

Why Should You Work?

Every dollar you have in a savings account earns wages in the shape of interest. It gets paid a fixed amount for the work it does, just the same as you do. Why should you work if you let your dollars loaf?

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER. ROGATION SUNDAY.

"Church and State" is a kind of bug-a-boo. State and Church is the thing to be avoided, as expressed in the life of the Church of England. The expressions do not mean the same thing. Objectors mean State and Church. In early English history the State grew up under the guidance of the Church, already developed. The two Houses of Parliament repeated the two ecclesiastical assemblies of Bishops and Clergy. The scattered Heptarchy consolidated under the influence of the one Church. This is Church and State ideally expressed: the Church as a Mother gathering around her the political and social organizations of her children. Aside from the later oppression of the Church of England by the alien Roman Church, there was only one Church for fifteen hundred years of England's life. The foreign Reformation tortured her with the birth-pangs of numerous bastard children, and now a half-alienated State controls her temporalities. State and Church is born and nourished of the Devil. "Church and Sattie" is an enlarged Christian home.
