

Norma Dean, a superstitious south-erner; Patsy Daniel, hostess at Sing - Sing cottage; Lou Satter-white, devotee of art and adjec-are in piano and organ. imp R. Pulley in charge. Burial was Olivet opportunity for growth and the Wheeler family cemetery. service. He expressed regret in Surviving in addition to leaving his home community, but Gooch are three sons, Maynard, Macon and Robert, all of Route 1. stated that he is looking forward to getting settled in his new re-Creedmoor: also six grandchildre sponsibilities and two great - grandchildren. Pallbearers named were Zeb June Dairy Month Keith, Nick Kearney, Victor Pleasants, Vester Ross, Cecil Keith and Dalton Wheeler. Organization Set

Mrs. C. M. Halthcock, inty, secretary - trea- conservations needs of farmers was If Worms, Minnows

Garland Talton Is Awarded Scholarship For Math Study at DU

tives; Priscilla Pearce, a girl with literary aspirations; Rose Milton, a girl who wants to grow up; Peggy Jackson, a co-ed who loves football; Mattle Hart and Nell Knight, Punch and Judy; Sally Smith, an aunt; and a German maid.

Mariorie Rose Heads NicholsHighMarshals

Marjorie Rose, scholarly mem-ber of the junior class at Nichols High School, has been named chief ment marshal for the Others chosen on the basis of scholarship are Billy Cox, Shirley Duck, Norman Ward and Jimmy Glasgow. They will serve for the remainder of this year and next year's school events' until their sors are named.

Sam L. Knott To Be Heard at Enon Church

A prominent lay member of the congregation, Sam L. Knott, will supply the pulpit at Enon Baptist Church for the 110'clock service on Sunday. March 29 being the fifth and Johnston Counties. hand.

Mrs. E. M. Carter

Mrs. Lovie F. Carter, 70, wife of the Rev. E. M. Carter, of Youngs-ville, died Monday at Rex Hospital, Relation viving in addition Surviving in addition to her husband are three daughters, Mrs. Sam Moore of Pinetops, Mrs. F. S. Hart of Raleigh, and Mrs. R. E. Timberiake, Jr., of Raleigh: three sisters, Mrs. George Whitaker of Raleigh, Mrs. R. O. Clayer of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Buth Floyd of Washington, D. C., two brothers, J. O. Floyd, a resident of Georgia, and J. J. Floyd of Ar-lington, Va., and a grandsma. to her

Mrs. Sam Yancey. Jr., and M Edmund Adcock to Make Local Appointments

Mrs. Sam Yancey, Jr., of Varina, and M. Edmund Avcock of Raleigh, have been named co-chair. men for the June Dairy Month observance in this territory.

Their appointment was announc ed by John Fischer, state activities chairman ,and Mrs. Irby Walker, state woman's chairman for June Dairy Month. Mrs. Yancey and Aycock will collaborate in naming county citement - and gossip - yesterday burg and 18 miles from where the chairmen for this territory, embracing Granville, Vance, Durham, Warren, Franklin, Chatham, Wake Smithfield Bookkeeper Forced to Hand Cash man, Douglas Seymour, Route 2, To Nocturnal Thief Zebulon.

An armed robber' Tuesday night held up a motor company in Smithfield and escaped with $1.438 have ever seen." He also said Mrs from a safe which he forced a late-working bookkeeper to open. Norman and her children would have been in the car in a minute or man slipped into the building and poked him in the back with what he believed to be a gun and forced parked the him to open the safe and hand over the money. The thief tied McVickers hands before fleeing.

going 24 hours.

Mrs Oxford Team Feted; David Ford Awarded Trophy by Rowland

Oxford High School basketball team was entertained Monday night with a supper at the Motor Inn by Dr. James N. Rowland.

The highlight of the dinner was

The Oxford Orphanage - Chapel trophy to David Ford as the most Hill baseball game, to be played here this afternoon, will begin at 2 p. m. because there will be no his teammates. school to delay the game.

Parked Car of Divorcee said. Blasted at Franklinton

Franklinton was buzzing with ex- pond, seven miles east of Louis after the automobile of a 25-year-He said Mrs. Norman's children, old divorcee, Mrs. Louise D. Nor-Anita Louise, 7, and Jimmy, 4, had accompanied the couple. man of Route 1, Franklinton, was blasted in a spot where it had been When Seymour's ear came within parked off the highway while she was away fishing with a married at 1:30 p. m., the explosion occur-

100 feet or more in each direction. Sheriff Champion said neither Mrs. Norman nor Seymour appear-ed upset at the experience. Mrs. Norman took her children home from a safe which he forced a later working bookkeeper to open. Charles McVickers, bookkeeper for Bule Motor Company, told of-ficers he was working late when a ficers he was working late when a the car.

the car. Champion said Mrs. Norman had parked the car on an island in the center of the four - lane Franklin-ton by-pass on U. S. 1, four miles from Franklinton, at 10 s. m. to scompany Seymour to Johnson's as "poor."

and the second second

· Stor Fr

surer; and Mrs. Leland Fuller, Vance, corresponding secretary. Lunch will be served at the church for $1.00.

