Salisbury, Decamber 28, 1852. restoring in an extraordinary manner their natural action, thereby establishing that just equilibrium in all the functions of the system, which constitutes perfect health.

To those who reside, or have been exposed in miasmatic regions, it will be found an admirable means of preventing and even curing lutermitmany of that long train of tedious, distressing and dangerous affections, so often consequent upon them, such as, enlarged Spleen, Obstructed Liver, Chronic Diarrhoen, &c., &c. It has also been found, in many cases, to produce the most happy and enduring effects in many of those anomalous and nervous affections in females, for which, as yet, no satisfactory mode of treatment has been adopted.

The value of this medicine is now no longer a matter of doubt. It has been fairly tested net only in this community, but in various parts of the surrounding country-in the towns of Charlotte and Salisbury, and counties of Mccklenburg, Rowan, Iredell, Davie, Cabarrus, and Davidson, and in several of the principal cities and towns. of South Carolina. Rowan House.

BY H. L. ROBARDS.

THIS House has acquired a reputation which very properly places it among the first class Hotels of the State. There may be found here all that pertains to the real comfort and enjoyment of its guests. Before its enlargement, the Rowan House was renowned for its quiet, its good management and neat-ness, and more so now since the extensive improvement made by the present proprietor, (who is the real owner and not lessee,) rendering it one of the largest, and in all other essentials, among the Best Houses in the Southern Country. The House, most of the servants, an extensi vegetable garden, with a farm well wooded, in a mile of Town, all the property of the indomitable proprietor.
