PROVIDENCE NEWS

By LILA PIPER, Dial 2478

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 6—“History of Woman’s Missionary Union” by Alma Hunt was taught for the WMS of the Providence Baptist Church on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Oren Elms as the guest teacher. The book, which has been a Jubilee Year publication, traced Woman’s Missionary Union from its infancy to the present time and Mrs. Elms was a most interesting leader for the discussion. This is the third history of WMU which has been written, the other two, “In Royal Service” and “Following In His Train,” are no longer being printed. Mrs. Garland Pruitt, the Mission Study Chairman, presided for the study and presented Mrs. Elms. Forty-three were present for the review which was followed by a social period during which the social committee served Pepsis, cup cakes, nabs and potato sticks.

Mrs. Milton Recovers
Mrs. Ray Milton underwent emergency surgery at Granville Hospital on Tuesday night of last week. She seems to be making good recovery at the time of this report. Mrs. Milton has been a semi-invalid and confined to her home most of the time since having brain surgery twice within the past two years.

Mrs. Glenn Daniel and Mrs. W.
T. Cary, along with relatives from Oxford, attended the wedding of Miss Lula Ayerett and Julian Man-gum which took place at Mt. Tabor Methodist Church at Bahama on Friday evening, the 31st of July. The bride was a niece of Mrs.
Cary and a cousin of Mrs. Daniel, the daughter of the late William Averett, who formerly resided in this community.

Ozell Green has been a patient at Granville Hospital for the past ten days suffering with pleurisy and complications. He hoped to be able to return to his home by the middle of the week.

Mrs. Thomas Smith had auricu-lar surgery at Watts Hospital on Thursday of last week and is making satisfactory recovery.

Jimmie Thomas has returned to his home after several days stay at Granville Hospital for observation following an auto accident.
Miss Linda Bowling spent the weekend at Atlantic Beach with friends.

Mrs. R. N. Watkins and members of her family spent some time sightseeing in the mountains of N. C. during last week. While in the western part of the state Mrs.
Watkins visited her sister, Mrs.
John Hodges at Boone.

Mrs. M. H. Wortham and daughter, Teresa, have returned to their home in the village following an extended visit with Mrs. Worth-am’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield, in La Grange. They were away the months of June and July.

tavern, magazine, and the capitol. An hour later we were on our way to Washington. We arrived in Washington around five o’clock.
After checking into the Chater-house Motor Motel, we had dinner uptown. We took a tour of Washington, including such places as the White House, the Capitol, the Washington Monument, the Jefferson Memorial, the Lincoln Memorial, the Supreme Court, the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Arlington National Cemetery, the Pentagon building, and two Jims statue. After the tour of Washington we returned to the motel for the night.

Sightseeing in N. Y.

By MEYER DWORSKY

Having departed from Washington at the cruel hour of 7 a.m., Aug. 2, we drove continuously for 2½ hours and then had a rest stop at the Maryland house. We arrived in New York via the Kennedy-Jersey turnpike at about 11:30 a.m.

In the afternoon, we went on a guided tour of New York City which included the following: Uptown-Downtown New York; Chinatown, Times Square; Fifth Avenue, Wall Street, the Cathedral of St.
John the Divine, which we went into, Greenwich Village, Central Park, Empire State Building, and a view of the Statue of Liberty.
That night we took a subway and visited Empire State Building.
Once there all journeyed to the 86th floor to see the wonderful skyline of New York at night.
Our stay here will cover three nights.

BUILDING IN NEW YORK

Since World War II, New York City has put up as much new office space as Chicago, Los Angeles, and San Francisco combined, National Geographic says.
In 1963 alone, 9,080 buildings costing $600 million were completed.
