HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

By C. N. LURIE

Common Errors in English and How to Avoid Them

"SPOONFULS," ETC.

IN CONSIDERING the proper form of the plurals of such words as "spoonful," "cupful," "armful," etc., it must be borne in mind that the unit considered is not the spoon, the arm, the cup, etc.; but the material that fills the spoon, etc. Thus, the unit is the "spoonful," not the spoon, and as "spoonful" is the name of a thing in itself, the proper form of the plural is found by adding an "s" to the word "spoonful," and not to the part of the word "spoon."

Of course, there are times when the unit is the spoon itself; that is, when two or more spoons are filled. When, for example, you have before you two spoons filled with sugar, you should say "two spoons full," and not "two spoonfuls." But when you take a spoon, fill it with sugar and empty it into your coffee cup, and repeat the process, you have taken two "spoonfuls" of sugar, and not two "spoons full."

Parent-Teacher Association

One of the worth-while organizations of Oxford is the Parent-Teacher Association. Its members are zealous workers for the betterment of the city's schools.

Protracted Meeting At Stovall

A series of meetings will be held at the Methodist Church, Stovall, beginning Sunday afternoon, Oct. 23. Rev. S. A. Cotton of Franklinton will do the preaching after Sunday. Services will be held the afternoon and night.—B. H. Black, Pastor.

The Dog Returns

Ten days ago the fine bird dog belonging to Commissioner Thomas G. Taylor was stolen. Mr. Taylor inserted a small adv in the Public Ledger, but he did not receive a reply. This week the dog returned home with his own accord. He was very thin and had been badly abused by some one.

Will Attend Y. M. C. A.

Prof. Barnhart, principal of the Oxford School, will leave this afternoon for Durham to attend the three days meeting of the State Young Men's Christian Association, accompanied by the following young men: Henry Hunt, Joe Renn, Charles Burch, Edward Gill, Edwin Hart, James Webb, B. Roy Adcock and Ed Hulse.

High Averages

Mr. G. B. Loftis, one of the good farmers on Nelson Route 1, made a fine sale at the Johnson warehouse last Wednesday. The prices paid was as follows: 110 pounds averaged 48c, check $52.80; 56 pounds averaged 69c, check $38.64; 156 pounds averaged 71c, check $110.76; 178 pounds averaged 49c, check $80.10. Total $282.30.

Fine Boy In Contest

Beverly Earnest Parham, the fine little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parham, has been nominated by Henderson people in the baby contest now being waged by the Henderson Daily Dispatch. This fine little boy would bring additional honor to Oxford should he be the winner. The parents and many friends in Oxford and the county will be glad if you will vote for this fine boy.

Having a Good Time

Many folks had their curiosity aroused the other afternoon by the appearance here of a club house Overland roadster with white body, red top, blue wheels, and trimmings of red, white and blue, with the words "The Spirit of the American Doughboy," appearing on the sides of the car, along with a miniature likeness of said doughboy. It turned out that the three men in the car were selling little statues of the doughboy.

A Faithful Citizen Dead

Mr. J. P. Stovall died at his home near Virginia on the night of Thursday October 13, 1921, age 77 years. He had been in declining health for several years and his death was not unexpected at any moment. He was a good man and followed his Master all the days of his life. He leaves a devoted wife, a brother, two sons and two daughters to mourn his departure. The interment was in the family plot Saturday, a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends being at the grave-side. The floral offering was beautiful and attested the esteem of many friends of the family.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

DO YOU WANT SUCCESS?

DO YOU want to make a success of your business life, or do you put that second to having a good time? Don't complain if you can't have both. The girl who runs around from party to party is not going to get to her work in the best state for doing it well. Her mind is not clear, her body is not alert. She is tired.

Are you willing to do the uninteresting part of your job well, or do you slur what you don't like in it? Every job has its grind side. But to succeed you must make that grind worth while by doing it well. It is part of the price you pay for success.

You must keep in good physical condition if you want success. You need proper rest, enough sleep and healthful food. You need exercise in the open air. Keeping fit is part of the price you must pay for success.

A number of girls regard an office as a sort of matrimonial bureau. Their first idea is to be fascinating to the male element. But if that is what you are after, don't say you want success in your business, and don't be surprised if you see other girls who do want success get advancement while you stay put.

Success is a big thing. The successful woman is not afraid of losing her job. She knows that her work is so good that an employer will be lucky to get her, or that, if she is in business for herself, she is sure of results. But success is not an accident.

Higher And Higher They Go

Prices on all grades of Tobacco show still more advance on the Oxford Market. Granting that we are selling large quantities of low grade tobacco, our general average is higher than our neighboring markets. We are selling tobacco at prices that compare favorably with prices of 1919., The High Year, quality considered. We believe Oxford is standing on the top round of high prices and feel that those who are not taking advantage of the high prices paid on the Oxford Market are making a mistake. It is easy to talk of high prices paid on other markets, but we are delivering the goods. The following prices quoted tells the tale:

WEEKLY AMBON OF ST. STEPHEN'S PARISH
THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
The ancient Feast of Tabernacles, or Booths beginning 15th of Tishri (Oct. 17) fills this week of the Hebrew Calendar with its spiritual wonder. It is the third of the great Feasts of the Old Testament, also the most important. This Harvest Festival reminds Israel of the booths in the wilderness journey, and forecasts the final harvest of the world, when the mission of God's people will have been completed, and all nations gathered unto the Lord, and His Holy Name known, indeed, among the Gentiles. It is remarkable how many allusions to this High Feast occur in the writings of the Prophets. Also remarkable that this Feast is the only type in the Old Testament not yet fulfilled. So far it is reserved in lonely majesty, to be revealed in the fullness of time. St. Matt. 21:8, repeats the words and acts of one of the chief ceremonies. Rev. 7:9-10, is another allusion. The Dedication of Solomon's Temple, and the resting of The Shechinah over the Mercy Seat occurred during this Feast.
