PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

AWARDS FOR TOP DAIRYMEN -From left, A. I. Park of Pine State presents to John K. Nelms, Alvis Allen and W. L. Peed, the latter two of Creedmoor, bronze setting out top honors in milk production at their dairies during the past year. For details, see the

Leon Stone Joins WOXF Radio Station

Native of Henderson to Work in Sales and Announcing Personnel

A Henderson native, Leon W. Stone, has joined the personnel of Oxford Broadcasting Company, Inc., as an announcer and salesman. In that capacity he succeeds Jim Tew, who resigned to enter the insurance ess in his native Clinton.

Stone has been in radio for several years and comes to Oxford Elizabethtown, where he has mouncing and selling, "T'm ily happy to be back into gressive area of North Caropleased with the fine radio facili-

The Stones, Leon and Reba, and their two sons, Michael 9 and David 7, and daughters, Jackle 5, and Robin 1, are residing on South Country Club Drive. They moved here Friday from Elizabethtown. Stone is a World War II veteran. They are Baptists and water

Thursday as he was structed will at work on a heart attack while at work on a building on the Haywood Smith of DHIA, recognized Granville Sid Adcock.

FormerOxfordWoman Succumbs in Raleigh

March 6 at her home in Raleigh. The funeral was held in Raleigh and burial was in the cemetery at Chapel Hill.

Mrs. White was a native of Chapel Hill, a graduate of Greensboro College. She was a registered mer Ida Dickerson; two daughters, in this city.

Club. She had helped many college students through N. C. State O. M. Authur of Berryville, Va.,

Four sisters survive. Mrs. White Active pallbearers named were

BY HOPE H. CURRIN

(First Grade Teacher in Credie School)

The first day of school!

What a wealth of meaning an magic there is in that phase. Bu remember that no magic will make our children suddenly grow up as they step into first grade. What happens then, as all through life, will be the logical outcome of all were made and three directors named at the annual meeting of Granville Milk Producers Association.

Highs In Production time.

Robert Davis, president, presided.

Returned to office as directors for a tenure of three years each were tich held Thursday night at Moundary and C. W. Allen, Jr., and the street to street to street the street to street the street to street the street to street to street the st

War II Conducted at 3 P. M. Sunday

Thursday as he was stricken with might serve an additional number. John Owens, Armstod Wilkins and esided at 105 West Street.

3 p.m. Sunday at the G. T. Eakes Church. Burial was in Peace's former resident of Oxford, died Chapel Baptist Church Cemetery.

County, a son of the late C. R. Dement, a miller, and Mrs. Corinbat vetran of World War II. Surviving are his wife, the for-nurse and was superintendent of Juanita and Dorothy, and a son Mary Elizabeth Hospital, Raleigh, Michael Anthony, all of the home; and for a long period held a similar position at Granville Hospital Hurley, all of Oxford, Rowland of Durham, Alonzo of Atlanta, Ga., She had been active in the Epis- and Grady Lee of Abeline Tex.; copal church, U. D. C., D. A. R., five sisters, Mrs. A. L. Twisdale of Route 2 Wake Forest; Mrs. J. M. by providing free rooms at her Mrs. Hartwell Tally of Oxford, and Mrs. Doc Wade of Tampa, Fla.

was an aunt of Miss Estelle White C. W. Dement, A. A. Daniel North of this city, who attended the Dement, W. G. Dement, Herbert Lee Dement and E. T. Dement.

The Schedule

Pre-school conferences white and Negro children begin in Granville March 15 and through May 3. Dr. W. P. Whe-less of the Granville Health Department said the series would begin at 9 a.m. in designated schools with the exception of Berea, which is to be at

When your child starts to school.

Dairymen Attain New

Funeral Chapel by the Rev. J. D. Young, pastor of Oxford Methodist

He was a native of Granville na Oakley Dement. He was a com-

Your Pre-School Child

Helping Your Child to Become Self-Sufficient for School Experiences

room habits. Being a good first he is expected to know how to wash grader implies the acquisition of and dry his hands, tie and untie Alvis Allen, W. L. Peed and tain Creek Community House. John K. Nelms Receive Each of the several guests and Plaques for Outstanding persons on the program alluded to the warm hospitality, progress of Top producers received awards, served by women of Mountain linancial and sperations reports Creek Development Association.

disposed of his dairy interest. The Mrs report of the nominating committee was made by J. K. Melins. Funeral for Veteran of World been bred artificially during the semen, and 98 family cows.

