THE BEYOND.

It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country,
"The Beyond,"
And yet not strange, for it has grown
To be
The home of those of whom I am
So fond;
They make it seem familiar and most
Dear.
As journeying friends bring distant
Regions near.
So close it lies, that when my sight is Clear,
I think I almost see the gleaming
Streets;
I know I feel that those who have Gone from here,
Come near enough sometimes to Touch my hand.
I often think, but for our veiled
Eyes,
We should find heaven right round
About us lies.
I cannot make it seem a day to dread,
When from this dear world I shall Journey out
To that dear country of the dead,
And join the lost ones so long
Dreamed about.
I love the world, yet I shall love to Go
And meet the friends who wait for Me, I know.
I never stand about a bier and see
The seal of death on some well-
Loved face,
But that I think—one more to wel-Come me
When I shall cross the intervening
Space
Between this land and that one over
There;
One more to make the strange Be-Yond seem fair.
And so for me there is no sting in Death,
And so the grave has lost its victory;
It is but crossing with bated breath
And white set face, a little strip of Sea,
To find the loved ones waiting on
The shore,
More beautiful, more precious than Before.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

ATTACKED BY A MOB

And beaten, in a labor riot, until Covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arsenal Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes
J. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich.,
"and find it perfect." Simply great

SIGNING OF THE TREATY.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 5.—The treaty of peace between Russia and Japan was signed by the representatives of the two empires at 3 27 p. m.
today.

On the instant of the consummation of the great historical act a salute was fired at the United States navy-yard on Kittery Point.

Mr. Witte, accompanied by Baron Rosen and Mr. Plancon, left the train for the navy-yard at 5 30 p. m.
The train, which had been falling in surrender for half an hour previous to this time, suddenly ceased, and the train, which had not been visible for several days, shone forth.

Baron Komura, Minister Takahira and Mr. Dennison, the legal adviser of the Japanese envoys, left at 5 48 in an automobile for the navy-yard.
They were greeted by the guests of the hotel gathered on the veranda to witness their departure. Bishop
C. Potter, of New York, was among the number.

Baron Komura, pointing at the sea, said smilingly: "It is a good omen for peace."

OUR SCHOOLS OPEN AUSPICIOUSLY.

The Reidsville Public Schools opened last Monday with the largest enrollment in their history. Six hundred children will be enrolled before the close of the year. The high school department is fuller than ever before. The tenth grade has doubled in numbers in the last two years.

Reidsville may well congratulate itself upon having such a large number of children in school. There are no surer marks of genuine progress in a community than well filled public schools.

There is only one change in the faculty. Miss Emma Sharpe of Greensboro succeeds Miss Rohr. Miss Sharpe is a full graduate of the Normal College and is highly recommended by the faculty of that institution.

On Monday morning the Reidsville Seminary had an auspicious opening in its beautiful new building. The auditorium was filled with patrons, friends and pupils, who were entertained with a delightful program.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. L. W. Crawford, and both the scripture selection and the earnest prayer emphasized the importance of christian education.

The musical numbers rendered by Miss Virginia Grayson were proof of the fact that she is an accomplished musician. Her technique is most excellent, and her sympathetic touch gives evidence of music in the heart as well as in the hand.

Miss Annie McKinney rendered a vocal selection to the delight of her former pupils and of the entire audience.

With her beautiful recitations Miss S. Jean Carter captured everybody, both old and young. Her grace of attitude and movement, her perfectly trained voice, her harmonious expression of thought and sentiment, revealed rare native talent and the highest degree of culture in her beautiful art.

Next on the program was an earnest and impressive address by Prof. Hayes. He spoke to parents and teachers and pupils of the delicate relations they sustained to each other, and urged sympathetic cooperation in the great work of preparing young people for harmonious adjustment to their relations with nature, with humanity, and with God. Many parents spoke very appreciatively of this address.

After some general announcements, the formal program was concluded, and the work of enrollment and organization was begun. Among the pupils are found boys and girls from several counties, and there is gratifying evidence of growth in the Seminary.

