing the passage of the greatest constructive measure ever evolved by the minds of men for the safety and peace of the world the new declaration of independence, chiefly inspired by our own great President and that knight errant of all mankind, Woodrow Wilson, that had this great measure been ratified and peace restored to the world no organized armies of bolshevism would be threatening its safety and battering at the citadels of law and order in the world today.

Major Stedman said that the women had and always will stand for morality, justice and mercy. He closed with a stirring and eloquent appeal that would follow the ratification of the treaty, when the great leading nations of the earth bound themselves together to vouchsafe peace and safety to all nations great and small the world round.

Hon. A. A. Hicks said in respect to Cabot Lodge and referred to the time when colored men served on school boards and in the jury box.

In area North Carolina ranked as 27th largest State in 1910 with a land area of 48,740 square miles, making its population average 45.3 per square mile which ranked it as 20th among the states in density of population.

THE GRANVILLE COUNTY FAIR WAS A SUCCESS IN EVERY PARTICULAR

Thousands Of Visitors Attend The Annual Event—Good Display Of Home And Farm Products.

The Granville County Fair opened up Tuesday morning under a cloudless sky, but the attendance on the first day was small. Wednesday was selected as the gala day and it is estimated that between 2,000 and 2,500 passed through the turnstiles, and there was also a good attendance on Thursday, the last day of the fair.

The Parade.
The parade each morning attracted much attention. Mr. K. L. Street, chief marshal, resembled a major-general mounted on a fiery horse. All of his aides were practically from the county and were mounted on fine horses, and each man sat well in the saddle. There were many floats in the parade, some of them being very attractive. We are not advised at this writing who captured the honors.

Management Exuberant.
The fair management was exuberant over the splendid showing they made this year. The weather was ideal and the crowds were exceptionally orderly, for which the management expressed itself as being very grateful to all who have assisted in carrying out the entire program. Those who have witnessed the annual event for the last eleven years proclaim the festival this year surpassed all previous fairs in several particulars.

The Amusements.
The customary novelties, which go to create amusement were clean. There were innumerable shows, ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds and the famous family whip.

The Exhibits.
The farm and field crops were an inspiration. They were not so numerous as in previous years, but they were selected and displayed with more care. There were several community exhibits, and the large exhibit of the Oxford Orphanage are worthy of special mention, which will no doubt be supplied later by the management. The home economics products were beautiful, and reflected thought and care on the part of the housewives of the county, and the school exhibits reflected much credit upon the teachers and children of the county.

One Disappointing Feature.
The stock and poultry exhibit was smaller than on any previous occasion. The usual fine specimens of stock and birds were there, but not so many of them. The only way to account for the shortage in these departments is that the farmers were too busy with other things to give their attention to live stock and poultry. An old sage spoke the truth when he said: "Live stock and poultry is a secondary consideration in a country where King Cotton and Queen Nicotine rule supreme."

SUGAR IN NEW ORLEANS RETAILING AT 10 CENTS

White granulated sugar was being retailed at one store in New Orleans Saturday for 10 cents a pound, the lowest prices since the advance last year. There was no great rush of buying, it was reported.

SOME IMPROVEMENT IN THE PRICE OF TOBACCO

Better Grades On The Oxford Market Bring From $60 To $75.

By diligent enquiry among the tobaccoists and farmers we learn that the better grades of tobacco show a slight advance in price this week. We have noticed that when the buyers come to a pile that has both strength and quality they bid quite freely, some of the grades selling as high as $75 the hundred.

In scanning the newspapers published in the bright newspapers we notice that the prices paid on the Oxford market is at least ten percent higher than elsewhere.

Over one million pounds of tobacco sold on the Rocky Mount market last week.

PRESIDENT WILSON DECLARES LEAGUE WILL NOT LEAD US INTO WAR

In First Statement Of The Campaign, President Explains Again Terms Of Covenant—Says People Have Been Grossly Mislead.

(Washington Special)

President Wilson, urging endorsement at the polls next month of the administration's stand on the League of Nations, declared, in a communication addressed to "my fellow countrymen," and given out for publication today, that there was nothing in the covenant "which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of Congress to declare war or not to declare war, according to its own independent judgment, as our constitution provides."

The President characterized as "absolutely false," assertions that other nations, under Article X of the League Covenant, would be in a position to lead the United States into war.

The communication, which was the President's first direct campaign appeal to the people, charged that "you have been grossly misled with regard to the treaty and particularly with regard to the proposed character of the League of Nations, by those who have assumed the serious responsibility of opposing it."

"The whole world will wait for your verdict in November," the president declared, "as it would wait for an intimation of what its future is to be."

IT LOOKS AS IF COX WILL BE ELECTED

Will Carry Illinois, New York and Ohio.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, chairman of the eastern speakers bureau of the Democratic National Committee, has issued a statement declaring Governor Cox would carry Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana, in addition to the solid South. As for Maryland and Kentucky, he said, there was no doubt that they would be in the Democratic column. He also predicted that at least ten western states would go Democratic. He described the claims of Will Hays, Republican National Chairman, as "absurd," saying:

"It has often been the case that Republicans won in September but failed to win in November."

"We will make our drive during October," Senator Harrison said, "and have purposely held back until now. We will have more speakers out than the Republicans, and as to quality there can be no comparison."

"Despite the fact that the Republicans have tried to tie up the nation in many states, our speakers will get before the people."

SOMEBODY IS GOING TO SHIVER THIS WINTER

The Prices Of Fuel Is Out Of Reach Of The Average Man.

With wood prices soaring as they have perhaps never done before, little hope is held out for any relief by the use of that sort of fuel. If one undertakes to use gas or electricity, he might find a much larger bill the first of the month than he has been receiving. Under such conditions as these, somebody is going to shiver in Oxford this winter. Cold weather at least in a mild form has already set in here.

It is possibly not a misstatement of the facts to say that fully half of the people of Oxford cannot afford to pay $18 and $20 per ton for coal, and these are the prices now prevailing on this market, and coal cannot be had in any appreciable quantity even at these figures.

We are not disposed to take a jibe at Oxford coal dealers for the prices they are charging. They must have a living on fuel they sell, or else they cannot continue in business. Freight rates have advanced to such an extent that several dollars per ton is charged on shipments from the coal fields. The huge prices being charged are pocketed by the operators, if our information is correct.

WOMEN ARE TAKING LIVELY INTEREST IN THE BALLOT

Large Number Of Them Registering In Various Precincts Of County.

According to reports received from precincts in Oxford and from scattering sections of the county, the women are beginning to take a live interest in politics, and are registering preparatory to voting in the general elections in November. No definite figures are available as yet, but sufficient information has come to hand to show that the newly enfranchised citizens are not going to be ignored in the balloting in the national, state and county elections.

It is understood that the ratio of the number already put on the books in various precincts is from ten to fifty percent women. From about ten to twenty-five percent of the usual voting strength of the precincts that have been heard from has been enrolled. With three weeks and more in which the books will be open, it is believed that the total qualified electorate for the November election will be unusually large.

Political leaders recognize, however, the necessity for getting the news before the people that they register again.

Reason expect to bend every effort to bring in stragglers before date expires.

CEMENT DROPS FROM $7.50 TO $5.4 BARREL

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—A drop in the price of cement from $7.50 a barrel to $5.4 a barrel was announced here tonight by a large supply company. The $5 quotation applies to carload lots f. o. b. Atlanta and with the rebate on sacks returned makes the net cost $4 a barrel.
