China Grove Items.

Our little village is still on a big boom. Messrs. L. S. Overman and Col. F. E. Shober of your city were here last night. And although there had been but about two days notice a very large crowd from far and near were present to listen to the burning words of our distinguished leaders of our Champions democracy. A few Republicans and a number of sorehead independents were present, and we felt for them as they would occasionally sneak off one by one under the severe Castigation of the fearless and brilliant speakers.

Some of the independents had the audacity to try to make a defence and bought out the "Hon" Jake Misenheimer, Singing Master. After the audience listened to him long enough to become utterly disgusted they rose up as one man and left. W. E.

Fowle was received by a large crowd and escorted through the principle streets Dockery comes in on the 2.30 train but had no crowd and band to escort him around. The speaking began at 3.30, each had one hour for his speech and twenty minutes for a reply. Fowle struck him on every side and made him own up to voting for a negro in place of a white man. It is estimated that over five thousand heard the speaking.

Funeral and Obituary.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Nancy Rawson, wife of Daniel B. Rawson, were held at the Harrisville's hoolhouse Aug 22nd at 10 a. m. Consoling remarks were made by Elders C. F. Middleton, D. H. Peery, Joseph Taylor, Moroni Brown, Joseph Parry and D. M. Stuart.

A large cortege of mourning relations followed the remains to Ogden Cemetery, where all that remained of Mother Rowson was consigned to its last resting place.

Mother Rawson was born in Davidson Co., N. C., March 26th, 1829. Her parents' name, were Phillip and Obedience Boss. Her father died in 1835, leaving her mother with nine children, six sons and three daughters. Her mother emigrated with her children to Brown County Ills, in 1838, where she and her family allied themselves with the Mormon Church and gathered to Nauvoo in 1842. At the time of Joseph Smith's death the deceased was employed as a servant girl at Colonel Williams' the man who led the mob that killed the Prophet. She cooked the dinner for the mob before they started to the jail. Knowing that she was a Mormon girl, Col Williams refused to let her go outside of the house. She finally succeeded, however, in getting away from the house, by going through the window. She remained with her mother until 1846, when the family left Nauvoo with fleeing Saints. They arrived in the Valley in 1849. Deceased was married to her husband the same fall. She is the mother of eight daughters, all of whom are married, and two sons. One daughter and one son are dead.

The Cotton Bagging Difficulty.

A difficulty has arisen in the matter of using cotton cloth for bagging purposes for cotton in the fact that insurance men refuse to insure cotton so baled. It is stated that in consequence of this cotton presented at the Wilmington market was not merchantable, on account of being baled with white homespun instead of the standard jute bagging. The buyers are afraid to handle the cotton in consequence of the liability to fire. The farmers seem to be confronted by a problem but they will solve it in time. -New-Obs.

Durham Recorder: From every section comes reports that the storm a few days ago greatly damaged the crops. Tobacco was bruised badly corn blown down, fodder torn to pieces.

The tobacco editor of the Richmond Whig says the tobacco men of that city will hereafter refuse to buy tobacco on order, on those markets where the warehouse men are allowed to bid on tobacco sold. This question will be thoroughly discussed at the Morehead Convention. They will probably take some decided steps on the subject.

The annual fair of the Catawba Industrial Association will be held at Hickory, September 19th to 21st inclusive. On the first day of opening, Fowle and Dockery will meet in joint debate, an immense crowd is anticipated. The exhibits promise to surpass any former occasion.

An average amount of rainfall is reported from all districts. All crops have been very favorably affected.

In the Eastern District there was an average amount of temperature and sunshine affecting all crops favorably. The temperature in the Central and Western Districts was slightly below the average, the cool nights being somewhat injurious to crops. There was an average amount of sunshine in both of these districts. The general effect upon crops was favorable.

