Dinner Enjoyed By Teen-Agers

Sixteen Oxford sub-debs entertained Wednesday evening with a formal progressive dinner party at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Park, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Cutts.

The hostesses were Misses Jan Park, Helen Watkins, Nancy Cutts, Martha McFarland, Mary Ann Powell, Betsy Bullock, Candace Tatsey, Roberta Rucker, Helen Adcock, Mary Ann Dean, Janet Dickerson, Judy Watkins, Bettie Sue Knott, Julia Baker, Nancy O'Brian and Annette Hart.

Dates attending the dinner were Sam Royster, Charles Noblin, Benny Currin, Charles Easton, Nelson Blackwell, Bobby Blackwell, Dan Averett, George Johnson, H. B. Finch, Archie Dickerson, Howard Dorsey, Warren Stephenson, Johnny Blackwell, Jimmy Burnette, Buddy Norwood and Philip Hughes.

A massive arrangement of fruit centered the dining room table at the Park home in Overhills where the 32 young people were served cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. The Taylor home was decorated with Christmas berries and greens and the table was centered with a silver candelabra holding tall burning tapers. A turkey dinner was served. Concluding their dinner, the guests were served strawberry short cake and coffee at the Cutts home in Overhills, which also was attractive with Christmas decorations.

CAR Members Are Guests At Party

Mrs. R. M. Ray, Sr., entertained with a Christmas party and dance for the members of the Micajah Bullock Society of the Children of the American Revolution on Friday evening, Dec. 17, at the Golf Club house.

The club was decorated with pine and sprigs of holly. Red and green streamers were suspended from the ceiling, and attached to white Christmas bells with mistletoe. The mantle was banked with pine tied with small red bows.

An interesting program was given during which Mrs. Nelson Thomas gave a poem and Mrs. George Duffy told a Christmas story. Mrs. W. G. Woltz, senior president of the organization, assisted.

Mrs. N. W. Weldon and Mrs. R. L. Hamilton poured punch at a beautifully appointed table. They were assisted by Mrs. Henry Jennings, Jr., in serving assorted sandwiches and dainty cookies. The members and their guests, around 35, enjoyed a delightful evening.

Richard Breedlove Host For Dance

Richard Breedlove, assisted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Breedlove, entertained young teens with a dance at the Woman's Club Monday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The club house was attractively adorned with holly, Christmas bells and mistletoe, with streamers suspended from the chandelier.

The dining room table was spread with a white cloth and centered with an epergne holding burning red candles and red berries. Red punch was served from one end of the table and assorted fancy sandwiches, cheese straws, nuts, mints and cookies from the other.

About 60 pre-teens enjoyed ballroom and square dancing during the evening. Assisting in entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Huss, Mrs. K. L. Howard, Mrs. W. G. Woltz and Mrs. Tom Johnson.

Roland Matteson Host For Dance

Roland Matteson entertained on Wednesday evening with a formal dance at Oxford Woman's Club from 8:30 until 12 midnight.

His guests were teen-agers from Oxford, Durham, Raleigh and Henderson.

The club house was decorated with Christmas colors of red and green and softly lighted for dancing to the tunes of famous bands.

The table in the library, covered with a linen cloth, was attractively arranged with candles and holly. Punch was poured from a large crystal bowl and assorted sandwiches, cookies and mints were served. There were 100 guests.

Rebecca Currin, W. D. Mangum, Jr. Marry In Halifax

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Currin and William Dorsey Mangum, Jr., took place on Dec. 18 in Halifax, Va.

The marriage was announced yesterday by Mrs. Mangum's mother, Mrs. Charlie Currin of Oxford.

The Methodist minister in Halifax heard the wedding vows pledged at 7:30 p. m.

The bride wore a wooten suit of charcoal with matching accessories and a corsage of roses at her shoulder.

A graduate of Berea High School, Mrs. Mangum is a sophomore at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro where she plans to resume her education after the holidays.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dorsey Mangum of Berea, is a graduate of Berea High School. He is employed in this city by Granville Furniture Company.

Nancy Lee Currin Dinner Hostess

Miss Nancy Lee Currin entertained with a Christmas Eve eve dinner and dance Thursday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Currin, Jr., on Sunset Avenue.

The living room of the home was bright with an attractive Christmas tree and the dining room table was centered with a crystal punch bowl with lighted tapers in tall holders on opposite ends of the table.

A three-course turkey dinner was served before the tables were removed and guests enjoyed dancing. Those invited were Misses Martha Taylor, Martha Parham, Nancy Hix, Ann White, Joyce Hicks, Linda Knott, Becky Baird, Joanne Watkins, Mae Reynolds, Carolyn Stephenson and Gwen Hester, and Ven Burwell, William Taylor Watkins, Tommy Ewins, Dan Averette, Zack Mitchell, Slade Ballou, Roland Matteson, Charlie Easton, Buddy Taibot, Jimmy Crawford, Frank Bullock and Nell Yeargin.

Becky Baird Bridge Hostess

Miss Becky Baird entertained with bridge Monday evening at her home on Raleigh Road.

Christmas greens and burning candles decorated the living room of the home where the three tables were arranged for cards. When scores were added, high was won by Sam Carrington and consolation to Roland Matteson.

The hostess served assorted fancy sandwiches, Coca-Colas, cheese straws, coconut bars, nuts and candy. Guests included Misses Mary Ann McSwain, Ann White, Roberta Rucker, Jaue Hedrick and Dora Allred Bryan and Roland Matteson, Johnny Welch, Jackie Raper, Tom Carrington, George Johnson and Sam Carrington.

Young Ladies Dinner Hostesses

Seven Oxford sub-debs entertained Wednesday evening with a progressive dinner party at 6:30. Cocktail was served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Taylor, dinner at the home of Mrs. J. G. Webb and dessert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Hall.

The hostesses were Misses Mary Hall, Sallie Ervin, Webb, Nellie Holmes Ballou, Martha Taylor, Martha Parham, Jane Hedrick and Meriwether Walker. Escorts participating were Roland Matteson, Dick Taylor, Hoke Huss, Tommy Ewins, Earle Saye, William Taylor and Debernia Robertson, Jr., the latter of Durham.

Shrimp cocktail and accompaniments were served at the Taylor home, which was attractive with Christmas lights, balls and holly. Centering the dining room table was a miniature tree. Favors were poured in red and green.

A turkey dinner was served at the Webb home where the table was centered with a miniature lighted Christmas tree and the home, on suite, was bright with Christmas greens and red berries.

The dessert course was served in the dining room of the Hall home, where a small modernistic Christmas tree was reflected in a large mirror. Balls and favors for the guests decorated the tree. Christmas greens were used in the other parts of the house, with silver leaves on the mantle.

The guests continued their evening of fun at the Wcman's Club where Roland Matteson was host for dancing.

In Delaware last year, coal was used as the fuel to generate 98 per cent of the state's electric energy.

Mary Hall Bridge Hostess on Tuesday

Miss Mary Hall entertained at a bridge party at her home on Spring Street Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Helen Wilkin of Henderson, and her houseguest, Miss Tora Larson, faculty member of East Carolina College. Miss Hall presented Miss Wilkin and Miss Larson with gifts. Miss Sarah Clement was winner of high score prize, and Miss Allyne Taylor of Henderson, won low score prize.

Following several progressions, Miss Hall, assisted by Mrs. Henry Hall, served a delicious sweet course with coffee and cheese straws.
