VOL. 80

Bids Total $545,872 For New School possible basement corner" in an rooms the superintendent declarligh are in the planning stage.

13 Positions Filled time teacher teacher last year, succeeding Miss Patricia Wilson

Another new faculty member at

See FACULTY Page 3

Construction of a the summer period.

epartment

ed. In one of the schools two

Rep. Scott Airs Foreign Aid Views

Fifth District Representative Will Support President's Plan reviewing his previous stand on police action, one by gunfire.

ported it because I have not conor the best interest of our coun-Scott said in clarifying his

The Congressman said he also Full Support to Security "I do not want ever to feel that I have failed to support any measure that might in any degree have contributed to our country's defense and security," he went on. Scott said now it is his feeling that the pending Mutual Security Act of foreign aid holds "a meas urable promise of added strength to cur position in a restless and troubled world, I expect to support it in the form requested by the

In a time of crisis, one can hardly afford to demand complete assurance that the foreign aid program will be 100 per cent successful, he explained. 'It must be conful, he explained. "It must be con-aidered worth the price if it will contribute appreciably to our decontribute appreciably to our defense and security."

many important respects" from day, Sept. 5 and commence classes D. N. Hix yesterday released the Mrs. Johnston is a graduate of Apprevious foreign ala programs. The on Wednesday, Sept. 6. administration he stated, prop "to give assistance only to the countries having self-help agrams for social and economic See SCOTT Page 6

For School Staff

Supplementary salary checks in he gross amount of $35,751.42 are being drawn for payment to teachers made eligible on the basis of employment in Granville County schools for 1960-61.

Net amount of the payment will office of the Granville Board of Federal withholding takes chunk of $6.435.50, 18 per cent, and Social Security $1,058, three per cent, and State withholding $407.23 to account for the $7,901.06 taken from the gross amount.

Mrs. Parker explained that the payments are based on the number of days taught and the certificate rating of the individual, and amount to five per cent of the employee's day.

Stevall High Class Of '55 Plans Meet

Members of the class of 1955 of Stovall High School have planned a reunion with steak dinner at the VFW Club here the night of Aug.

There were 24 members of the class of which Don Campbell was president. Mrs. Manie Van Currin is the secretary. Reservations still are coming in and there are indications that more than half of the class will be on hand for the dinner and home-made entertain-

H. T. Brame Takes Oath as New Deputy lett, Lillian F. Adcock, Patricia the store.

H. T. Brame was sworn in Tuesday as a member of the sheriff's force in Granville. The oath was administered by Mrs. John K. Nelms in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court.

Lucious C. Aucock, plantage of the following faculty at Oak Hill: Mrs. Lou P. Watkins Mrs. Mary T. Stovall, Mrs. Vera M. Puryear, Brame formerly was a m the Oxford Police Department, a Currin, high school, and Stuart V. post he had held for several years. Pool Mrs. Elizabeth D. Lamp, Mrs. He fills a vacancy in the sheriff's Mabel E. Elliott, Mrs. Rubie W. department created in Oct of last Hart, Mrs. Lelia B. Williams, Mrs. year by resignation of Howard Nell Taylor Brooks, Mrs. Emma G. Suitt of Creedmoor. Clark and Mrs. Jewel C. Nelson.

Small Booze Plant Destroyed in Salem

Sheriff's men Monday afternoon estroyed a miniature size distil-The whiskey plant was designed Frances C. Boyd, all in high school, superintendent. Burial was in the from a steel drum and there was Mrs. Mattle Belle Whitehurst, John Summerville Presbyterian Church no indication that it had been in D. Ball, Mrs. Elizabeth White Win- Cemetery near Lillington.

