THE CONEY ISLAND FEET. NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The Coney Island Jockey Club begins its autumn meet to-day. It is a great event in futurity. It rained all last night and there were showers this morning. A large number of starters will be on even terms with the likelihood of a fluke victory. Never was the field so moderate. Grantor seems a slight favorite. The horse that gets off first will win.

(By Telegraph to The World.)

THE END IN SIGHT. PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.—Perhaps the only point yet unsettled at the conference between the strike leaders and coal operators is that each side will agree upon arbitration provided the men go to work first at its own terms. The conference resumed to-day. There is hope that something definite is to be decided upon before the decision is concluded.

MRS. JAMES DEAD.

MRS. W. M. JAMES, A FORMER RESIDENT OF SALISBURY, DIES IN MARION.

Mrs. W. M. James, a former resident of Salisbury, whose husband was one time express agent here, died at Marion Saturday.

Mrs. James had been in bad health for over a year and her death was not unexpected.

She crossed the dark stream as placidly as she had lived through suffering, and she died resignedly.

Mrs. James was 54 years old and leaves two children, Mrs. W. C. Atwell, of Winston, and Harvey P. James, of Marion. The funeral services took place at Marion Sunday afternoon.

Concord Wants A Game.

Mr. Preston Deaton, manager of the Concord base-ball team, telephoned Walter Woodson to-day in reference to a game of base ball to be played in Concord to-morrow.

They had arranged two games with Greensboro but Greensboro failed to show up this evening, consequently they want to play Salisbury to-morrow. They offer all expenses for ten men and guarantee good treatment while there. This is a good offer and if our boys can get off for a day we see no reason why they should not go down.

A Sudden Illness.

Mr. Chan Fries was taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon at Spencer and had to be taken home. He was very sick all last night but is somewhat improved to-day. When the sickness came upon him Mr. Fries was on top of a roof.

Market Square any place where you can get anything you want.

A MISSING WITNESS.

ED BARBER'S CASE IS IN SUSPENSE UNTIL A WITNESS WHO IS MISSING, RETURNS.

Solicitor Holton notified the court yesterday afternoon that the case of Ed Barber could not proceed, as Cowan Barber, a very important witness, was absent.

Counsel for Mr. Barber at once began making inquiry and learned that the missing witness was in Watauga county. To have postponed the case would have meant Mr. Barber's continued incarceration in the county jail until the November term of court, as his is not a bailable offense. So they immediately had a subpoena issued for Mr. Barber and Deputy Sheriff Robert Monroe left this morning for Watauga county to bring Mr. Barber down. He will probably return about Thursday night or Friday morning with his man.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

DE. CHENAULT'S RESIDENCE AT CLEVELAND STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

The storm of yesterday afternoon played havoc in different portions of the county yesterday.

As related elsewhere in to-day's WORLD, the hail storm damaged standing crops considerably in different portions of the county.

At Cleveland the rain and hail was not all to be feared, for there was a very violent electrical storm. Lightning struck the residence of Dr. J. P. Chenault while all were away from home except the cook. She was only dazed, but the plastering was knocked down from the wall and the residence otherwise defaced.

Parties from the county report a general electrical storm.

An Early Breakfast.

Mrs. E. W. Burt invited a number of friends around to her home on Fulton street to take breakfast at 7:15 o'clock this morning and meet two friends, Miss Mamie Norris and Miss Besie Grey, of Winston, who were expected from Waynesville on the early train.

The young ladies, for some unknown reason, failed to put in their appearance, consequently the party adjourned to the house unaccompanied by the visitors. Those present were treated to an elegant breakfast at the appointed hour, notwithstanding the disappointment. The following were present: Miss Helen Bruton, Messrs. Walter Linton, James Gaither, Walter Woodson, C. B. Jordan and Mr. E. W. Burt. Misses Gray and Norris will probably arrive in the city tonight.

Electric Headlights.

The Charlotte News learns that "the Southern Railway will in a short while inaugurate another system of headlights. The old style kerosene oil lamp is to be put aside and the new, up-to-date electric flashlight is to take its place. The electric headlight is something new to the South. All the big roads North have thoroughly tested them and find they are so far superior to the old ones that they are now used altogether. The Southern is to be commended for all such enterprise."

An Auction House.

Capt. J. R. Nicholas will shortly open up a big auction house in his old stand on Main street, across from the Lutheran church. Capt. Nicholas will open up next week and such a business as he proposes to conduct will doubtless prove profitable. The Captain will personally conduct the business.

New Treasurer to be Elected.

Rev. Dr. J. Rumpel left this morning for Charlotte to attend a meeting of the board of regents of Barium Springs Orphanage. The board will elect a successor to their deceased treasurer, Mr. John E. Oates, of Charlotte.
