DR. SOLF, FOR. SECRETARY IS SCHEDULED TO RESIGN

Warning Issued Against Attempt to Establish a Purely Socialist State at This Time.

(By the Associated Press.)
Berlin, Tuesday, Nov. 26.—Via Copenhagen—The German Federal conference has adopted the following resolution:
"There is absolute necessity for all German tribes to act in union for the maintenance of German unity and fight all separate movements."
"The proposal for a speedy summing of the National Assembly meets general approbation. Until the meeting of the National Assembly the Soldiers and Workmen Council will represent the peoples will. The administrators of the empire are requested to work for the securing of a permanent peace with the utmost speed."
Dr. August Mueler, minister of economy, gave warning against unauthorized encroachments on the money and credit system by complicated governmental machinery.
Among the various speakers was Kurt Eisner, socialist leader of the revolution in Munich, who warned the conference against any attempt to establish a purely socialist state while disorder is reigning. He said the department of foreign affairs must have a staff of men of unimpeachable conduct and a president must be elected so that Germany as a whole might be able to negotiate with the entente powers.
Dr. Solf May Resign.
Paris, Nov. 27.—Havas Agency.—Dr. Solf, German foreign minister, may resign very soon, it is indicated by developments during the debates at the conference of German States now being held in Berlin, according to Berne advices to the Petit Parisien.
National Assembly Must Be Held.
Berlin, Tuesday, Nov. 26.—The events of the last few days culminating Monday in the meeting of the heads of the various German states in Berlin have indicated that with the exception of numerically unimportant group there is complete agreement in Germany that a National Assembly must be held.

INFLUX OF CAPITAL TO SOUTH AMERICA.
Will Seek to Develop Vast Areas of Resources Hitherto Untouched—Bolivia and Paraguay Are Awakening.
Bolivia, Nov. 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Influx of American capital into the central republics of South America for the development of vast areas of hitherto untouched resources has caused Bolivia and Paraguay to awaken to a realization of the possibilities that lie in the disputed zone which is known as the Great Chaco.
The boundary line between these two republics never has been fixed definitely because the wilderness of the country, but both nations have been satisfied with going on record as claiming all the zone and then going about their daily business without forcing the issue.
But now that great development companies from the United States are seeking concessions, the newspapers and public men are urging that the old question be brought up for final settlement.
The Great Chaco is a vast area north of Argentina between the Pilcomayo and Paraguay rivers. It is claimed by both Bolivia and Paraguay, though both admit that their claims are so large that they will have to give up large areas in the final reckoning.
For several years Bolivia has been preparing quietly for the day of final settlement, so that it is now in a position to press the issue to advantage. That country has constructed a chain of forts at intervals of twenty miles, in direct wireless communication with La Paz, put its army in possession of the strip and settled back to wait for argument which now appears to be approaching.

May Have to Leave Holland.
London, Nov. 27.—William Hohenzollern will have to leave Holland if his presence there becomes perilous to that country the premier of Holland is quoted by an Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express as declaring in the Second Chamber of the Dutch parliament November 20.
"The kaiser came to Holland as a private person," the premier is quoted as saying, "and the hospitality of the country is extended him in accordance with our old tradition. But it goes without saying the moment his sojourn becomes a danger to the state he will have to leave. We believe the kaiser and those with him understood the position and will act accordingly to their interests."
Crown Prince on Island of Wieringen.
Amsterdam, Nov. 27.—The tug hearing the former German Crown Prince to the island of Wieringen was unable to make the harbor there last night owing to fog, but arrived at Wieringen island this afternoon.
The Crown Prince was given an icy reception by the islanders. Frederick William is not supposed to leave the island except by special permission by the home office at The Hague. He gets food cards the same as an ordinary citizen.
No News From Paris.
London, Nov. 27.—The former German Crown Prince had not been heard from by his father for weeks up to the time he was taken to the island of Wieringen, according to an interview he gave newspaper men while on his way through Holland to his present home in the Zuider Zee Islands. He said his wife would remain in Germany.
"A change is coming in Germany, but one has to be careful about predictions," he replied to a question as to what he thought of the revolution in Germany.
"Will you return to Germany?" was the next question.
"Yes, when the situation changes but when."
"Have Frederick Wilhelm books of loyalty to the excellence of the food in Holland." The Crown Prince said he did not know how long he would remain on the island of Wieringen.

PROVEN SWAMP-ROOT AIDS WEAK KIDNEYS
The symptoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a rundown condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to more dangerous kidney troubles.
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, so many people say, soon heals and strengthens the kidneys, is a splendid kidney, liver and bladder medicine, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.
A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.
However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Salisbury Evening Post.

WILSON DISREGARDS PRESENT CRITICS

Attaches No Weight to Argument Condemning Him for Decision To Go To Europe.
WILL PERFORM DUTIES OF PRESIDENT AT DISTANCE
Secretary Tumulty Will Keep in Constant Touch With Chief Executive During Absence.
(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 27.—No weight is attached by President Wilson to argument of his critics in his plans for attending the peace conference than upon crossing the sea he will lose the right to perform the executive duties and that he must allow them to develop up to the vice president.
It was said officially the President will administer the duties of his office as completely aboard ship and from Paris as though he were in the United States. He holds that there is no constitutional difficulty and the wireless and cable communications solve the physical problems.
Secretary Tumulty instead of being a member of the peace party will remain in Washington throughout the President's absence and conduct the affairs of the White House as usual. He will be in constant touch with the President in his absence and expects to submit by cable and wireless matters to be acted upon just as he now submits them personally or by messenger.
There were still no announcements today of the President's plans nor of the personnel of the peace delegation.