Police Kill One, Overpower Bids to Be Taken Second Nocturnal Prowler

the pending Mutual Security Act of desperate fight and held a small armed prowler whom Hooker had One of the prowlers put up a cordon of officers at bey before cornered. it has been administered in pre-the sharp crack of gunfirs broke | Surveying the situation carefully. the desperado dropped in its tracks, the enemy Johnson took careful A woman's report that someone aim with his police gun and drop-ornered here during Wednesday Officer T. H. Johnson found the area outside and were joined Fifth District Rep. Ralph J. Scott cornered here during Wednesday Officer T. H. Johnson found the area outside and were joined of North Carolina said today he is night and both were destroyed by Hooker standing guard — and at a by Mrs. Dickerson in going on to respectable distance - from a well- a portion of the second floor room alled out to his colleague. The beam of Daniel's light was > ndicated fright. The officer was able to handle terday. the situation unassisted. He mcv-

Sept. 22 on New

Report on Project Given to Board of Trustees at Tuesday Night Meeting

Sept. 22 is the tentative date for eking bids on the proposed new high school building north of town reflected by a pair of eyes that for Oxford and northern Granville students, C. W. Duggins said yes-

The statement came following a Graded School Trustees at which ed plans for the term ahead. He came up with invader what various school matters were review-

The

Presently, Oxford School authores are attempting to discover and break the bottleneck that is schools. pleted for the construction of a A 60-foot right-of-way has been cation. pledged and this is to be made even | Classroom space is at trance will be on the north side of both schools "We are utilizing every the school tract.

Haskins and Rice of Raleigh have virtually completed preparation of lans and approval of the State and will have grammar grade work. Schoolhouse Planning Body now

Notepad Review

grams are Dr. James Pruitt, John after he was struck by a car in Frontis L. Wilson and Mrs. Georgia formerly taught at Fairfax, Va., A graduate of East Carolina Col- the yard of the Currin home. The Patton, all in high school, and will be in the fourth grade; Mrs. lege who taught at Oak Hill in car was being driven by a member -M. H. Puckett, Wallace Clayton. C. V. Morgan and Mrs. Ann Thad Stem, Jr., Becomes Elliott attended a Farm Bureau membership planning conference in Raleigh last Friday. Bill Little B. C. Mangum and others presented mencing next month. -Mrs. Kathryn Burns, a member of the Creedmoor school faculty, is in Chapel Hill for the fourday summer TV Educational Workshop at the University. She is eighth grade teacher at Creedmoor. Supervisor Mary W. Hall attended Thursday session of the workshop. TV instruction is used in three or four different subjects in several Roy B. McKnight of Shallotte, Granville schools, Miss Hall stated. Paul S. Ballance of Winston - Sal-

North Carolina and a former Hill. representative of Oxford National ers here. Dr. Armstrong is 71 and action relating to libraries. has been in health work for 42 Also considered were State Aid

> Pidelity Bankers Life Insurance Company. He will return to Rich-

School Structure Faculty Changes And Additions Here Given

Thirteen Positions in Oxford Teaching Personnel Filled effort to meet the need for class-During Summer Period

Emphasis will be upon "quality classrooms have been partitioned education" in the Oxford school off in the school shop. term beginning in early Septemher Superintendent C. W. Dug-Teachers are to report on Friday, Sept/ 1 and will use that day and superintendent told his Monday, Sept. 4, in preparation One blow from a police billet will be completed at a figure "well assignments. All-day classes will

> The same schedule is to be followed in Granville County unit delaying the start of work on con- Stress during the term will be upuction of an adequate access on quality teaching, quality work oad to the school property. Neces- by students and upon a full proary information has been given gram of work and accomplishments ate Highway authorities and the each day, Duggins explained. "We gn-up by property owners com- are experiencing a revival of inroad from Highway 15 in a westerly the administrator stated, express ance of one and one-fourth miles. well for the future of public edu-wider from the school ground en- at both Oxford High and Mary College. trance to the highway. The en- Potter Schools, he explained. In

Back-to-School Trade Days To Mid-Week Holiday to Be Sus pended After Aug. 28; Hot-

