TELEPHONE NO. 55.

HOME NEWS.

HAPPENINGS THAT ARE OF INTEREST TO SALISBURIANS.

The telephone exchange is putting in five or six new phones.

D. W. Julian has begun opening goods at his new store in East Salisbury.

E. W. Burt & Co., tell you of something nice to-day. Read their new ad.

Mr. A. M. Brown is having improvements made on his house on Main street.

McCubbins, Bostain & Atwell are selling coats for 9 cents. Read their price list on another page.

The Southern has placed a clock in the ladies waiting room at the depot for the accommodation of passengers.

Oscar R. Steed, who formerly lived in Salisbury, but who has for several months been in Washington, has moved to Greensboro.

Ten or twelve young people came up from Charlotte this morning to attend the Mowery-Poole wedding at the Lutheran church tonight.

Improvement is being made on the rear wall of the Kimball house which was damaged by the burning down of the adjoining room several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wade came down from Statesville last night to attend the funeral of Mr. Wade's mother who died at her home near Miller's mill Sunday.

Contractor Leffer has the contract to build the two story residences of W. A. Brandon on Chestnut Hill. Lumber has been placed on the ground for the building.

Mrs. Helen M. Barker, Treasurer of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will speak at the opera house in Salisbury at 8 o'clock p. m., April 16th.

The Ladies of the Salisbury Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Mrs. Barker at Y. M. C. A. hall, Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. A full attendance is specially desired.

A picnic will be held on the Phillips Mountain on Ascension day. A large crowd is expected and a grand time will be given all who attend.

J. M. Johnson, representing the Salisbury Marble Works, left this morning with a handsome line of samples. He will travel through Mecklenburg, Anson and Randolph counties.

The marriage of Miss Roxie Poole to Mr. Charlie Mowery will take place tonight at 7:30 at St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. C. B. King officiating. After the ceremony the young couple will leave on the South bound train for Charlotte, where Mr. Mowery is employed in the machine shops. At Charlotte they will be given a reception.

The Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias is not meeting now because it has no place to drill. As soon as a house can be secured in which to drill the Rank will meet regularly.

The Florida special made its last run south this morning. The railroad officials are preparing a new schedule and will probably have another train to take the place of the Florida special.

There is no need of carrying a long string of figures in your mind. Go to Browns Clothing Company and they will give you prices low down on clothing. Read their new ad in today's WORLD.

Mr. Will Smith, of Chestnut Hill, had the experience of reading his own obituary yesterday. Mr. W. A. Brandon, our informant, got names mixed and gave the name of Will Smith instead of Will Tucker.

Rev. Dr. Jno. C. Kilgo, of Trinity, was in the city last night returning from Hickory, where he preached Sunday. Dr. Kilgo went on to Baltimore last night where he will deliver an address at the Physicians and Surgeons College of that city.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Agnes Watkins, of China Grove, who has frequently visited and has many friends in Salisbury, to Mr. Robert Martin, of Portsmouth, Va. The ceremony is to take place at St. Mark's Lutheran church at China Grove the 29th inst.

The Salisbury Cotton mill closed down this afternoon to allow the employees to attend the funeral of Will Tucker. The services were conducted by Rev. N. S. Jones at the Chestnut Hill Methodist church at 3 o'clock.

The Jr. O. U. A. M., of which he was a member, met at their lodge and marched in a body to the church.

Dividend Declared.

The directors of the Salisbury Cotton mill had their quarterly meeting at the Davis & Wiley bank yesterday afternoon. A dividend of the usual quarterly two per cent was declared payable on demand.

Bring Out the Sprinkler.

Now is the time, if our city fathers intend doing anything in the way of keeping the dust down this summer, for the street sprinkler to be brought out. It would have been of great service to-day. The wind has been high and the dust disagreeable. Let us have the street sprinkler, city fathers.

A Thief Visited a Corn Crib.

Mr. John V. Barringer, who is in the city today, tells us that his neighborhood was visited by thieves Saturday and Sunday nights.

The corn crib of Mr. Henry Yost was visited each night and the thief probably made away with four or five bushels of corn.

Mr. Yost was away from home both nights. His mother and a young man who were there heard the noise made by the thief Sunday night but did not realize until Monday morning that the crib had been visited.

Free Soda to-morrow at W. H. Huff's.

Swift's Silver Leaf is the most popular Lard on the market.

The Feather Weight Stiff Hat is a daisy, at Brown Clothing Co.

The New Brick Yard.

Messrs. Hamilton, Isenhour and Crowell are busy to-day preparing to begin making brick. Their machinery arrived yesterday and is being erected on the opposite side of the railroad from the new shops.

8 to 6.

The upstart nine and a nine from the Vance Mill played a match game of ball at the Knitting Mill grounds yesterday afternoon. The score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the upstart. Another game will be played at Hendersons park Monday.

Miss Overman Dead.

Miss Mary Overman, a young lady about 18 years old, who lived with her parents on Chestnut Hill, died this morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Overman had had a severe attack of measles and this, coupled with meningitis, caused her death. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

The Warehouse Removed—A Brick Store Goes Up.

