Kelly is from Buncombe county. He served from December 14, 1917 debted to said estate will please to June 28, 1919 as James S. Kelly. General Morrison's letter to Advatant General John Van B. Metts here indicates that Mr. Kelly failed to notify the local draft board of Buncombe county of his entrance into the military service as is required by draft regulations. His address at the time of registration was Biltmore; when he enlisted in the army it was Asheville.

David Barnhill found his name the unfavorable list of Americans, it appears, because the Pender county draft officials erroneously reported him to be a deserted. Proper correction has now been made in the records at Washington in each instance.

-Mennonites from the Saskatcheed tracts of land in Paraguay, South America, where they plan to settle. The Paraguayan Government has exempted, by act of the national congress, their people and their descendants forever from military service. They are assured complete religious freedom and the right to establish their own schools, provided they pay a fixed school tax to the government.

-The postage meter in a machine which does away with the necessity of sticking stamps on mailed matter. The machine prints on the letters a square the size of a stamp on which ppears the words, "U. S. postagepaid 2c." The machine is equipped with a regular set by post office authorities. When the register shows the user has stamped as many letters as he has paid for, the machine automatically stops and has to be taken to the post office to be reset. An increase in farms by 7,284, and a decrease in farms operated by owners by 23,632, is reported by the Department of Commerce. Thirty-eight per cent of all the farms in this count try are operated on a basis of ten-ancy. During the decade cash tenants decreased by 127,280; sharetenants increased by 347,812.
