

PRESIDENT WELCOMES MEN INTO THE ARMY

In a Telegram From the White House the President as Commander in Chief Welcomes the Men Into the National Army.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Sept. 3.—Soldiers of the National Army were welcomed into the nation's service today by President Wilson with a message of affectionate confidence and a prayer to God to keep and guide them. Everything these young men do, the President told them, will be watched with the deepest solicitude by the whole country and the eyes of the world will be upon them because they are "in some special sense the soldiers of freedom."

The first soldiers for the army raised under the draft law start from their homes for the training cantonments Wednesday. The President asks them, as brothers and comrades in the great war to keep straight and fit by a standard so high that living up to it will add a new laurel to the crown of America. The message follows:

"The White House, Washington. To the Soldiers of the National Army: "You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with the deepest solicitude not only by those who are near and dear to you, but by the whole nation besides. For this great war draws us all together, makes us all comrades and brothers as all true Americans felt themselves to be when we first made good our independence. The eyes of all the world will be upon you, because you are in some special sense the soldiers of freedom. Let it be your pride, therefore, to show all men everywhere not only what good soldiers you are, but also what good men you are, keeping yourselves fit and straight in everything and pure and clean through and through. Let us set for ourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it and then let us live up to it and add a new laurel to the crown of America. My affectionate confidence goes with you in every battle and every test. God keep and guide you. WOODROW WILSON."

OFFICER CAMPBELL'S ASSAILANT AT LARGE

Called at His Home and Fortified Himself and Lets it be Known That He Will Shoot to Kill—A. H. Price Makes Patriotic Speech at Statesville.

Statesville, Sept. 3.—Jim Belk, the negro fugitive who shot and seriously wounded Revenue Officer Gaither Campbell, of Mocksville, at the negro camp meeting at Poplar Springs Sunday afternoon, is still at large, but reports to Sheriff Alexander from his deputies this afternoon gave the information that searchers were hot on the negro's trail and he will probably be in the hands of the law before in the morning.

It was learned that the negro came to his home sometime Sunday night and changed his shoes and made other preparations for a campaign to get away or protect himself. He is well armed and has left word along his trail that he will shoot the first man that tries to take him.

At one negro house where he stopped it was found that he had been shot in the shoulder. This bears out the opinion of officers who declare that one of the five shots fired by Officer Campbell too keffect. The negro was headed towards the Callahan swamps in Davie county and deputies state that they are positive he is in hiding there. A strong guard is being maintained and searchers are watching every avenue.

In accordance with the proclamation by the governor calling for patriotic meetings over the state a speaking was held at the court house this afternoon at 2 o'clock. A. H. Price, of Salisbury, addressed a medium sized audience on the subject of "Cause of the War."

An excellent speech was made and was enjoyed by all who availed themselves of the opportunity to hear him. The district exemption board for the western part of the state is called to meet again Tuesday and will spend several days passing upon the hundreds of claims for exemption that are now filed in the office of the board. The force of stenographers and helpers in the district exemption office is working overtime filing the claims and giving notice to the different counties, towns and those who are called.

STANLY'S DRAFT MEN HONORED; SCHOOLS AT ALBEMARLE OPEN

Magnificent Address Delivered by Hon. Theo. F. Klutz at Red Cross Supper and Celebration—Need of More School Room Already Apparent.

Albemarle, Sept. 4.—The local Red Cross organization gave the 276 war conscripts an excellent send-off on yesterday evening, in the shape of a magnificent dinner served on the city graded school campus. This was followed by one of the most eloquent addresses heard in Albemarle in years delivered by Hon. Theo. F. Klutz, of Salisbury. Mr. Klutz was introduced by W. L. Mann of the Albemarle bar with a short and appropriate talk. Mr. Klutz's address was listened to by a fairly large number of people in addition to the conscripts and Red Cross members and was frequently interrupted by applause. The colored soldiers-to-be were not neglected but were served with the same fare as the white boys, their table being arranged at another place on the campus. There are very few colored conscripts, however, among the first 276 called.

Albemarle Schools Open.
The city graded schools opened on yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The opening exercises were largely attended by citizens and patrons of the city, and the large number of youngsters gathered in the auditorium spoke in no uncertain tones the fact that only another year or two will pass before another new and larger auditorium will be required to take care of the great number, the same possibly having increased 25 per cent since last school term. Superintendent T. A. Holton says the coming session promises much and he is sure of a great year's work, and he is proud of his splendid faculty.

China and Siam may not be of much help in the war against Germany, but their entry is encouraging and shows that they have excellent judgment in picking a winner.
