

THE EVENING WORLD.

LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN SALISBURY. LARGEST DAILY PAPER IN THE CITY.

JNO. M. JULIAN, Editor and Proprietor.

SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JUNE 19th, 1896.

VOL. 1. NO. 242.

EVENING WORLD

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

LEROY SMITH, - LOCAL REPORTER
TELEPHONE NO. 55.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT.

COMMERCIAL AND MANUFACTURERS CLUB OBSERVER.

Temperature; 7 a. m., 70; 2 p. m., 85
WEATHER FORECAST FOR TO-DAY:
Fair tonight and Saturday warmer.

IT'S LOCAL.

SOME OF THESE ITEMS WILL BE OF INTEREST TO YOU.

Frank, the little son of Luther Miller, is quite sick.

Little William, son of Hon. John S. Henderson, who has been quite ill, is improving slowly.

Baker and Neave have a contract to roof the stores of Woodson and Bernhardt on Fisher street.

Section Master J. H. Iddings is kept at home by a sprained back which was hurt while he was lifting timber.

The Fly By Night Folly Company will have an important business meeting at H. M. Wright's on Council street tonight.

Manager Spencer is adding improvements to the Central hotel continually. He is now having awnings put up at the windows.

Mrs. C. H. Holmes received word yesterday that her father, J. D. Haden, of Sapona, was quite sick. Mrs. Holmes left yesterday afternoon for Sapona.

Several deaf and dumb children were in the city last night returning home from the institute at Morganton. They go home to spend the summer vacation.

Worlds were in demand at the depot last night by the travelling public, who were anxious to hear the convention news. The supply was exhausted early in the evening.

Mr. W. P. Tinsley, of the firm of Tinsley & Seay, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Tinsley has done considerable evangelistic work in previous years.

Mr. W. J. Walker, proprietor of the Rowan House will soon make further improvements than those already noted on the property. Sewerage will be put in and the house will be fixed up in first class shape.

R. E. Austin, of Albemarle, who has been in Charlotte several weeks, was here today returning home. While in Charlotte Mr. Austin had an operation performed on his forehead which kept him in that city longer than he expected to stay.

The Poets and Author's Club will meet with Miss Meroney today at 5 o'clock and will continue Mrs. Browning as their study and also look into the poetry of the late Edwin Fuller, of North Carolina. All the members will kindly return to the club the Bookman, so the copies can be given to other members.

The Salisbury Knights of Pythias have returned from the meeting of the Grand Lodge at Asheville and report a grand time. Dr. Cicero Barker voices the sentiments of those who attended from here when he says they were as royally entertained by Asheville as any people ever were at the hands of another. Salisbury and Asheville Knights are now bound in ties of friendship that can never be severed.

To those who never enjoyed life before, get Clearance Sale bargains and enjoy life more. Go to I. Lichtenstein's.

Jim Heilig A Vice-president.

Jas. D. Heilig, of this city, has been elected one of the Vice-Presidents of the General Reunion Association of Roanoke College students. Roanoke is Mr. Heilig's alma mater.

A New Order.

Mr. R. L. Johnson, of Gastonia, is in the city today organizing a lodge of the "Improved Order Heptasophs." This order is nearly similar to the Royal Arcanum and the chief feature is its insurance. Mr. Goodman is meeting with success.

Rev. Stickley Declines.

Rev. R. V. Stickley, of Enochville, this county, who had been called to the principalship of Mt. Amoena seminary went to Mt. Pleasant yesterday to consult with Rev. C. L. T. Fisher, says the Concord Standard. Rev. Stickley has decided to decline the call, as he prefers the ministerial work to this one of more prominence.

Overcome By Heat.

There came near being a death at the barbecue at Dunn's mountain Wednesday evening. Mr. W. L. Harrison, a shoemaker of this city, had been employed to roast the pig.

Mr. Harrison is subject to asthma and while standing near the fire was seized with a violent attack of this ailment. For a while it appeared as though he would die but he was hastily conveyed to town in a buggy and physicians called in. Mr. Harrison has about recovered from the attack now.

Ladies Undershirts 4 cents each. Clearance Sale at I. Lichtenstein's.

Leo Wheat Enticing the Georgians.

Prof. Leo Wheat arrived in the city this morning and will spend some time with his sister, Mrs. F. E. Shober. Of Prof. Wheat the DeKalb New Era, Decatur, of June 11, 1896, says:

On last Friday evening a delightful lawn party was given at the home of Colonel M. A. Candler for the benefit of the Donald Fraser library. Chinese lanterns were hung from the trees, tables for refreshments were placed in every nook and corner of the spacious grounds, and to add to the enjoyment of the occasion Mr. Leo Wheat, of Richmond, Va., an ex-confederate soldier and noted pianist, rendered some delicious music. The generosity of Mr. Wheat in giving the boys a benefit recital deserves especial mention.