Later the secretary visited the Georgia Military Academy and the Georgia Normal and Industrial college, making short talks to the students of both institutions.
A public reception in his honor Mr. McAdoo and party left this afternoon for Mobile, where he is to inspect the port facilities. From Mobile he will go to Pensacola, it is understood, and thence to Birmingham.

PENROSE G. O. P.'S BIG BOGIE MAN

"Cannot Be Chairman Finance," Says Borah, and Senate Sees Storm Clouds Gather.

WANT TO 'PRY HIM LOOSE' FROM THAT POSITION

Republicans Feel They Would Be Stronger Before the Country if This Could Be Done.
By JUDSON C. WELIVER.
(Staff Correspondent of Globe. Copyright, 1918, by J. C. Welliver.)
Washington, Nov. 25.—Boies Penrose has the distinction of standing alone today as the pre-eminent bogie man of the Republican party. But a little while ago there was notable group of bogie men—Aldrich, Hale, Crane, Lorimer, Cannon, Dalsell, Barnes, Foraker, Penrose, and so on. Rising insurgency conjured with their names, and democracy capitalized the Republican quarrel.
Today they are all passed into the shadows save only the Pennsylvania chieftain. Much effort has been devoted to making a bogie man of Reed Smoot, but it has failed. He is certainly a conservative, commonly called a "rosencranz," but he has made good in the Senate. He is personally popular, one of the best workers on the body, sincere, intelligent, and withal of the "senatorial type." The rise of Smoot, who a few years ago came to the Senate to face charges on which he narrowly escaped being excluded, is one of the striking proofs that the senate is a real democracy. A man who has the qualities of leadership will win recognition. Smoot has done it under a handicap of conditions that might well have discouraged any man.
As the sunnily of bogies has lessened, the intensity of the feeling against those remaining has increased; until now Penrose stands alone, with all the virils of insurgent wrath showered on his devoted head.
Places of Power.
Personally Penrose is rather popular among his colleagues. He possessed the courage of his reactionism, learned his politics in the eminently practical school of the Camerons and Quay, and if he were as hard a worker as Smoot, would be in a far greater power than he is. But it is protested that he holds places of power on three great committees, and pays almost no attention to any but the one now first in importance, finance of which he is Republican leader, and will be chairman after March 4, unless precedent is overturned.
Penrose is the prince of cynics, and withal has a delicious humor. The other day he passed out a fine sample of it. He was lecturing a cloakroom group. It was right after election, and political qualities were under discussion.
"A young man," announced Penrose, in the rambling bass that is quite inimitable, "should aim at the outset of his career to lose his reputation." Therefore, if he does anything wrong nobody cares; while, if he chances to do something creditable, he is universally lauded for it."
Borah's Ultimatum
Borah of Idaho has delivered an ultimatum to Republican leadership: "Penrose cannot be chairman of finance." That is flat, unqualified, sweeping. Mr. Borah has stated no alternative; has made no threats. Nobody knows what he might do, how far he might go. There is a shrewd suspicion that he could, without political harm to his career, go as far as he liked.
Idaho is one of those western states in which the old-style eastern leadership is unpopular. It is by no means certain that Borah would ruin his career if he should go so far as to join the Democrats and enable them to elect a Democratic head of the finance committee. In the new Senate, after March 4, a change of one vote from Republicans to Democrats would tie the body, and the vice-president would vote for a Democratic chairman of the greatest committee.
This Borah fight on Penrose is not to be confused with the Norris fight for a new distribution of committee assignments. Norris has not united in the fight on Penrose, he is simply insisting on his amendment to the rules, under which no senator, being chairman of one of the great committees, could be a member of any other.

PROFITEERING IS STILL UNDER BAN
Food Administrator Page Announces That Violators of Food Rules and Regulations Will Be Put Out of Business—Definite Margins Fixed on Many Commodities.
(Special to the Post.)
Raleigh, Nov. 27.—Would-be food profiteers who have judged that the signing of the armistice will release them from the watchful eye of the food administrator have a surprise in store. State Food Administrator Henry A. Page declared today that while a number of the rules and regulations of the food administration have been removed and others may be removed later, those relating to margins of profit and to the distribution of food and feedstuffs will not only remain in force until the peace treaty is signed but that they will be more rigidly enforced hereafter than they have been in the past.
Profiteering and speculation will be punished ruthlessly. Voluntary contributions to the Red Cross will no longer be accepted in lieu of more drastic actions. Merchants who are found to be willfully disregarding food rules and regulations, especially those relating to margins of profit, will be put out of business until normal times come again.
In line with this policy the food administration has fixed specific margins upon an increased number of food products. These margins are absolute and any merchant who exceeds them will be subject to discipline by the food administrator. The products upon which margins have been fixed and the margins thereon are as follows:
