

HESTER CONGREGATION JOINS IN STEW SUPPER

Mattox Family Gathering Held Here Sunday—Clifton Dean Reported Improving

ENON-HESTER, Aug. 30 — A good time was had at Hester Baptist Church Friday evening, when approximately 250 members and invited guests assembled on the church lawn and enjoyed a delicious brunkwisk stew supper with ice tea, hot rolls and bread. Mr. and Mrs. Bondie Currin headed the supper committee with J. M. Pruitt, a veteran "stew" cook, supervising the seven big pots of stew and keeping busy those assisting, which included several men and women who came early in the afternoon. Allie Currin brought along several delicious watermelons and cantaloupes that he served to those preparing the meal. After supper, Rev. Paul C. Mattox showed a most inspiring and interesting film, "Missionary to Walker's Garage." Among a number of invited guests was a former pastor of Hester Baptist Church, Rev. Roger E. Williams, Jr., and family, Mrs. Coen, mother of Mrs. Williams, of Avon Park, Fla., Mrs. Henry Ward and children of Lumberton, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mattox and children of Deland, Fla.

Rev. and Mrs. Roger Williams and family of Thomasville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Adcock Friday night and Saturday. Mrs. Coen, mother of Mrs. Williams, left Friday night by train from Raleigh for her home in Avon Park, Fla.

Rev. and Mrs. Irvin Adcock and baby son of Purdy, Va., spent a few days this week with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Day visited Mrs. Day's mother, Mrs. Rose Hall, and sister, Mrs. Willie Faulk, last week at Blackstone, Va. Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Faulk accompanied them home and are spending this week visiting the Days and other relatives in the county.

Airman and Mrs. Charles Jackson arrived the latter part of the week from Alaska where Mr. Jackson has been stationed for the past year. They are making the home of Mrs. Jackson's sister, Mrs. Bennie Currin, and Mrs. Currin, and Fred Currin's home as their headquarters while visiting relatives and friends here for a few weeks. They attended the stew supper at Hester Friday.

Bettie Elliott of Raleigh, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett of Salt Lake City, Utah, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Pete Puckett, and Mr. Puckett and children. They accompanied home Mrs. Puckett after she had visited them for two months.

Dan Mattox, ministerial student at Stetson University, Deland, Fla.,

again brought the message at the worship hour at Hester Baptist Church Sunday morning, supplying for his brother, Paul C. Mattox, pastor. Special music included a solo by Donald Knott and a selection by the youth choir. Lovely flowers were placed in church by Mrs. R. T. Barnes, Mrs. Leroy Barnes, and Mrs. Clifton Stem, in memory of Urquhart Brooks, father of Mrs. Leroy Barnes.

Rev. Paul C. Mattox is holding a revival at Check, Va., this week. He expects to be home Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gurganus of Greenville, were week-end guests of Mrs. Gurganus' mother, Mrs. Garland Ragland, and Mr. and Mrs. Bunny Ragland.

Clifton Dean, who has been a patient in Granville Hospital for several days, following a heart attack, is doing fine but will continue his rest treatment for some time.

Among his visitors since his illness set in were his sisters, Mrs. Irene Adcock of Durham, and Mrs. Alma Neville of Chapel Hill, and her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Jones, of Chapel Hill. The neighbors and relatives are helping out with the harvesting of Mr. Dean's tobacco crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dean visited Mr. Dean's nephew, Elijah Dean, and Mrs. Dean and family at Bule's Creek Sunday. Elijah, who had a few weeks ago suffered a heart attack, was doing fine but hasn't resumed his work yet.

Among the visitors at Hester Church Sunday morning were the mother of Rev. Paul C. Mattox, Mrs. Pearl Mattox, a brother, Jimmy Mattox, Mrs. Mattox, Jimmy, Jr., and Peggy Mattox, of Blacksburg, Va., a sister, Mrs. Len Blackwell, and granddaughter of Darrington, S. C., Dan Mattox, who fill the pulpit, Mrs. Mattox and children, Ray and Timmy, of Deland, Fla. Following the church service, all the relatives went home with Rev. and Mrs. Paul C. Mattox and enjoyed a picnic lunch together before leaving for their respective homes.

Buck Adcock, who is on the tobacco market at Conway, S. C., spent the week-end with his wife, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Adcock.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strickland spent Friday night with Mrs. Strickland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunt, returning Saturday to their home in Spring Hope.

Mrs. John Williams entered Granville Hospital Saturday where she is receiving treatment for a virus. She is reported to be improving. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Williams are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ed Sadler and Mrs. Lucy Sadler are spending several days in Florida on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Whitfield and sons, Johnie and Randy, visited Mrs. Whitfield's aunt, Mrs. Walter Hunt, and Mr. Hunt, Sunday.

Rev. Ronald Hicks was guest speaker at the home coming at Glen Royal Baptist Church, Wake Forest, Sunday evening. Mr. Hicks was affiliated with the church while a student at Wake Forest in the early 40's. Mrs. Hicks accompanied