The warehouse of J. Allen Brown, on Fisher street, will soon be removed and in its stead will be erected a handsome brick store. Mr. Brown is moving his stock of goods today into the warehouse of J. Frank McCubbins.

Found in a Barn.

Revenue officers T. H. Vanderford and W. W. Krider went hunting yesterday and met with fairly good success.

In a barn near Trading Ford the officers found five barrels of whiskey hid away. There were 226 gallons of the liquor and it was sent to Charlotte where it will be sold.

Death at Franklin.

Mrs. Jennie Window, wife of Chas. Window, died at her home in Franklin township yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Window was taken down with the measles about a week ago, which developed into pleurisy. She was about 27 years old and leaves a husband and two children.

The remains were interred in Franklin cemetery this evening.

A Popular Couple To Be Married.

The following invitations have been sent out:

Mr and Mrs. P. M. Bernhardt request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Maud,

to

Mr. Charles F. Reisner,

at St. John's Lutheran Church,

Wednesday morning, April twenty-second at nine forty-five o'clock,

Salisbury, N. C.

1896.

Miss Bernhardt is the eldest daughter of Mr. P. M. Bernhardt, of this city, and combined with her other attractions possesses a kind and amiable disposition which has made her the friend of everyone in Salisbury.

Mr. Reisner has charge of the art department of the Smithdeal Hardware and Furniture Co., and a more popular young man is not known in Salisbury than Charlie Reisner.

We wish the young couple all the happiness and blessings of life.

"Say kid, wanter make a dime?"

"No time now boss, going after free soda at W. H. Huff's."

A Hen House Visited.

A chicken thief visited the hen house of Mr. T. C. Watson last night and succeeded in making away with several fowls. The chickens were missed by Mr. Watson this morning.

Death Saved Him the Journey.

The WORLD yesterday mentioned that Milas Barber, colored, had been taken to the county home. Supt. Brown, of the home, came after Barber but found him in a dying condition and unable to be moved. Barber died last night and was taken out to the home this morning for burial.

Thrown From His Wagon.

Saturday evening a Mr. Thornburg, of South River, was found in the street near Shober's bridge. A large gash was on one hand and in his head there was a deep cut. Both wounds were bleeding freely. He had been thrown from his wagon and the horse had kept going until it was halted near Grant's creek.

Mr. Thornburg received attention from persons living in the neighborhood until his team was brought back, when he was taken home.

The Central Building Soon to be Erected.

Rev. R. W. Boyd was in the city last night on his way home from Wilmington where he had been attending the Presbytery in the Barium Springs Orphanage. Rev. Boyd met with fairly good success. He is raising money for the proposed central building at the orphanage and tells us that he thinks there is enough money in sight to enable work on the proposed building in the near future.

This will be gratifying news to the many friends of the orphans and the orphanage in Salisbury.

Rev. Boyd was here several weeks ago and raised a good amount for this building.

The Fray is On.

Readers of the WORLD will remember a public challenge in last Tuesday's WORLD to Ambrose Hileman, of Cabarrus, and Capt. John Beard, of this city, to a joint discussion on the issues of the day, by Albert Lingle, Esq.

The challenge has been accepted by Mr. Hileman and the following letter tells the story:

EPHESUS, Davie Co., April 14 '96.

MR. JOHN M. JULIAN: Please give notice in your daily and weekly paper that there will be a joint discussion at Fink's and Yost's Grove, on this coming ascension day, it being the 14th day of May, between Ambrose Hileman, of Cabarrus, and A. L. Lingle, of Rowan, upon the issues of the day. Everybody is invited to attend. Free dinner will be given and music will be furnished. A. L. LINGLE.

A Great Hit.

The Langdon Dramatic Company will make its first appearance in our city at the Opera House Tuesday evening April 21st. A feature of their opening will be that everybody holding one of their ladies' tickets will be admitted free of charge, if accompanied by a paid reserved seat ticket. This company is without a doubt the strongest popular priced attraction on the road. The Wilmington Messenger says: "The Langdon Dramatic Company opened to the capacity of the Opera House last evening, in the thrilling comedy drama 'A Noble Outcast,' and made a decided hit from the start. The company is one of the best that has ever played in our city, and we predict crowded house at every performance."

It is a Fake.

Readers of the WORLD will remember a circular letter from the Ex-Slave Owners' Registration Bureau received by Clerk of the Court Watson last week, the contents of which were published in this paper. It turns out, just as we advised our readers, to be a fake as the following from Washington will show.

Postmaster-General Wilson to-day declared that the United States Ex-Slave Owners' Registration Bureau, of Washington, D. C., was in violation of the postal regulations and was not entitled to the privileges of the mails.

This bureau was but recently incorporated under the laws of the District, and the Department made an investigation of its methods of business. It was ascertained that three of the incorporators of the bureau gave Washington as their residence, but none resided in the District at the time of incorporation. They have just established offices here but began doing business in a sub-office in Savannah, Ga., several weeks ago, by sending out literature. The report of the Postoffice Inspector is that the scheme is a fraud pure and simple.