Next Wednesday, Aug. 23, will be the final of the summer mid-week half-holidays for business establishments here and Monday, Sept. 4 will be a holiday, if recommendations of the Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce are

The committee, headed by T. S. tion on these matters and also fixed Aug. 30-31 and Sept. 1-2 as Back to School" trade days in retiring. Oxford. Martin said he expected 'a large majority" of Oxford re-Stores have been closing at noon on Wednesdays during the summer months. Quickening of the business pulse here in connection with rop marketing and school reopening marks the end of the summer fixed Saturday, Dec. 2, as date for the holiday parade to be staged at Members of the committee attending the meeting with Martin were J. R. Perkinson, J. R. Frazier, Irvin Fcx Royster Critcher, Leon Stone, and Walter Hughes, Jr.

N. W. Weldon Elected at Recent Annual Meeting Held in Gretna, Va.

of Stovall, has been named to the board of directors of the Roanoke River Basin Association.

North Carolina and Virginia and is headed by M. H. Aylor of Gretna. Burgwyn of Woodland, is vice chairman. Eric W. Rogers, Scotland Neck newspaper publisher, is secretary-treasurer of the asso Mr. Weldon recently retired from nembership of the Colored Orphanage Board of Directors. He is hairman of the Kerr Reservoir nment Commission. The anual meeting of the Roa-noke River Basin Association was held recently at Gretna.

-Tom Bagby, a farmer of Ro left a good taste with ASCS ofpersonnel Tuesday afternoon. office on business Bashy d four or five small m s, yellow and just right for ternoon coffee break. Some-ust happened to have a knife and and a dash of salt was

Geo. W. Kane Of Durham Bids Low

Completion of Structure Before Start of School Term Next Fall Expected by Authorities

Low bids totaling $545,872 for construction of a new high school building on the former Julian classroom Hester farm tract at the edge of building 's underway at Mary Pot- Creedmoor were received by the ter and more facilities for Oxford Granville Board of Education here Tuesday.

The general construction con-When the term begins, several tract was awarded to George W. new faculty members will be on Kane of Durham, at a low bid of and. The superintendent said 13 $404,532. Other low bidders were positions have been filled during A. A. Walker of Reidsville, plumbing, 26,400; A. A. Walker of Reids-At the Credle School, Mrs. Jean ville, heating, $53, 270; and Caro-Yeargin Gill is returning to succeed lina Electrical Company, Hender-Mrs. Marilyn Hughes Logan, re- son, electrical $61,670.

signed; Mrs Marion Haskins is School Superintendent D. N. Hix oining the faculty as successor to said 39 contractors submitted bona Mrs. Myrtle Crews Poe retired; fide bids, 17 of the min competition and Mrs. Katherine Webb, a part- for the general construction. The structure, to serve high

's succeeding Mrs. Wanda Ben- school students from Creedmoor, nett in the public school music Stem and Wilton, will contain 64,-130 square feet and the building At Oxford High, Miss Nancy costs averages $8.95 per square foot, acala Patterson of Burlington is including architects' fees.

John Latimer and Associates of as teacher of biological science and Durham are the architects and in charge of girls' physical educa- engineers for the project, which tion training. Miss' Patterson re- is to be finished by sale of bonds ceived her A.B. degree from Elon which Granville voters approved several months ago in a referen tion is to get started in the early future. Completion is expected for use at the opening of school at tor) Capps Purchase Oxford Auto Machine Co.