Burning Permits Are Cancelled Until Rain Comes to Territory

the area, all burning permits have which works to the benefit of bene cancelled and none will be issued as long as the current err weather continues, Forest Protector the presentation of a bronze valuable player. The award is given by Dr. Rowland each year to the player chosen most valuable by D. C. Critcher said yesterday.

Critcher called for extreme care in this entire area to prevent damage to woods lands. "Woods are like tenderwood now and control of fire is extremely important," he

Kiwanis Official To Visit Club on Tuesday

Lt. - Governor Jimmy Brooks of Raleigh will make his official Kiwanis visit to the Oxford Club next Tuesday night. President John S. Watkins, Jr., has been advised.

At the meeting Tuesday night, about 50 yards of Mrs. Norman's car, a 1952 model four - door Ford, at 1:30 p. m., the explosion occur-week was dispensed with to enable members to attend in a body the red, scattering parts of the vehicle Holy Week worship service, which on Tuesday night was at the Episcopal Church. Chairman Nelson Thomas of the Committee on Support of Churches planned the participation. GRASS FIRE WEDNESDAY brought about through the combined efforts of the Soil Conservation Service, the Forest Service, the Extension Service, and the ASC.

Farmers who cooperate with this program must put up their share of license, according to C. M. Booth, the out - of - pocket cost of the an old hand at the fishing game. approved conservation practice as Fishermen using artificial bait, well as perform all labor involved. however, are required to have a In turn, the farmer and the govvalid license in possession, Booth reminded.

As a safety measure, intended ernment enter into a contract to prevent woods and farm fires in which works to the benefit of both of West Oxford Baptist Church, visited Winston - Salem late Tues-First units of work in the civic beautification projects of the Gar- day to see Crestwood Baptist den Study Club have been com- Church, one of the newest buildings menced at the court house and at in this area planned by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Bap-entrances to Elmwood Cemetery. The work is being undertaken by tist Convention. a committee headed by Mrs. John the first unit of their building pro-Ray Watkins and Mrs. C. C. Wheeler. Plantings of shrubs were gram, a Sunday School departmade on the front plot and also ment with the chapel in use as the at the side of the court house, and stone construction.

County Court House And City Cemetery

Tuesday afternoon and also at gateways to the cemetery. Construction of a wall along the side of the court house, to provide a curb for the planted area, by the Board of County Commissioners, contemplated.

Used By Residents

Baptist Committee

A teacher of Math at Nichols Residents fishing in waters in High School, M. G. Talton, Jr., has been awarded a National Science Granville County with natural bait Foundation scholarship at Duke may do so without purchase of a University for nine weeks of special study in the summer term.

Talton, as others who are granted the scholarships, will be compensated while attending the classes and also will be given travel and aibsistence allowances.

Talton has been a member of the Nichols School faculty for 13 years, Studies Construction and prior to that taught in Eastern North Carolina. He has a 20-year Four members of the building teaching credit, including military committee, together with the pastor service.

Granville's Bond Sales $33,976 In Month of Feb'ary

Granville County's February sales The congregation has completed of U. S. Savings Bonds totaled $33,976, bringing the total for the year to $81,886, or 31.5 per cent of the 1959 quota, according to J. W. church auditorium. It is of brick Boring, volunteer county chairma Boring said information forward-The Oxford delegation, Chairman ed him by the state office in Greensboro disclosed the state total A. D. Dillehay ,Walter Hughes, Jr., Lonnie Broyal, Ed Beasley and the of sales for February was $4,330,101. Rev. A. S. Lamm, brought back a reduction of about one per cent over the same period for the preplans of the Winston - Salem Church for study in relation to the vious year.

Dr. Abrams To Be Speaker for NCEA Banquet in Oxford

Streets. A partition in the main store p. m., leaders of the organization

mbers of the unit are expe

Participation in a match point bridge tournament to be held at St. Stepehen's Church Parish House commencing at 7:30 p.m. Thurs-day, April 2, is invited by Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Auxiliary.

local proposals.

Shifts Made in Stock

Bridge Tournament Scheduled April 2