The boast is already made that Russell is willing and intends to spend $50,000 to secure his election. No amount of money can prevent Judge Russell from being shown up in his true light as the stirrer of strife and sower of discord, and when this is done, it is very little his money can avail him.

Oh, the ingratitude of the world! The Charlotte News had a talk Saturday with several Populists from Cabarrus county, and they express a determination to dispense with the services of the Honorable G. Ed. Kestler, present county treasurer of Cabarrus. Says the News, referring to a conversation with a prominent Populist from Poplar Tent:

"Kestler, he says, is too noisy, talks too much and says things that he ought not say. 'We can get along much better without him and his paper,' said the Pop."

Mr. A. L. Swinson between whom and State Senator Mewbourn an animated controversy has been going on through the Progressive Farmer for several weeks, has written another open letter to Mr. Mewbourn. He is more aggressive than in his previous letters and deals some straight blows at the enemy. Senator Mewbourn, it will be remembered, stands for co operation on the terms proffered by the Republicans, while Mr. Swinson is just as much opposed as the former is in favor of it. Among other things he says:

"Senator, this is more a matter of cast, fixed by one's surroundings and associations, and as mine has been that of middle of the-road Populists, I abhor the idea of being brought up through my representatives by use of goldbug currency, more than I do the theft of my ballot; and if I must choose between those two evils, would clear my honor by refusing to be sold and cast my ballot for something, though I did run the risk of its being stolen. Kind o' usen to that you see, Senator.

You may say, you don't know anything about Republican reciprocationists buying up Populists to go to Raleigh, but, I answer, that don't matter, you are aiding and abetting the conditions they would set up and hold yourself ready to applaud, if reciprocation results."

And then, as a finishing touch, Mr. Swinson concludes with the following spirited paragraph:

"All Populists are not fools nor prey for Republican jackals forever at their demand."

Met Death With a Smile.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 25.—Private advices received in this city Saturday night by the steamer Mascotte tell of the execution of Manuel Martinez Ortega, at the Cabanas prison the morning of the 5th, charged with rebelling against the Spanish government. Ortega was a youth of 18 years. He was taken out of his cell on the evening of the 14th and the death sentence read to him. He was then placed in a room called the chapel where he remained until 7 o'clock on the morning of the 15th, when he was led out to his death. He was placed in a kneeling position with his back to his executioners. The first volley failed to kill and the second was necessary. He met death smiling.

On the 15th, Francisco Boca Landro, 72 years of age and owner of a farm in the Guara district, and his three colored servants, were put in the Cabanas prison. Boca Landro is charged with failing to obey Weyler's orders requiring citizens to reside in fortified towns. Boca Landro is quite deaf, entirely crippled and almost blind. One of his servants was accused of knowing of the whereabouts of the insurgents and to compel him to talk, they placed a rope around his head above his temples and twisted it until the scalp was cut all around his head.

A Lawsuit 300 Years Old.

The little community of Burgsinn, in the Bavarian district of Lower Franconia, will shortly be able to celebrate the not over-veniable tercentenary jubilee of a lawsuit. On the 21st of June, 1596, this community brought suit at the imperial court, then sitting in Speyer, against the Barons von Thunngen, concerning a magnificent oak and beech forest of nearly 8,000 hectares in extent, which may to-day be estimated worth about 2,000,000 marks, and which both parties claim as their own. It speaks volumes for the indomitable grit of these peasants, who despite their poverty, through three long centuries, generation after generation, managed to put up among themselves enough money to carry on the suit, and who, in view of a recent decree, may ultimately consider themselves the beati possidentes. A final session has been fixed for June 10.

Hostess—Well, there is one very creditable thing I can say about my husband. We have lived together over 20 years now, and during all that time I have never heard him swear once. What do you think of that?

Guest—I think it the most remarkable case of self-control I ever heard of.—Boston Courier.

In the case of the Meyer brothers vs. Walter Richards, from Louisiana, for recovery of money paid for illegally re-issued State bonds, the Supreme court of the United States yesterday reversed the verdict of the lower court and ordered a judgment for the plaintiffs. The bonds had been fraudulently sold to Richards by A. E. Burke, formerly treasurer of Louisiana and were sold by Richards to the Meyers.

He is now Cured, and He Thanks God and P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy, For It.

Mr. George Briggs, of Moore, Okla., suffered almost indescribable torment for three long years. Neuralgia held him captive. The right side of his face was so badly affected that the slightest touch would cause the unfortunate man intense agony. For several weeks he could open his mouth just wide enough to be fed with liquid nourishment, and in this manner life was sustained. Read the following extract from his letter: "Truth is stranger than Fiction."

NEURALGIA, CATARRH AND RHEUMATISM COMPLETELY CURED.

George Briggs, of Moore, Oklahoma, writes that P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him of catarrh, facial neuralgia and rheumatism, after three years of intense suffering. The pain lay in his cheek bone and temple, down the right side of his face, along his upper lip, and from the slightest touch he suffered agonies for weeks at a time. Could only open his mouth wide enough to admit a teaspoonful, and any acid in his food would put him in torture. He had a consultation of the best physicians in Texas, but all to no purpose. Catarrh and rheumatism were also causing him much trouble, until he tried P. P. P. He says he is well and will swear that there are no cases of neuralgia, catarrh and rheumatism, no matter how chronic or how old the cases are, that P. P. P. will not make a total cure of.

Mr. Briggs winds up his testimony by saying he thanks God and our medicine, P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, for the great cure.

Kidney troubles, if neglected, bring about serious and painful and very often fatal results. P. P. P. removes the irregularities, and cures the diseased parts.

Dyspepsia and indigestion, skin and blood diseases, can be speedily removed by P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy. Ladies, take P. P. P. and rid your face of pimples, blotches, freckles, yellow or muddy skin, wrinkles and vulgar redness.