Bullock Men Buy Oxford Business

Henry Tilley and Allen (Gator) Capps both of Bullock, have acquired the stock of Oxford Auto Machine Co., Inc., and have taken over operation of the business

John H. Nelms and his son, John K Nelms, were principal owners of the enterprise, which has been Martin met Tuesday and took ac- in business here for around 40 been managing the enterprise, is Capps has been engaged in heavy full cooperation" on the part of construction work as machini and welder for 12 years. Tilley for the past two years has been with Oxford Pulpwood Yard. Th firm was originally operated as B. & N. Motor Company with the late J. M. Blaleck as one of the owenrs. The name was chang when the late J. M. Blalock disposed of his interest in the busi-

Youth in Hospital After Hitting Car

Ronnie Lee Breedlove Sustains Head Injury in Raleigh Street Mishap A six-year-old youth was hospitalized Monday night after he ran into the side of an automobile on Raleigh road. He was identified by Police Officer H. W. Grissom as Ronnie Lee Breedlove and operator of the car involved with Albert May of Dickerson Community.

Grissom, assisted in his invesdigation by Officer Jimmy Dan-el, said the boy, son of Mrs. Margaret Breedlove former resident of McClanshan Street, sustained a head injury, apparently when he was knocked to the paved surface of the road by the impact.

An eye-witness told Grissom that he saw the boy on the east side and that as one car passed, the boy started running to the opposite side and ran into the left front fender of the May car.

was attempting to get into her ped the culprit — but not before residence sent the squad car racing a small black skunk had left an ed in closer, cautiously, before meeting of the Oxford Board of gins said yesterday as he discuss to a South Oxford address at 3 odoriferous calling card. making a quick grab. Within a short while, Police Mrs. C. R. Dickerson called for looked to be a hungry o'possum. Police got word that Leroy Headquarters received a radio re- police assistance at 3 a.m. Obviousof impending disaster prevades the port that the culprit was in cus- ly frightened. Mrs. Dickerson said tody. Thorpe liked the meat. Police of board that there is "considerable and organizational noises she heard from the outside fered the animal on an "as is" ba- bidding interest" among contrac- meeting students on Sept. 5 for sis. Thorpe said he couldn't kill it fors and that he believes the fob a two-hour orientation session and On Granville Street gave her the impression someone Police Officer James Hooker was was attempting to get inside spotted the first of the public her home. enabled Thorpe to take with him within line of present-day conbegin Sept. 5 and lunchroom will struction costs."

Granville School Teachers Are Listed Faculty Members to Report

Faculty organizations for nine schools in the Granville County system for the 1961-62 term were principals on Sept. 1, which is two weeks from today and students

Robert D. Hunt, who has suc-

Louise B. Preddy and Mrs. Mable

Mangum, Mrs. Ruth M. Phipps, seventh grade. She was employed in Fmma Kate Thompson, Mrs. Pillie S. Allen, Mrs. Irene W. Parrott, Mrs. Loretta Dye Hays, Mrs. Carrie New Store Front 1. Suitt, Persaline W. O'Brian, Mrs. Agnes R. Uhrin, Mrs. Melba R.

Lewis, Dorothy G. Blalock, and Mrs. Rosalie D. Wooten. Mantelle R. Vickers, principal and other faculty members at Stem are Mrs. Zella W. Peed Mrs. Marguerite A. Daniel, Mrs. Martha Ann Hemphill. Jackie B. Nordan, high Spencer Johnston Mrs. Carrie C. and Grocery.

Whitfield, and Sallie Webb. Berea Goldie M. Averett, James E. Gra- lege Street. ham and Louise Harris in high Pyrd Giles, Mrs. Rebecca M. Trip-Rose Taylor and Rebecca C. Man-

Oak Hill Lucious C. Adcock, principal, has Jesse R. Butts and Mrs. Marie G.