Leonard Overton reported 17 Granville County herds are on Dairy Herd Improvement Association program and that his account to the pallbearers were Paul and semen, and 98 family cows. Elmer R. Dement, 46, Oxford Dairy Herd Improvement Associa-sports are their favorites. Stone farm Route 2, Virgilina, Va. He producers whose herds had topped the pack during the past year, and The funeral was conducted at Pine State's A. I. Park presented Mrs. Satterwhite engraved plaques to each.

G. Alvis Allen of Creedmoor, toute 2, took the lion's share of production honors. His five-yearold prize cow poured out 17,900 Funeral for Wife of L. P. Satpounds of milk with 570 pounds f butterfat in 305 days for honor n that area of competition, and n high herd average milk per cow. See DAIRYMEN Page 3

Milk Producers To Meet Here Friday

D. Kilgore and J. D. George of State College On Program

The annual meeting of producers in the Oxford milk shed is to be held here Saturday, commencing dairy operators and milkmen to four grandchildren. he festive board.

Greeting the assembly will be J. for the 12 months ahead, according to A. I. Park, Pine State Field Manager for the Oxford territory. Manager for the Oxford territory.

Also appearing will be J. D. Clinic on Forward George of State College, whowill present a special program on use and care of the milking machine and mastitis control. There will be an actual demonstration at the O. J. Hagler of Baptist State

Producers from Granville, Vance Warren, and also Mecklenburg County, Va., will be on hand for the session, to be concluded by

Equalization Board To Meet on March 20 that has zone before.

Our child's first year in school can indeed be magic if we have planned carefully to make him a self-sufficient tittle person.

Our child's development as an independent and self-sufficient become well established and auto-The Granville County Board of nalization will convene on Monday, March 20, to hear any matters ught before the body by Grantile County property owners.

The Board of Equalization is the ame as the Granville County Board of Commissioners, The five nen sit as a board to adjust any

OT SOMO Ever TO OF THE 11 10 61 BE SOLD APRIL 25

Tuesday, April 25, has been designated at date for sale of Granville County School improvement bonds totaling $1,250,000.

Arrangments for the sale have been made through the North Carclina Local Government Commissicn of which W. E. Easterling Authority to issue the bonds w given the Board of County Commissioners by vote of Granville people on Dec. 5, 1959.

The funds will be used toward cost of construction of facilities for Granville County and Oxford

Charlie G. Leach Buried at Stoval

Funeral Conducted Sunday for Retired Sawver, Native of Davie County

A native of Davie County who had resided in Granville County for 30 years, Charlie G. Leach of Stovall, died at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Granville Hospital. Leach, a retired sawyer, was 72. He, had been in declining health for some

The funeral was conducted at 4 p.m. Sunday at Stovall Baptist Church with the Rev. Curtis B. Knowles- and the Rev. P. D. Midgett officiating. Burial was in the Stovall Cemetery.

Mr. Leach had been employed the community, and the fine meal for many years by the H. B. Williams Sawmill Company at St elected to succeed Elmer Haskins vie, and a step son, Denny Owe was L. T. Mize, Jr. Haskins has of Henderson; three daughter organization that 878 cows had willie and a stepdaughter, Mrs. been bred artificially during the brothers, W. I. Leach of Martinspast year, 195 of them with special ville, Va., and J. F. Leach of Saliscarpenter, died suddenly at 5 p.m. tion program and that his agency Francis Munn, H. B. Williams

Dies In Hospital

terwhite to Be Conducted at 3 P. M.

A Stovall resident, Mrs. Ethel Wilson Satterwhite, 63, wife of L. divisions will take their projects to Granville Hospital following a further competition March 25. engthly illness.

