LATER FROM EUROPE—ARRIVAL OF THE ASIATIC.
Baltimore, October 19.
The British mail steam ship Asia, Capt. E. G. Lott, has arrived from Liverpool, which port she left on the 8th inst.

The Liverpool Market.—Since the departure of the Canada on the 1st inst., all qualities of Cotton had slightly declined, and the sales of the week comprised 36,000 bales, of which speculators took 4,000 and exporters 2,000, leaving 30,000 bales of all descriptions to the trade. Fair Orleans was quoted at 65-8d., Middling Orleans at 55-3d., Fair Upland at 61d., and Middling Upland at 51d.

The advance in Flour of 1s. 6d. per barrel of 196 lbs., mentioned in the Canada's advices, had been lost, and the market was again quiet. Rice was in good demand and prices were stiffer although quotations were unchanged.

State of Trade.—Business in Manchester was unchanged.

The London Money Market.—Consols were quoted at 92 1/2.

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.
Nothing definite has transpired relative to the Eastern question, but many rumors are afloat.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the English and French governments had informed Russia that the time for modifications had passed, and that they would maintain the integrity of Turkey.

The Sultan it is said has not yet signed the declaration of war, but that the grand Council has voted in favor of war, leaving it optional with the Executive when to commence hostilities. On the other hand the Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the English and French governments had informed Russia that the time for modifications had passed, and that they would maintain the integrity of Turkey.

THE GUBERNATORIAL ELECTION.
The names of JAS. W. OSBORNE, DAN L. M. BARRINGER, and HENRY W. MILLER, all good men and true Whigs, have been mentioned by several of the State papers in connection with the approaching gubernatorial contest in North Carolina. Either of these gentlemen, we are confident, would lead the Whig party to success, and would discharge the duties of Governor to the entire satisfaction of the people. We see no necessity for haste in this matter, however. The Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor, is distant several months, and new moves are being made upon the political chess board every day. The duty of the Whigs, we think, is to act with circumspection and caution, awaiting until the proper time, the progress of events, so that when the move is made, it is with the concurrence of the united Whig party. We have a wily foe to oppose—a foe fertile in expedients, acute in political strategy. The field might be lost by precipitation, and although we anticipate nothing of the kind, yet errors in the outset might occur, which could have been prevented. There are numbers of gentlemen in the Whig ranks, capable and honest, each worthy to receive the nomination, and conduct the State's affairs. We have strong capital to fall back upon, and this being the case, discussion in advance of the season seems to us impolitic. The selection of a standard bearer out of the many gallant spirits in the Whig ranks, will be one of the easiest duties of the Convention.—Wilmington Herald.

A FISH STORY.
The following thrilling account is said to have been taken from the log book of a vessel some time since its arrival in port.

In course of voyage, that dreadful disease, ship fever, broke out among the crew.—One of the sailors among the first victims, was accounted for by his son, a lad of fourteen years who was strongly attached to his father, and remained with him day and night, and never could be persuaded to leave his sick father for a moment.

A large shark was seen every day following the vessel, evidently for the purpose of devouring any one who should die and be committed to the deep.

After lingering a few days, the sailor died.—As it was the custom at sea, he was lowered in a shot, and for the purpose of sinking him an old grindstone, and a carpenter's axe were put in with him. The very impressive services of the Episcopal church was then read, and the body then committed to the deep.

The poor boy who had watched the process closely, plunged in after his father, when the enormous shark swallowed them both.—The second day after this dreadful scene, as the shark continued to follow the vessel, (for there were others sick on the ship,) one of the sailors proposed as they had a sharp hook to make an effort to take him.

They fastened the hook to a large rope and baited it with a piece of pork, threw it into the water, and the shark instantly swallowed it.—Having thus hooked him, by means of windlass they hoisted him on board. After he was dead they prepared to open him, when one of the sailors stooping down for that purpose, suddenly paused, and after listening a few moments, declared most solemnly, he heard a low muttering sound, which appeared to proceed from the shark. The sailors after enjoying a hearty laugh at his expense proceeded to baton for themselves, when they were compelled to admit they heard a similar sound. They then proceeded to open the shark, when the mystery was explained.

It appears the sailor was not dead, but in a trance, and his son, on making this discovery, had by means of his knife, ripped open the sheet. Having thus liberated his father they both went to work and righted up the old grindstone—the boy was turning, the father was holding on to the ship carpenter's axe, for the purpose of cutting their way out of their Jonah-like prison, which occasioned the noise heard by the sailors. As it was the hottest season of the year, and very little air stirring where they were at work, they were both sweating tremendously.

Melancholy Accident.—The friends and acquaintances of Capt. James Owen, will be pained to learn that he met with an accident on Saturday last, at his Mills, which resulted in his death on Monday last. We are prepared to detail the particular circumstances attending this deplorable accident. Capt. Owen was a citizen of this county, and resided near Thiyatra Church. He was a man of worthy man, and his death will be seriously felt by the community in which he lived.

How awfully true it is, that "in the midst of life we are in death." The subject of this paragraph was in Town last week: He here met many of his friends and acquaintances and talked with them; and now he is a tenant of the silent grave.

NOT SO POOR AS I LOOK.—One day as Judge Parsons was jogging along on horse-back over a desolate road, he came to a log house, dirty, smoky and miserable. He stopped to complete the too evident poverty of the scene. A poor half-starved fellow, with uncombed hair and unshaven beard, thrust his head through a square which I served for a window,—"I say, Judge, I ain't so poor as you take me to be, for I don't own this 'ere land."

IN CALLING ATTENTION TO DOCT. GUY- SOTT'S Improved Extract of Yellow Dock, and Sarsaparilla, we feel constrained to give a service to all who may be affected with Scrophulous, and other disorders, originating in hereditary taint, or from impurity of the blood. We have known instances, where the most formidable distempers have been cured by the use of Guycott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla alone. It is one of the few advertised medicines that can be distinguished with quickness, for the "Yellow Dock" and the "Sarsaparilla" are well known to be the most efficient, (and at the same time, innoxious) agents in the whole Materia Medica, and by far the best and purest preparation of them is Dr. Guycott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. For sale at MURPHY, McGUIRE, & Co's, SILL & SILL'S, Salisbury, N. C. Oct. 21.2t.

DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. THE GREAT and increasing demand for these Pills is the surest evidence of their efficacy. People try them, and then recommend them to their neighbors. No one who has ever suffered from the Liver complaint, or from any of the diseases arising from a disordered state of that organ, has yet failed in obtaining relief by the tried Dr. McLANE'S PILLS; and thus they have worked their own way into popularity by the astonishing cures which they are every day performing. Read the following:

NEW FIRM!
NOTICE
THE UNDERSIGNED having associated themselves in partnership to carry on the Mercantile Business in the Town of Salisbury, are now receiving from New York and Philadelphia, at the old stand of Brown, Friley & Co.,
The largest and most complete
Stock of Staple and Fancy
DRY GOODS
they have ever offered to the public. Our articles are too numerous to enumerate, but in short we think we have every thing a lady or gentleman may want in the DRY GOODS LINE.
We deem it proper to state, as we are now commencing a new firm, that it is our purpose, as near as practicable, to stick to the old price system; but we do not wish to be understood by this that we desire to sell our goods higher than our neighbors. Neither do we profess to sell goods at any particular per cent, but at what they are worth in the market. We wish as near as possible to treat every person alike. All we ask is an examination of our goods and prices. Special attention is called to their stock of Bonnets, Ribbands, Embroideries, Cloths and Mantillas, Ribband as high as $5 per yd.
