CHARLOTTE STATION,)

June 22, 1855. AVING BEEN INFORMED THAT THE impression has gone abroad that we charge twenty-five cents per Box on Tobacco on delivery to the Charlotte and South Carolina Rail Road, we take this method of informing our friends in general, that such is not the case. We have never made any such charge, and do not expect to charge any thing for forwarding To-bacco or any other kind of Produce on the Charotte and South Carolina Rail Road. We hope our friends will correct this report, for it is a malicious falsehood. Whenever we charge a commission for forwarding Produce of any kind, we will let our friends know the charges. R. R. A CARD. THE subscriber would announce to his friends in North Carolina that he is still with RAIGUEL & CO., Importers and Jobbers of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods,

Nos. 128 and 130 North Third Street, Philadelphia where he would be pleased to see them when they visit the city. The stock, for extent and variety, is unrurpassed by any in the country, and buyers would do well to examine it before purchasing elsewhere. The house has a disposition to increase its North Carolina trade, and has taken pains to get up such goods as will suit the market.