The Seminary building is very attractive in appearance, and in its interior arrangements is a model of comfort and convenience. It is furnished throughout with the best equipment for successful school work. And, best of all, there is a splendid faculty of capable and successful teachers.

There can be no doubt that the Seminary is entering upon an era of influence, prosperity and success that will make it a source of pride to every citizen of Reidsville and a blessing to many generations of young people in North Carolina.

DEATH OF MR SPENCER

The announcement of the death of John Dillard Spencer, which occurred at the John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, yesterday morning at 7.25, after a trying illness of several weeks, has caused a feeling of profound and genuine sorrow to pervade this city and community, where the deceased had many friends in every walk of life and where his worth as a citizen and friend is known and appreciated, and a like sadness will accompany the tidings of his untimely death to friends and acquaintances throughout this and other States.

Mr. Spencer was shot by a burglar in the home of his brother, Mr. J. H. Spencer, at Martinsville, on the night of July 21st, and his death was the result of the injuries then sustained.

The day after the tragic occurrence he was brought to the General Hospital here. The wound, though known to be serious, was not regarded as fatal. His progress towards recovery was apparently so favorable that after two weeks he was taken to his home, where soon more serious symptoms began to develop and he was carried to John Hopkins Hospital for treatment. After being there for nearly a week it was found that an abscess had formed on the vertebra of his neck, caused by the bullet making a bruise or slight fracture of the neck-bone. A most heroic operation was then resorted to and gave temporary relief, but fatal blood poisoning followed, and notwithstanding the presence and services of the best medical skill and the splendid constitution and superb courage, resolution and endurance of the patient and the tender watchfulness of loving attendants, life could only be prolonged for a few days, and when the end came at his bedside were his devoted wife and his sister, Mrs. Buchanan; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Williamson and Mr. W. W. Clark.

Mrs. Spencer having accompanied her husband to Baltimore, where the others soon afterwards joined her.

They will reach the city early this morning with the remains and the funeral services will be held at the home on Main street at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The interment will be in Green Hill cemetery. Rev. J. C. Hall, rector of the Church of Epiphany, of which church the deceased was a member, will conduct the services.

Mr. Spencer is survived by a wife, Mrs. Annie Clark Spencer, and the following four small children; William Clark, Barbara Allen, Mary Waller and Annie Spencer.

The following brothers and sisters survive the deceased:

Mr. D. W. Spencer, Mr. Geo. O. Spencer, Mrs. M. S. Buchanan and Mrs. R. G. Penn, all of Spencer, Va.; Mr. J. H. Spencer and Mrs. W. G. Lee, of Martinsville; Mrs. F. R. Penn, of Reidsville, and Mrs. G. H. Janney, of Montgomery, Ala.—Danville Register, 7th.

A VALUABLE MAN.

The report from Greensboro that Mr. Lee Battle, who was severely injured on Saturday, is now considered out of danger, is gratifying to hundreds of friends throughout the State, who recognize his worth both as a friend and a valuable citizen. It is owing to Mr. Battle's energy and progressive management that Greensboro has of late years made such strides towards becoming a real city in the best sense, and some of the most prominent institutions tending to that end have been founded by Mr. Battle's efforts. As a banker, business man, and later as a promoter of the rewest of Greensboro's fire insurance companies, Mr. Battle has exerted a wide influence in his town and made himself generally respected throughout North Carolina. That the results of the serious accident which he suffered are only temporary is more than fortunate.—News and Observer.

WOMEN SUFFER NEEDLESS MISERY.

There are hundreds of thousands of women in America suffering from Female Diseases, endangering their lives by doing nothing. If they write to me I will give them the benefit of my extensive experience.—S. B. Hartman, M. D.

IN view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months without charge.

The treatment will be conducted by correspondence.

The medicines prescribed can be obtained at all drug stores.

