HOME NEWS.

HAPPENINGS THAT ARE OF INTEREST TO SALISBURIANS.

Two young ladies were baptized and received into the Baptist church last night.

Dr. H. T. Thanham is some better to-day. We hope he will soon be out again.

You will miss a rare treat if you don't hear the Albertini Linde Concert Company to-night.

Hon. John S. Henderson is distributing public documents through the mail by the sack full today.

On the fourth page will be found "Another Life" as seen by a WORLD representative last Friday.

The protracted meetings that have been in progress at the two Methodist churches closed last night.

Federal court at Statesville adjourned Saturday. Rowan's representatives came home Saturday night.

Rev. J. Alston Ramsay of Hickory, filled the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church last night. He was on his way home from Synod.

Jno. R. Gentry and Joe Patchen, the two famous pacers, passed through Saturday night on their way to Reidsville, where they will race the 31st.

The last quarterly conference of the Methodist church for this year will be held at the parsonage to-night. Officers for the next year are to be elected and other important business transacted.

Capt. Fred Moore, the handsome young baggage master on the Western, is suffering with toothache. He "doubled back" to Morrinstown today to have his teeth worked on and to see his best girl.

The Shakespeare Club will meet with Miss Maria Woodson tomorrow, Tuesday evening, at four o'clock. Macbeth, Act 1st, will be under consideration at this meeting of the club.

Misses Mabelle Kizer and Mary Julian are teaching at the graded school this week. They have the rooms of Misses Sallie Sossamon and Cappie Moose while they are in Atlanta attending the Exposition.

Mrs. W. T. Rainey and children, returned Saturday night from a visit to relatives at Richmond. The little girl on whom an operation was performed several days ago is getting along very well.

Geo. H. Smithdeal came up Saturday night and spent the night with his people, returning to Charlotte yesterday morning. Mrs. Smithdeal will leave Wednesday for Charlotte where they have decided to locate.

A colored man bought some goods from Mr. A. Parker Saturday evening and had them charged to one of his customers. He was arrested for obtaining the goods under false pretenses and was put in the lockup but later he was turned out on condition that he pay for the goods.

Rev. N. S. Jones and wife and Misses Sallie Sossamon and Cappie Moose left this morning on the vestibule for Atlanta. Mr. Jones has been given a months vacation by his church and will spend most of that time with relatives in Georgia.

A passenger on the southbound train this morning reported to a WORLD representative that the University of Virginia buildings had been burned to the ground. He did not hear how the fire originated. Full confirmation of the report is lacking.

Mr. J. T. Wyatt came in from Raleigh last night. Mr. Wyatt tells us that the collection of curiosities, which was chiefly his work, was a great success. He will strive to make it a still more interesting feature of the fair next year.

Officer Jno. A. Murphy discovered a man in Jas. Mowery's back yard Saturday night and on asking him what he was doing the man ran. Mr. Murphy sent three bullets after him but none of them hit the mark.

Some one made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the shoe shop of Mr. John F. Eagle last night. A glass in the rear window was taken out and the window partly raised but could not be gotten high enough to admit a person's body.

Another Robbery.
Yesterday morning Mr. W. L. Litaker, who lives on Kerr street, discovered that his house had been entered by burglars. A window which was up told the tale. Two razors and several other articles were missing.

No Change in Cotton.
Cotton is still "standing." The price paid today by the Salisbury buyers is just the same as Saturday, 8.37 1-2. There has been scarcely any on the market today as the farmers seemed inclined to hold their cotton, anticipating a better price.

A Birthday Party.
Miss Willie Aaron celebrated her birthday Saturday evening by inviting twenty of her friends to her home in Brooklyn. The evening was one of enjoyment spent in games and parlor pastimes.

Youthful Runaways.
Will and Frank Ward, sons of F. M. and M. M. Ward, of the Salisbury Cotton Mills, became dissatisfied and left their homes last night. They bought tickets for Danville. Supt. F. M. Ward left this morning for that place to bring them back home.

Got Mad and Drew a Pistol.
This morning Thos. Payne, a white tramp, was beating his way on a freight train out from Salisbury when his presence was discovered by a brakeman. He was ditched and as the train moved on he drew his pistol on the brakeman. It was unloaded. His action was reported and he was arrested by Officer Paec. Mayor Coughenour bound Payne over to court for carrying a concealed weapon. On failure to give bond he was put in jail.

We understand that previous to this difficulty the same man drew his pistol on Mrs. T. E. Nash at her home next to the covered bridge. He should be severely dealt with.

Lemons 15 cents per dozen at N. P. Murphy's.

To Reidsville's Fair.

W. C. Fraley and M. A. Bringle left this morning for Reidsville to attend the county fair there this week. Mr. Fraley has four horses entered for the races, one pacer and one trotter and two runners.

Water Shipped to London.

Maj. Jones, the clever manager of the Connelly Springs Hotel, who is now in the city for a few days, tells us that since June fifteen casks of the celebrated Connelly Springs water has been shipped to London. The beneficent properties of this water are appreciated wherever it is known and orders from such distance attest to this fact.

Dogs Free Unless in Crates.

The Southern has issued a bulletin to this effect:
Dogs belonging to hunters or sportsmen will be carried in their baggage cars free when accompanied by owners, only one dog free for each ticket. When dogs are in crates or cages they will be charged for at excess baggage rates. Persons wishing to travel with their dogs would do well to bear this in mind.

"Of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mary Louise, the sweet little girl of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson, of this city, died last Wednesday in Lancaster S. C., where her parents are visiting. The Ledger, of Lancaster, says:

Mary Louise, the precious little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson, died at 11 o'clock, on Wednesday last, at the home of Col. J. N. Crockett. Had she lived until Monday she would have been two years old. Her death is a severe blow to the devoted young parents whose sad bereavement elicits the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community.

Changes on the Southern.

Several changes will be made on the Southern on November 3:

Nos. 37 and 38, the vestibule on the Western, which has been running during the summer to accommodate travelers will be taken off.

The Jersey City sleeper, now carried by that train will, after November 3rd, be attached to the regular passenger train and carried from here to Richmond on No. 12, the local passenger, as it was before the Western vestibule was put on.

No. 11, on the main line will, after that date, leave Danville on the present schedule but arrive here at 9:15 a. m., instead of 10:20 as now. Taking breakfast here it will leave at 9:35 and arrive in Atlanta on the present schedule.

No. 11 on the Western will leave here at 9:30, one hour earlier than it does now, and arrive in Asheville at 2:30.

No. 11, east of Greensboro, will leave Raleigh at 2 a. m. and arrive at Greensboro at 7:30.

Fillie Denton,

Boston's most noted and popular Palmist and a Physiognomist, is now in this city for one week only. Complete verbal synopsis of the palm, and written chart of characteristics given to each patron. Private sittings 75 cents. Reduced prices to parties of four or more. Will call at your home for parties of eight or more. Hours: 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Can be seen at S. J. Swicegood's, Main St., 2 doors from Fisher St.

Death From Erysipelas.

Mr. L. W. Hardister died at his home near the Vance Mills yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Several days ago Mr. Hardister was bothered with a bone felon on his thumb. He took bone erysipelas which ran up his arm and caused his death.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children. He was fifty-two years old.

The body was taken to Pinehill, 12 miles below New London, yesterday afternoon for burial.