Lenoir Topic: Caldwell county has shipped more than 20,000 bushels of corn this year, and there is plenty of old corn yet in the county with the prospect of one of the most abundant crops we have had for years. Another sign of prosperity is that the home production of bacon last year was more than enough to supply the local demand. If the farmers in every county would put in more grain and less cotton and tobacco the times would not be as hard.

Read and Ponder.

The undersigned, having bought a Davis Sewing Machine, have authorized me to use their name endorsing the Davis as being one of the best and finest, and most simple and light running machines they ever saw, and that they give entire satisfaction in every way. I respectfully refer to any and all for reference.

SALISBURY CITY. J. C. Lowe, Thos Harrison, D M Miller, E F Shuman, S A Shuman, S O Crosby, A L Buchanan, D B Parrish, J M Hisley, M T Hayes, Mrs Coas Price, C A Fry, Mrs Rouben Holmes, J C Price, C W Crews, W F Elliott, J M Horab, Mrs Fannie Miller, W H Keatler, the Misses Rathledge, Dr Griffith.

A W Risher, H Clay Thomas, Cal Mingers, J L Holdshouser, Emanuel Miller, I Lyerly, Frank Robinson, T H Johnson, J F Link, W F Linebarrier, M C Eller, J M Kerns, J D Keechie.

Having owned several Sewing Machines during the past twenty years, and all of them good serviceable articles, also having seen most all of the best sewing machines in the market and examined the work performed by experts, I have come to the conclusion that for ordinary family sewing, whether rough and rugged seams or requiring the most artistic skill, the New Improved Davis is a head of all, and is now in use in my family.

JAMES BURREK. Salisbury, N. C., Aug 29, 1888.

A few months ago my wife bought a high arm Davis Sewing Machine from Mr C Oliver Powell, giving in part payment another machine of a very popular brand. Her opinion is that for range of work, ease of operation, and the general efficiency of the work the Davis far surpasses any machine which she has ever seen. I know that the machine is run with much less fatigue than any I have ever examined. Respectfully, J R CAMPBELL, M. D. Salisbury, N. C., Aug 23rd '88

Mr. C. Oliver Powell. DEAR SIR—The Davis Sewing Machine, bought of you about six months ago, has given me entire satisfaction, and has pleased me far beyond my anticipations. I find it to be one of the most simple, easy running machines I have ever seen. I have used several standard makes and would not give it for any I ever saw. Of late years my husband has refused to allow me to operate on machines until I got a Davis, and now I do all my own work and can run the Davis all day and never get tired, it runs so easy and light, and would advise all who contemplate buying a new machine, to at least try and test a Davis before they purchase. Mrs C H SMITH.

About four months ago my wife exchanged a popular and standard sewing machine to Mr Powell for a Davis, which she has found exactly as represented and highly satisfactory. We have used various standard machines, and for light running and perfect working attachments we consider the "Davis" has no equal. Very respy yours, J Z SCHULTZ, of Schultz & Van Vyck. Salisbury, N. C., Aug 22, 1888.

I have been using the Davis Sewing Machine for six months, it is rapid in its work and in every respect satisfactory. Mrs JEROME DOWD.

A NORTH CAROLINA Lady's Enterprise.

MRS. GRIER'S REAL HAIR RESTORER. Presents its claim by calling your attention to the fact that it has been thoroughly tested by our own ladies and gentlemen and is accompanied by testimonials from North Carolinians only, that you may once see the genuineness of them. Also that it is recommended by medical men as perfectly harmless. It is not a dye or renewer of color; but a medicine for the scalp, which thoroughly ridis it of dust, dandruff, itching and eruptions peculiar to it, and restores the scalp to a healthy, comfortable condition. THE FALLING OUT OF HAIR, is completely checked by three week's daily use of the RESTORER, and a suit of new natural hair immediately and invariably replaces the lost except where the roots of the hair are dead. It is particularly useful in the nursery, as it cleanses children's heads quickly and easily, and is used with perfect safety upon infants from their birth.
