The political prophet is a back number. He has predicted every thing that was wrong and nothing right this year. His day of usefulness is evidently a thing of the past.

Who ever expected to see the day when the chairman of the Democratic State executive committee would be found hobnobbing with Marion Butler? But such was the news that came from Raleigh Saturday. Verily it is an age of surprises.

Money may be the best part of old man Mark Hanna, but the way he has gone to work to reconcile the Republican factions in New York proves him an adroit politician. He and Tom Platt smiled for an hour or more at each other Saturday and the generally accepted belief is that Platt will discontinue his war on his Republican enemies in New York until after the election. If he has induced Tom Platt to sheath the knife, old man Hanna is more than we counted.

A little daughter of Mr. Lewis Dayton, an old and much respected citizen of Barnitz, Pa., occasionally has trouble with her stomach which gives her considerable distress. In speaking of it Mr. Dayton said: "As soon as she has an attack we give her a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and it has never failed to remedy her promptly. We all use it in our family with the same good results." For sale by James Plummer, Druggist.

SENATOR PRITCHARD'S REASON.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer Senator Pritchard gives as his reason for supporting McKinley and the entire Republican aggregation that he must support the Republican candidates in order to escape the innumerable iniquities which are the natural result of Democratic supremacy. For instance a force bill, or at least we presume that Mr. Pritchard had not forgotten that Maj. McKinley supported the force bill, an act which if a law would put every Southern State under bayonet. But laying this aside Mr. Pritchard has argued for free silver as one of the vital questions before the American people. He has given it more prominence in his speeches during the past year than any other question of public interest. These years, we well remember, were campaign years, when the orators waxed eloquent to the farmers knowing full well that the farmer vote would cut no inconsiderable figure in determining who the congress men and State officers should be. But this year conditions have changed. Senator Pritchard finds himself confronted with the perplexing problem of choosing between the favor of his State and adherence to his past declarations or McKinley. He has chosen McKinley and repudiated his record of the past two years. He must give some better reasons for his acceptance of the new faith and repudiation of the old than he has given to the Observer's correspondent or else the people will certainly repudiate him. He has helped educate them in their ardent advocacy of free silver and it is too late for him to try and undo his work. Senator Pritchard must make better excuses or the case stands.

It appears now that nothing will satisfy the revised edition of Democracy but fusion with the Populists. We do not assume the guise of an adviser but firmly believe that when the Democratic party of North Carolina seeks another bottom for its tub it takes a long step towards disorganizing the party. And what is more we believe that such wholesale scratching would result on both sides from an electoral division as proposed that the McKinley electors would win the day, chairman Manly and his committee to the contrary, notwithstanding.

When She Would Marry.

This is what a young lady is reported recently to have said apropos of marriage: "Well, no, I don't know if I would marry for money alone, but if a man had plenty of money, allied to a sweet disposition, and a mustache that curled at both ends, and nice blue eyes, and a social position; if he had a distinguished status in a profession, or even as a merchant, and his father was rich and his mother and sisters aristocratic, and he wanted to marry me, and he would promise to let me have my own way in everything, and keep me liberally supplied with money, and have a splendidly furnished town house and a handsome country residence, was liberal about diamonds and other gems, also about the milliner, never grumbling, and I really and truly loved him, I shouldn't consider marriage a drawback."—Frank Harrison's Magazine.

Some years ago when suffering with an uncommonly severe attack of diarrhea, Mr. W. B. Guinnip, of Atco, Pa., received through the mail a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He says: "I found it to be one of the most effective remedies I ever used. It gave me almost immediate relief. It has no superior and I think no equal. No bad effects follow the use of this remedy. It is pleasant to take when reduced with water and sweetened. Children like it. It never fails. It is the most perfect remedy ever produced for bowel complaints." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by James Plummer, Druggist.

Lafayette Parke.—So Measurer lost his situation at that dry goods store?

Ellicott Squeers—Yes he was too brusque. They looked on him as a counter-irritant.—Buffalo Times.

The people have long since learned that the most disagreeable medicines are not necessarily the best. In fact, as a rule, they are not. What is wanted is something mild and sure, such as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. That is really pleasant to take when reduced with water and sweetened. Then it is acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful remedy in the world for bowel complaints. Ask any number of druggists for the best remedy they have for diarrhea and fully nine out of ten will recommend Chamberlain's. In speaking of this medicine, Mr. B. B. Buffin, of Friendsville, Susquehanna Co., Pa., says: "We have used it in our family for pain in the stomach, colic and diarrhea and found it to be a most effective remedy." For sale by James Plummer, Druggist.

Wiggles—There's one good thing about Hicks. He is always ready to admit it when he is wrong.

I don't think it is a good thing. It doesn't seem to trouble him a bit. Somerville Journal.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at T. F. Klutz & Co. drugstore. Regular size 50c. and $1.

He read from Hamlet to his sweetheart: "Or if thou wilt needs marry, marry a fool."

"Very well," she said sweetly, and the announcement was made as soon as the "fool" had seen the old folks.—Detroit Free Press.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters: 50c. and $1 per bottle at T. F. Klutz & Co. Druggist.

"We left our country for our country's good" is an expression first found in the prologue to a play presented by convicts in Sydney. The prologue was by George Barrington, himself a convict, and the allusion was, it is said, keenly appreciated by the convict actors and the audience.
