Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour.

—At a very enthusiastic meeting of the Church Service League of the Episcopal Church on Monday night, much interest was manifested in the work of the church. Enthusiastic reports were made by members of all organizations which showed the work of the church to be in a very flourishing condition. Rev. Lewis Taylor Rector of the church at Roanoke Rapids, made an excellent talk. The annual election of officers resulted as follows; President, Mrs. H. G. Cooper, Sec-Treas, Mrs. M. C. Taylor. Mrs. R. G. Lassiter the retiring president has been a most efficient presiding officer.

—A very delightful gathering of the New Year was on New Year's Day at the home of Mrs. J. W. Horner when she entertained the Woman's Literary Club for its initial meeting of the New Year. If the prophetic adage of repeating things during the entire year that are done on the New Year, holds good, many charming and delightful meetings are in store for the members of this Club. The home was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and flowers which added greatly to the attractiveness of the lovely home. Mrs. R. G. Lassiter president of the Club presided. Mrs. B. E. Parham, in a very charming manner read the minutes of the preceding meeting. The members responded to roll call by giving very cordial New Year Greeting, many of which were original. The subject of the afternoons program was, "Modistes and Fashions." Mrs. E. T. White read a very entertaining paper on, "Fashions of Today in Woman's Dress; Who Nakes Them? The Effect of Sport and Athletics on Styles of Dress." The subject of the sketch by Mrs. R. L. Brown was, "Style of Dress Observed by the Different Nations—What Influences It? Both of these papers were listened to eagerly by all present and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. H. M. Shaw gave a very entertaining Reading on, "The Sleeves of All Nations." At the conclusion of this enjoyable program, Mrs. Horner assisted by Miss Lucy Baskerville, served an elegant repast.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Mrs. Pittman Pleased With the Old Custom.
 Last Saturday night about 8:30 o'clock a number of people came to my porch and sang the Christmas Carols. It was the sweetest music I ever heard, and if everybody could feel as reverent and as near to God as I did I think it would be well to keep it up. It is such a beautiful old custom revived.
