WEEKLY AMBON OF ST. STEPHEN'S PARISH

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

The word hypocrite, meaning to play a part of insincerity in religious life, is actually a Christian word, coined for its purpose by our Lord, and so used by Him fifteen times, beginning St. Matt. 6:2. Originally the word meant an actor. As a Christian word it serves as a screen through which Christians are to be screened. The hypocrite in the world may win out, but in the Church the effort is made to heal him. Among the many excuses for neglect of Christian obligations, the charge of hypocrisy is constantly made against Church members, but isn't the Church the best place for the hypocrite? The Church is a Graded and High School for the cure of hypocrisy, among other sins. Other life only kicks the hypocrite. If you are shocked with the hypocrisy of the world, support the Church, and be baptised in the only Institutions that tries to deal with this common fault. Go to Church and see how it works, and there will be another hypocrite nearer to instruction in righteousness.
