

THINK IT OVER--

It may be perfectly safe to keep money in a mattress or an old tin can—some people don't think it is taking chances to keep gasoline near the fire.

PERSONAL MENTION

—Prof. L. T. Buchanan, of Durham, is spending a few days in Oxford.

—Mrs. A. A. Currin entertained in honor of Miss Beatrice McCraw, on Saturday evening. Enchanting music was rendered on piano, by Miss Lucy Harris. Delicious refreshments were served.

—Mr. J. W. Thompson, who has for a good many years been connected with the Oxford Cotton Mills has accepted a position with one of the large mills at Gastonia and will move his family there next week.

—Mrs. D. G. Brummitt was hostess to the Reviewer's Club on Tuesday night. Three interesting articles on Current Events were read by Mrs. S. H. Prichard, Misses Sadie Parham and Helen White. Elegant refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames T. G. Stem, S. H. Prichard, W. A. Devin, Misses Isabel Parham, Helen and Edna White, Annie Crews, Carrie Fuller, Mary Webb, Sarah Clement.

—Miss Beatrice McCraw of Oxford College was the week end guest of Mrs. A. A. Currin.

—Miss Burdette Joyner, of Littleton, spent the week end with Miss Carrie Fuller.

—J. J. Harding, of Emporia, Virginia, has been visiting his sister Mrs. J. R. Garlick.

—Mrs. Bettie Cunningham and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Osborn, of Greensboro, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Osborn this week. They intended to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cheatham on Route 3, but the weather was so bad they postponed the visit.

—The regular monthly Christian Endeavor party given by Miss Susanna Bryan, at her home on Raleigh Road Thursday evening at eight o'clock was attended by about thirty five of the members. Miss Lucy Culpepper had charge of the party and every thing including the invitations were carved out in Mother Goose style. Fruit cream and white cake were served, and those present testified to the success of the party.

—Misses Vinie McArthur and Jessie Huff of Oxford College were the week end guest of Miss Sue Harris of Route 3.

—The many friends of Mrs. Alice Gooch will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from a spell of severe sickness.

The Weekly Ambon Of St. Stephen's Parish SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION

Yesterday was Holy Thursday, also called Ascension Day, closing the forty days of the Risen Lord's earthly life and counsel. The Saviour's Glory is presented in the Creed in a succession of facts corresponding with the facts of His life of humiliation. Confessing the lowliness of His Conception, Birth, Crucifixion, Suffering, Death and Burial, we also confess the Glory of His Descent into Hell, His Resurrection, Ascension, and His place on the Right Hand of God. Step by step we trace the entrance of Christ into the world of spirit, His new Birth into the fulness of a glorified humanity, His exaltation to the Throne of God, His present sovereignty; no more death, no limit now to the energy of an indissoluble life. He Lighted the dead, Rising again, He taught the veiled glory of things seen. Ascending in His humanity, He interpreted the words "in Christ". Sitting at God's Right Hand He shows an accomplished work, efficient for Believers for all time.
