THE UNCLEAN THING SOUTH-ERNERS ARE EXPECTED TO HANDLE. HOW THE ATTACK IS TO BE MADE-MEAT FOR THE HUNGRY AND RAI MENT FOR THE NAKED-POOR

Special Dispatch to the Atlanta Contion.

Since the democratic caucus decided by an almost unanimous vote that it would not fillibuster against the count, the belief that Hayes will be inaugurated has settled into certainty, and the leading topic now is the tendency of his administration. As I have disputch ed you before, the signs pointed unmistakably towards a conciliatory policy for the South.

I have just had a talk with Judge Morton, of Virginia, a republican who stands high in party circles here, and who is nearer to Senator Conkling than perhaps any man who could be named Judge Morton is in daily consultation with Conkling, Edmunds, etc., and his views may be considered very nearly authoritative. "I say to you," sa "I believe confidently that we will half the Southern States in the ele four years from now. The policy

Hayes is going to adopt will com the sympathy and support of thou of the best people in the south. are two things that have prevente building up a party in the south h fore; first, the inefficiency, corrup and unpopularity of the federal ap tess, and the general proscriptive

cy of the tederal government; second, the fact the negroes voted solidly with us, throwing the whites to the other side Now the first thing that Hayes will do will be to raise the standard of officeholders in the south. I state this as an absolutely ascertained fact. He will at once displace every bunmer, every incapable, and every man of odious repute, and fill their places with whoever the good people of the communities interested shall desire. In order to confirm and complete his policy he will dispossess many office-holders against

With a proper support in the south the which had so much effect in the canvass republican party would become the grandest party that ever existed; with Can I forget the Evening Post of New York, which for fifty years having the south solidly against it, its action is steadily battled for certain principles, hampered, its power put under frequent which my opponent represented better paralysis, and its very existence in corthan any other man in the Union, and stant jeopardy !"

Great credit is also due to the New York Tribune, which, after conseat. In the meantime those applicants tending in 1872 that the country was for smiller and non-partizan offices, only to be saved by the overthrow on who gave up all hope when they saw the Republican party, became the cham that Tilden was defeated, may now find pion of independent journalism, but is it profitable to reopen the question.