Stovall * heads the Stovall faculty which includes Thornton G. Stovall, William Henry West, Jr., Mrs. Rose lington Presbyterian Church at 4 Graham Johnson, Mrs. Annie H. p.m. Wednesday. He was an elder Stovall, Paul T. Morgan, Mrs. Mary of the church and Sunday School for Work on Friday, Sept. Eighteen New Faculty Members in Granville direction to Watkins Road, a disand three transfers within the High. system will be employed in the Granville County Schools for the be Mrs, Claudia Ophelia Spe term beginning Sept. 5.

merly a teacher at Clinton, will English and foreign language.
be on the Wilton staff as will Miss Three at Berea
Ruth H. Strother, formerly a Miss Louise Harris of Ro grammar grades. hearin, William I. Fort, Jr., 3, C., a Coker College alumna, who Hester Church. Trs. Kathryn B. Burnes Mrs. Allen a Meredith graduate, who 1949-50, Mrs. Marie Gupton Currin, of the family. Timle H. Preddy, Mrs. Louise B. taught at Wilton 1959-60, will have a resident of the district, is coming Willis, Mrs. Catherine H. Bullock, fourth grade work at Creedmoor; back as home ec teacher. Another

Eighteen new faculty members the final months of 1961 at Stova Stem School's new teachers will Granville School Superintendent Martha Ann Hemphill of Stem. culty organization as it exists at palachian State Teachers College George E. Silver of Kenley a uate, formerly taught in the Gle uate of State College and for- Alpine School, She is to teac in high school, and Mrs. Alma O. years has been engaged in the McLauren, resigned as teacher of Among the Army reservists. Husketh, Ruth H. Strother, Flor-Stem school. Silver will be in high home economics at Berea. She is a from the community who have reence Dean, Bessie M. Dean, Mrs. school and Miss Strother in the graduate of Greensboro College. A turned from summer training prorecent graduate of East Carolina There will be four new faces at College, Miss Patricia Rose Tay- ny Brummitt, Troy Preddy, C. W. Creedmoor, William I. Fort, Jr., lor of Oxford, is to have primary Russell N. Manning is principal Miss Emma Kate Thomason, Mrs. work at Berea and Mrs. Joanne at Creedmoor and the faculty there Billie S. Allen and Mrs. Jannie Byrd Giles, a graduate of the Uniconsists of Marjorie Aiken, James Harris Preddy. Fort, a State Col- versity of Richmond who formerly of Mr. and Mrs. Currin of Route Reid Basinger, Mrs. Margaret L. lege graduate from Vance County, taught in Wake County, will have 1. was a patient at Granville Hosbe $27,850.36, according to Mrs. Eina M. Holmes, will teach mathematics and phy- seventh grade at Berea. Her hus- pital for a day or so the first of the Ruth K. Parker, assistant in the Mary Louise Ellis, Mrs. Lucia E. sics; Miss Thomason of Laurens, band, a minister, is employed at week for treatment and observation

Mrs. Elizabeth H Jeffreys, Mrs. and Mrs. Preddy, of Wilton, mid- new vocational teacher at Oak Hill Yorv Perry Curl Mrs. Marilyn B. year graduate of ECC, will teach is Jesse R. Butts, a graduate of See EIGHTEEN Page 4

For Ideal Fruit

Door Being Moved from Center to North Side of College Street Building

A new glass and aluminum front is being installed in the store ie, has been named zone chairman school, and Mrs. Claudia Ophelia building occupied by Ideal Fruit for Lions International, with Pearce and other zone chairfront with aluminum trim. The men, took office in Raleigh the past door is being shifted from center week. Homer C. Triplett, principal, and to the north side of the building, Mackie will serve in the Lions faculty members at Berea are Mrs. which is on the west side of Col- territory which includes the Ox-

Montague Brothers of South Hill, Epsom clubs. school, Mrs. LaRue M. Breedlove, Va., own the building. A Chase City

> R. S. Taylor, Sr., Dies in Lillington Funeral Held Wednesday for Father of Mrs. Thomas J.

> Currin of Oxford Russell S. Taylor, Sr., 64, father of Mrs. Thomas J. Currin of this city, died Tuesday at his home in recent use, according to members of the raiding party, Deputies J.

A native of Bladen County, Mr. Taylor had been employed by the North Carolina Highway Commis-

C. Cash, A. R. Currin and B. L.

Newton.