The funeral will be conducted spices of the Oppenheimer Science at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Stovall Bap- Club with David Gillespie as gentist Church by the Rev. N. Curtis eral chairman. Faculty advisors Knowles, pastor, assisted by Rev. were G. C. Richardson and Steve Oren Bradley of Mt. Airy, a for- Woolard. mer pastor. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

of Stovall Baptist Church. with a luncheon at 11:45 a.m. at Sidney Saterwhite, both of Stovall, an experiment on the fruit fly.

Active pallbearers named were lection. Harold Wilson, James A. Wilson, D. Kilgore Pine State president, Lester Hough, Herbert Wilson, Biological, Robert Hill, assisted by

Two-Night Program

and Friday night at Butner Bap-

O. J. Hagler of the Baptist State

cations," Arch Cree, Flat River

Association promotion secretary, which begins at 7:30 p.m.

tist Church.

Civitans Set Date Program Scheduled

Convention to Direct of April 9 The Baptist Forward Program will be examined and discussed in a clinic to be conducted Thursday onvention is to be the director, return from Durham where he par-"The Best Way to Finance Your ticipated in the North Carolina Church" will be presented. "Plans Civitan Council meeting. will be discussed to fit every size church membership and various Bailey Breedlove and Frank Sharp, working conditions and church attended the Durham deliberations.

BOOSTERS' CLUB LEADERS-President John R. Perkinson, seated second from right, is shown ith the men who will help develop a higher spirit of enthusifor a Greater Granville kinson William Jenkins; standing. John D. Mackie. Sam Watkins, T. Morgan Daniel, Joe W. Bullock, Rev. Bob Shepard, Dr. John W. Watson and J. Graham Hunt. They took office at an organizational meeting here last

-Staff photo

Inc. on a 15-acre site west of and Louis Hutchinson, president CONSTRUCTION SITE VISITED Granville County business leadof Granville - Oxford Planning ers are shown during a visit fast ednesday afternoon to the site struction Superintendent C. M. of a shell factory building being erected by Granville Developers,

H. S. Science Fair Exhibits at Oxford High Attract Large Number of Visitors A "bigger and better" Science

Fair at Oxford High the past week attracted a large attendance and winner in the senior and junior Saterwhite, died Sunday at N. C. State College, Raleigh, for The fair was stated under au-

Each of three sections of the Fair had two divisions. Winners in Mrs. Saterwhite was a member the biological division, Senior Sec- of East Carolina College Alumni tion were Bill Anderson, with an Association in Granville County Surviving in addition to her experiment on disease streppocco- here March 29.

Junior Section winners were: who will present the sales outlook Ernest Wilson and Clarence Wil- Meyer Dworsky; Iola Peed and tural additions to the campus and Carolyn Thomas, the latter assis-See WINNERS Page 8

For Party at Lake

Oxford Club to Be Host for Family Party Afternoon

A family party for Civitans of at Murfreesbro filling a post that ing for the Flat River Association's Zone 10 will be held April 9 at has been open for several weeks, newest church. The nature and Satterwhite Point with the Oxford He is single and has taken a room size of construction are yet to be Civitan Club as host. Farney Berat the home of Miss Annie Belle determined by the congregation of Boyd was ril 9 party is to be large-

I, but with a business meet-civitans and entertainment tren and the ladies.

Hamlet of George W. Kane, Inc., Winners Named In Loss of $12,000 From two-level broiler house on the way when discovered by Mr. Surratt 7:30 p.m. to discuss land farm of Vestal Surratt at Berea, that Berea firemen were faced with and in this connection will show as entailing a loss estimated at $12,- a futile battle.

town. J. P. Harris, Jr., a director

Commission, W. T. Yancey, Con-

ECC Alumni Plan Dinner March 29

Wide Meet May Be Made with Mrs. Brent Meadows There is to be a dinner meeting

Reservations for County-

husband are two sons, James and sis, and Howard Harrell, Jr., with Mrs. Mabel Harris of Wilton, president, said the meeting is to be the National Guard Armory. Pine and a brother, L. L. Wilson, of Physical winners were Charles held at 6:30 at the Woman's Club State is to be host for the gather- Oxford, and a sister, Mrs. Irene Peed, whose experiment was to with tickets available by advance ing, which will bring about 150 Wilson Jones of Siler City; also show the conductivity of solutions, reservation at $1.55 each. Mrs. and Linda Latta with a rock col- Brent Meadows of this city is the ticket agent.