Several times during the past two or three weeks this wonderful musical genius has given piano recitals at Mr. G. A. Ramspeck's and Colonel Milton A. Candler's. Rarely is such music heard. His hearers seem never to grow tired, but will sit for hours listening, almost entranced, as this gifted man plays, his very soul seeming to be in his finger tips.

First we hear an entrancing waltz, then the sweetest lullaby, then the inimitable negro song, when without even shifting his seat the player passes on into the grandest symphonies of the masters.

People who have not heard Leo Wheat have missed the rarest treat. Those who have heard him most seem the most eager to hear him again, and all come away delighted. Mr. Wheat has already a national reputation and many of his compositions find ready sale among the lovers of music.

Fancy figured Silks for Shirt waists. 25c. per yard. Clearance Sale at I. Lichtenstein's.

During the summer months only parties leaving orders at J. S. Marables market on Saturday, the same will be filled on Sunday morning. Meat will be kept cold in his refrigerator until delivered.

Eight out of every ten beaves killed by Jackson are steers. This is the sweetest and best meat.

Rev. Van Deventer Called.

Rev. R. Van Deventer, of Burlington, preached a very able sermon at the Baptist church last night. Rev. Van Deventer has been called by the congregation to supply this charge and he now has the call under consideration.

Mr. Nail Critically Ill.

Mr. D. Miller received a letter yesterday from Mrs. Miller, who is visiting relatives in Mocksville, stating that Mr. A. M. Nail, of that place, who is well known here, was dangerously ill and not expected to live. Word was received this morning by Mr. Miller that Mr. Nail's condition was somewhat improved.

The Injured.

Charlie Pace, of the Southern shops, is kept from his work by a sore hand. It was caught by parts of a machine and a piece of the flesh was torn off.

J. K. Coit, of the Salisbury Cotton Mills, whose fingers were mashed several weeks ago, has his hand out of the bandage, the figure having gotten alright again.

Pride and Ambition Vs. Ignorance and Superstition.

At the public discussion of the debating society last night the question "RESOLVED, that pride and ambition have caused more misery to the human race than ignorance and superstition," was discussed. A. S. Heilig Esq. was chairman of the meeting. After a spicy discussion the question was decided in favor of the negative.

Davidson Wants Overman for Governor.

It is with no small measure of gratification that the WORLD has re-printed the numerous favorable suggestions of Hon. Lee S. Overman's name for Governor. The Lexington Dispatch of this week says:

"We are watching our exchanges to know who is being talked of for Governor. They are rather careful to avoid the subject, it seems. Why can't we get Hon. Lee S. Overman to make the race? He is a man of fine presence, clean record and an able canvasser. The Dispatch is for Overman and so is the county. Now let others speak."

Fine Lawns 2 1-2 cents a yard. Clearance Sale at I. Lichtenstein's.

A Drunken Woman Escapes From the Boose.

Irene Beck, colored, was placed in the calaboose yesterday evening for being drunk and disorderly. The cell had an inmate so Irene was placed in the passage way. She did not like the idea of staying in the boose so she crawled through the transom above the door and made her escape.

She left town, going toward the new shop, and attracting attention as she went through the streets by her loud cursing and actions. She returned to the city, however, last night and was again placed in the boose to await trial.

The Clearance Sale is finishing the work in the way of moving goods at I. Lichtenstein's.

Negligee Shirts from 50c. to $2.00. Best assortment and best quality on the market.

SMOOT BROS. & ROGERS.

It is generally conceded by all that R. W. Price, has the very best beef and at the lowest prices at his "up to date market." Call and be convinced.

Botherhood Overalls are endorsed and worn by all orders of working men. We have exclusive sale of the same in this section.

SMOOT BROS. & ROGERS.

Crash Suits and Flax Suits are still to be found in sizes to fit you at SMOOT BROS. & ROGERS.

There is no rubber to chew in Jackson's refrigerator beef.

Leading Men Talk.

They Tell The World what They Think About the Nominations.

Postmaster-General Wm. Wilson's Views.

The Distinguished West Virginia Tariff Reform Leader was Here and Talked.

SOME THINK MCKINLEY'S NAME WAS RUSHED

THE WORLD INTERVIEWS THE LEADING MEN OF DIFFERENT PARTIES ON WHAT THEY THINK OF MCKINLEY AND HOBART'S NOMINATION.

Hon. William L. Wilson, Postmaster General in Cleveland's Cabinet.

Hon. William L. Wilson, of West Virginia, the great tariff reformer whose tariff bill of several years ago won fame for its author and who has all along been the opposite of McKinley on the great question of tariff, was in Salisbury last night when the news of the nomination of McKinley and Hobart reached here.

Mr. Wilson talked to a WORLD man about the nominations while waiting for the train to Washington. Said he:

"I am not at all surprised at the nomination of McKinley for president; that had been expected all along. But I rather thought that Levi P. Morton of New York, would be the man for the second place. I don't know why Hobart was put in."

Mr. Wilson was returning from Nashville where he had been to deliver an address before the Vanderbilt University, and talked of the pleasant trip he had had. He is very much pleased with the scenery of North Carolina and Tennessee and expressed the desire to return to this section of the country when opportunity affords.