Statistical Deputies And Deputies J.

Statistical Deputies J.

Currin are his wife, two daughters and a son, all residents of the Lil See GRANVILLE Page 3 lington area of the state.

John D. Mackie Gets Lion Post

Oxford Man Designated as Chairman for Granville, Vance Counties

An Oxford man, John D. Mack-. He will serve with District Gov

A brick foundation from sidewalk ernor A. D. Pearce of Goldston and ford, Henderson, Townsville and Zone Chairman Mackie is a forma metal canopy over the front of and is employed as farm relations

> C. Freeman Heath To Preach Sunday The Rev. C. Freeman Heath of

Clinton, a former pastor, will re-turn to the pulpit of Oxford Methodist Church at 11 a.m. Sunday to supply for the Rev. J. D. Young.

Mr. Heath was pastor of the Oxford Church 1940-44 and now is director of evangelism in the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist church

Gray to Supply At Presbyterian Church

The Rev. A. D. Leon Gray, superintendent of Oxford Orphanage, will supply at Oxford Preclyterian Church at 11 a.m. Sunday. The at 11 a.m. Su Rev. T. T. Traynham, pastor, is on

Tax Collections Coming in Faster County hax collections are coming in faster than a year

Auditor I. W. Bullock said yesterday that payments on the 1981-62 levy new botal $137,-119.27, which is about 12 per cent better than a year ago at this time. The levy for the current fiscal year totals about $750,000, and the rate is up 10 per cent from the previous year. Discount of one per cent is offered for tax payments on current accounts made during

Oxford Man Takes Library Position

Chairman of Board at Quarterly Meeting Thad Stem, Jr., of Oxford, was proposals for conducting the an- sworn in Thursday morning as nual membership sign-up com- chairman of the North Carolina Library Board, a position to which

Board of Library Service to the Stew at Providence

The Providence Baseball Club will sponsor a brunswick stew to-store from 5 o'clock until the sale is completed. The price is $1.25 night, Friday, at Thomas Griss

The Kennedy admin

has the support of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in its move to setup a

The oath-taking by Stem another new member of the board, Mrs. C. Gordon Tomlinson of Mocksville, took place in the Governor's office. Other members of the board are Dr. Mark Lindsey of Hamlet, Dr.

em, Clifford Peeler of Salisbury Dr. Charles W. Armstrong, a Dr. Charles F. Carroll of Raleigh, pioneer in public health work in and Dr. Jerrold Orne of Chapel Governor of the Carolinas District The board, in quarterly meetof Kiwanis International, will re- ng yesterday heard delegations tire next March 1 as Rowan County present problems and requests and health officer. "Dr. Charlie," as he then turned to planning for partiis intimately known by hundreds of cipation in national survey of li-Audrey V. O'Brian, Mrs. Joanne firm is installing the glass and also er president of Oxford Lions Club Tarheels, has many friends among brary activities at the state level Kiwanians and public health work- and took a look at 1961 legislative tion planning for the up-coming -Donald Knott was here over bond election for library support the week-end before leaving Rich- and appointments to the Advisory mond, Va. Monday via air for Philadelphia on a business trip for phia. The flight was the first for the Oxford man on a commercial carrier and he found it "wonder-

Blind.

-Vacation days brought sor disappointment to Mrs. Sybil Cutts per quart and the money will be of Stovall. After an excellent start, used to help defray expenses of with a week-end in the mountains club operation during the season now being concluded. panied by her daughter, Karen, Mrs. Outts was participating in a he went down with a severe prain of the ankle. After a few ys in bed, she is back on the ob with the Granville ASCS, but

Be Staged Here

iday Sept. 4 ousiness lull. The Merchants Committee also

Stovall Man Named To Board of RRBA

A Granville man, N. W. Weldon

The board's members come from applications, Federal Aid applica-