A Good Inheritance.

There is one thing commendable about the Indians and that is when they moved out of this part of the country they did not take their Summer along with them.

—There are 800 distinct kinds of birds in this country. They are divided into 69 families, of which 20 families are classed as waterfowl, 7 as shorebirds of prey, and 33 as land birds.

Tobacco in Palestine. (Macon News) It seems queer that the tobacco industry will become the mainstay of Palestine, from an economic point of view. And yet we happen to recall that according to old books of travel the patriarchal people there measure distance by so many pipes—that is, the number of pipes a man would smoke in travelling a given distance. —Muckle John, the court fool of Charles I, was the last official jester of the Court of England.