F. E. Shober, member of staff of New York World, now on a visit here.

"The result is not at all a surprise. McKinley has been the only choice for weeks and months. The New York World confidently named him long ago. As to the second place on the ticket no one is or ever has been particularly interested. That the Republican party should declare for sound money is not to be wondered at. To have done otherwise would have been equivalent to a total surrender of the whole vote of the powerful East. That the party has, however, thrown a well-battered slice to the silverites is manifest in the small following given apparently to Senator Teller when he 'bolted.'"

Prof. B. A. Johnson, (col.) Republican.

"I am satisfied that the nomination of Maj. McKinley by the Republican convention is equivalent to an election. No man in the country is more popular with the masses and in both parties than Mr. McKinley. His record is clean, and he is said to be personally an amiable man and entirely without bitterness in his nature. This, with his great ability, makes us unequivocally in favor of the man from Ohio. We cannot say that we are so well pleased with the nomination of Mr. Hobart, of New Jersey, for we have never heard of the man before and would have preferred H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, or Governor Bradley, of Kentucky. We think the South with a little careful nursing will poll a respectable majority, in at least the border States. However, on the whole, we are satisfied with the work of the convention and shall give our support to the ticket."

G. A. Bingham, Republican Candidate for State Treasurer in 1892.

"Maj. McKinley was my first choice for the nominee for President. I am well pleased with Hobart for the Vice-Presidency. The platform is satisfactory."

Hon. Lee S. Overman, Democrat.

"In my opinion McKinley is the weakest man the Republicans could have nominated, Reed not excepted. McKinleyism and protection are synonymous and the people have repudiated them once under a deluge of ballots. Protection has been chiefly instrumental in amassing colossal fortunes for the few. I do not believe that McKinley can be elected."

Samuel Archer, Editor Watchman, Populist.

"McKinley won the nomination in a straight fight with the people of the Republican party and his henchmen held the convention rigidly up to the work. If the free silver people would now unite with the People's Party they could down the Republicans. There is no other way to do it that I can see."

Edwin Shaver, one of the most prominent Prohibitionists in North Carolina.

"If I were a Republican I would have been for Morton, of New York, for President, or Allison, of Iowa. Never would I vote for McKinley through choice. He does not seem to have the courage of his convictions, is a straddler on the financial question and high protective tariff. The gold plank is the best thing in the platform. If the Democrats will declare against free and unlimited coinage of silver at Chicago and against a high protective tariff, I think it will add immensely to their strength and chances of success."

M. L. Bean, Republican.

"I do not think the Republicans could have done better. McKinley is the strongest man they could have nominated and the platform is sound."

Mayor W. C. Coughenour, Democrat.

"I think that McKinley and Hobart make a mighty weak ticket."

Henry Durham, (col.) silver Republican from Utah.

"The McKinley men had things in their own hands and rushed the convention. The result does not suit me very well as I am for silver."

Hon. John S. Henderson, ex-Democratic member of Congress.

"McKinley and Hobart are logical and typical Republican candidates. The country is to be made prosperous by taxing foreign imported products. This might be a good thing if the foreigner paid the tax. Unfortunately whatever the duty, however high, the tax is paid by the American consumer. The American people are opposed to McKinleyism and McKinley can be defeated if the opposition to the ideas that he represents will unite their forces and solidly oppose his election. Much will depend on the action of the Democratic convention at Chicago. In the meantime some estimate may be formed of the trend of public opinion. McKinley has been nominated on a sound money platform to catch the votes of the business men of the country but as he himself has never favored the monetary views of this new platform of his party, it remains to be seen whether he will obtain the support of those who distrust him but who approve the financial plank of the Republican platform. The success of McKinleyism will not bring prosperity to the country. There will be no permanent prosperity, in my opinion, until the Democratic party obtains undisputed control of both Houses of Congress, with a President and Congress in perfect accord. Let every Democrat hope for the best and do all in his power to defeat McKinley and Hobart."

Don't be one of the last, you might not have another opportunity for a long time to come. Bear in mind Lichtenstein's Clearance Sale.

A choice lot of Country Hams at WOODSON & BERNHARDT'S

English Gloria Ladies' Umbrellas 50c each. Clearance Sale at Lichtenstein's.

Call at Washington building on Main street

Where is found fresh meats both tender and sweet. Its being found there is no longer a parable

As no other kind is ever sold by MARABLE.

Extra good wine, straw colored and red at D. M. Miller's for $1.00 per gallon. Sample can be had at his store.

Fresh summer cheese at T. M. McCulloh's.

FOR RENT:—Good dwelling on Fulton street.

M. L. BEAN.

FOR SALE.—A pure Jersey cow (registered) and full blooded calf (three weeks old. Cow will give from 3 1-2 to 4 gallons daily. Apply F. E. SHOBER.

Ask your grocer for Swift's Silver Leaf Lard.