The Doctor will prescribe all medicines, applications, hygienic and dietary regulations necessary to complete a cure. Furthermore, all correspondence will be held strictly confidential.

This offer will hold good only during the summer months. Any woman can become a regular patient by sending a written statement of her age, condition of life, history and symptoms of her derangements, and previous treatment.

Pe-ru-na Brought Health and Happiness.

Miss Nellie South, late of Manchester, Eng., writes from 86 Prince Arthur St., Montreal, Can., as follows:

"Pe-ru-na has made a wonderful change in my life. It has brought me health and happiness."

"Since my seventeenth year I have had female complaint and irregularities. My general health suffered, I had pains in my back and lower limbs, my eyes were dim, and I became morose and unreasonable."

"Mother sought the advice of our family physician, who prescribed for me, but I grew no better."

"I then read of Pe-ru-na and procured a bottle. That one bottle was worth more than all the doctor's medicine I had taken previously."

"I cannot express my gratitude. Pe-ru-na has been a great blessing to me."—Nellie South.

Miss Edna Moore, 46 Elm street, Buffalo, N.Y., Secretary East End Literary Association, writes:

"I was a great sufferer from systemic catarrh, was extremely nervous, could not sleep, fainted easily, was very irritable, had a confusion of the senses, and got up in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed."

"I was very wretched, but upon taking Pe-ru-na I began to improve, and after using the medicine four months, I felt like a new woman and was completely cured."—Edna Moore.

The principal remedy which Dr. Hartman relies upon in curing catarrhal diseases of women is Pe-ru-na. Hundreds of women sufferers find Pe-ru-na a household necessity.

MISS Angelina Grotten, 805 St. Urbain street, Montreal, Can., writes:

"Having heard Pe-ru-na praised so highly induced me to try it for my cold, and pains in the groins with which I had been suffering for months. It took nearly three bottles to cure me, but I consider that was but a short time, as I have often taken doctors' prescriptions for months before I got relief."—Angelina Grotten.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the President of the Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted to the treatment of female diseases.

He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence.

Those wishing to become patients should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Half of Woman's ills are Catarrh and for Catarrh Pe-ru-na is Unrivalled.

We have on file thousands of testimonials like the ones given here. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are constantly receiving. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Pe-ru-na.

JUDGE WARD ASSAULTED.

Judge George W. Ward, who presided over last week's term of Durham Superior Court, was assaulted on last Saturday evening at his boarding house on Dillard street, by ex-Mayor M. E. McCown.

Mr. McCown accused the Judge in regard to the sentence that was passed upon Allen Haskins, who was charged with shooting I. C. Jay. Mr. McCown stated to the Judge that he was an uncle of Mr. Day, and asked if H's Honor could not increase the sentence of Haskins. Judge Ward told him that he had carefully considered the matter and could not change the sentence. Mr. McCown is then said to have remarked that as a member of his family, he would ask that Haskins be turned loose and then the matter could be settled.

Judge Ward then reminded Mr. McCown that he was talking to a Judge. After this, so it is claimed, Mr. McCown began to curse the judge. At this juncture, Judge Ward started to go into the house, when he was struck by Mr. McCown. The force of the blow caused the judge to fall against the door facing. An ear was bruised and there was also a bruise on the head.

A bench warrant was issued, Mr. McCown was placed under arrest. The matter came up before Judge Ward in the Superior Court room, about 9 30 o'clock Saturday night. The sentence of the court was that the defendant should serve thirty days in the county jail and pay a fine of $200. Notice of appeal was asked for, but the judge stated that no appeal would be granted.—Durham Recorder.

Later.—An appeal was allowed. The following is the finding of the Supreme Court in the matter:

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 6.—The Supreme Court today denied the application of ex Mayor Mose McCown, of Durham, N. C., for a writ of habeas corpus, and ordered that he serve the term of thirty days to which he was sentenced for cursing and striking Judge George W. Ward, of the Superior Court, because the judge refused to increase the sentence of a man who had killed his nephew.