To be shown at the gathering is a film dealing with recent strucother changes of interest to students and former students. Inclu- | Eugene Savage of Raleigh, to ded are plans for future develop-

Oxford Public Ledger as linotype church or such building as the coperator. He comes to his newspaper job here directly from the paper job here directly from the pape Smith on College Street.

F. A. Todd at Wilton at Jack Tar Hoter with 144 Department at 7:80 p.m. Thursday, represented. Farm Agent C. V. Morgan announced Monday. The Extension Service plant pathologist will talk on Duke Hospital, insect control, production and other treatment followed of Granville Developers at right, discuss progress on the contract.

The group later visited the Tobacco Station.

The house had been stocked with 10,000 chicks three days earlier and together to plan the part each may when last checked Sunday night, have in home and grounds imthe gas-fired brooders were found provements. operating in good order, according Saturday, March 25, all cattleto Mr Surratt, who disclosed that men in the county will have opin force on the property. quick response to the call, using the recently acquired new Interna-Billy Mangum and Floyd Buff, the a head on all cattle slaugh firemen were able to prevent spread On Wednesday, March 29, T. C. of the leaping flames to other prop-

Mr. Surratt said he saw the fire from his window when he awoke at 2 am. Flames at that time were in the county are urged to mark leaping through the roof.

Delrayno Church Signs Architect

Serve Association's Newest Congregation

eth City, has taken a job with the of Raleigh, to draw plans for a the road four miles which the Rev. Tom Jones is pas-

The building planning committee onsists of Bob Ray, Mrs. J. V. Dr. Furney A. Todd of State Col-lege will address the adult farmer class of the Wilton High Vo-Ag Department at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

District Field Day for Scouts To Be Held Soon

Competitive Events to Be Conducted on Creedmoor School Campus

Hal Goode, vice chairman in charge of Boy Scout activities of the John Penn District, has announced a District Boy Scout Field Day to be held Saturday. March 18, at 2 p.m. at the Creed-moor High School Athletic Field. Scouts from each unit in the District their parents and friends will enjoy friendly competition in 14 events. In addition to the 130 yard dash, relay race and broad and high jumps, there will be volly as novel events such as the threelegged race, sack race and potato Since school in the District will be in session of March 18, scouts are urged to make transport arrangements in advance so they will be able to arrive at the contest promptly at 2 p.m.

Farmer Meetings In County Slates

Witchweed Slides Are Being Shown High School Vo-Ag Students

BY C. V. MORGAN (Granville Agriculture Agent) Virgil Thompson is winding Tuesday a two-day visit to Gr ville showing slides of witd and control methods to vo-ag in the several schools.

Thompson is with the U.S. Do partment of Agriculture Pest Co trol Division.

the Oxford High vo-ug building Thursday at the same hour to lead issions on farm management

All farmers of the cor Other events have been scheduled for the remainder of March. On Monday, March 20, A. D. Worialist will be at Sto Broiler House, Chicks Control in crops. On Wednesday, March 22, John H. Harris of Exte Fire at 2 a.m. Monday destroyed The blaze had gained such head- ture, will be at Oak Hill High at interesting set of slides. It is s > a nominal amount of insurance was portunity to vote in the cattle referendum. Polling places will be Fireman Charles Parrott made announced. The program is in eftional truck equipped with water ued. If the vote is favorable there and pump. Aided by Oscar Adcock will be an assessment of ten cents

Blalock, Extension Dairyman, will be at Oak Hill High at 7:30 to discuss herd replacement and the new feed testing program. All dairymen

Jack Boyd Hurt As Car Overturns

Resident of Route 4 Patient at Hospital Here After Accident

New Operator Here

The congregation of Delrayno
Baptist Church on Sunday authorwilliam (Blue) Sharber of Elizaized employment of Eugene Savage

The congregation of Delrayno and his car demolished at 11:30 p.m. Friday when the machine left