RIPLING RHYMES. By Walt Mason.

PRETENDING THINGS.

The price of butter's twice as high as in olden times of peace, and yet I do not wail or sigh, but spread my bread with axle grease. Oh, you may say you would be shot before you'd eat that kind of thing; but I pretend it's hings.

WILL SANTA COME THIS TIME IN AN AIRPLANE OR A TANK?

Salisbury did not get a camp and will not lose any tears over losing a camp.

FOCH ISN'T SUCH A STAND-PATTER ON ARMISTICE TERMS BUT WHAT HE IS ALWAYS WILLING TO REVISE THEM UPWARD.

Maybe it was no mere homophobia accident that the American President landed on the Brest of France.

THE BIG BOSS IS HAVING A GOOD TIME IN EUROPE—AND NO ONE CAN DENY HE IS ENTITLED TO THE CHANGE AND RECREATION OF THE VISIT.

Herr Scheidmann says Germany is sitting on a powder keg. That's all right. Germany is past due for a good blowing up.

AMERICAN TROOPS WILL HAVE TO MARCH TO BERLIN YET, TO MAKE "THE MOST ORDERLY AND LAW-ABIDING PEOPLE IN THE WORLD" BEHAVE THEMSELVES.

Maybe it adds to the ex-kaiser's cup of sorrow, and maybe it doesn't; but anyhow, a lot of German bartenders in this country will soon have to go to work.

AT ST. LOUIS THERE WERE RECENTLY AUCTIONED 600,000 POUNDS OF NEW ZEALAND AND AUSTRALIAN RABBIT SKINS.

In addition to a possibility of there being a few more candidates for governor "over here," there is also danger of there being one or two "over there" to be heard from.

THE FACT THAT THE RU SITUATION IS BETTER MUST INDICATE THAT REGULATING THE MOVEMENT OF PEOPLE HELPS.

Mr. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1920.

NORTH CAROLINA IS HEADING FOR A LIVELY POLITICAL CAMPAIGN IN 1920 IT WOULD SEEM.

German newspapers, also, are giving much space to the President and some are declaring that they were deceived as to him and America.

ONE OF THE LEADING NEWSPAPERS OF SPAIN DECLARES THAT IN AS MUCH AS PRESIDENT WILSON IS A CITIZEN OF THE WORLD HE IS A SPANISH CITIZEN.

Down in Concord they are discussing the renaming of Depot street and suggestions are being made as to what it shall be called.

HERALD SUBSCRIBERS, RENEW NOW.

Subscribers to the Herald are asked, urged to renew for the year 1919 promptly. The great majority of our subscribers have their paper paid to some date in January, 1919, many expiring the very first day of the year.

Taft says the only way to get rid of Bolshevism is to shoot it out of Russia. When it comes to the real peace-stuff, William H. has the right idea.

THE PRODUCT OF THE CHEESE FACTORIES IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA IS TAKING A HIGH RANK WITH OTHER CHEESE IN THE NATION.

The product of the cheese factories in western North Carolina is taking a high rank with other cheese in the Nation. At the recent competition at the National Dairy Show the Cane River Co-operative Cheese Factory of Cane River won a silver medal with a score of 95.

THE RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN IS ON.

The Red Cross membership campaign is on. The membership fee is one dollar is all that they seek, and it is hoped that every adult in the United States will come in for the coming year.

JUST THE WORDS "RED CROSS" BRING SO MANY PICTURES TO THE MIND THAT THERE IS LITTLE NECESSITY FOR A DETAILED REHEARSAL OF THE GLORIOUS DEEDS FOR WHICH THE NAME STANDS.

Just the words "Red Cross" bring so many pictures to the mind that there is little necessity for a detailed rehearsal of the glorious deeds for which the name stands.

LET THE DOLLARS COME

The Red Cross Roll Call is not doing as well as it should do. The response is not what might have been hoped for it so far.

IT IS BY FAR THE GREATEST BATTLE IN AMERICAN HISTORY.

It is by far the greatest battle in American history, in number of combatants and in losses suffered. At present, the two armies together only total 48,000.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH MAY NOT BE PERFECT, BUT IT IS THE BEST GROUP TO STAND ON AND THEN TO STAND THERE.

The board of health may not be perfect, it is not so serious a situation to be nigged over. The health authorities may not be perfect, but until a better guide is found better stand by the health officers and seek better later on.

THE BERLIN TAGEBLATT, ENDORSING THIS SUGGESTION, REMARKS THAT "THE NUMEROUS DISCLOSURES PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN PRESS REGARDING THE PROPAGANDA OF MEMBERS OF THE GERMAN EMBASSY AND OF GERMAN AGENTS HAVE PROBABLY NOT BEEN ABLE TO CHANGE THE VIEW OF WASHINGTON REGARDING COUNT VON BERNSTORFF, AS IT WILL BE KNOWN THERE HOW LITTLE THESE ACTIVITIES WERE IN HARMONY WITH HIS POLICY."

The Berlin Tageblatt, endorsing this suggestion, remarks that "the numerous disclosures published by the American press regarding the propaganda of members of the German embassy and of German agents have probably not been able to change the view of Washington regarding Count von Bernstorff, as it will be known there how little these activities were in harmony with his policy."

$10,000 IN SMALL CHANGE

In 1883 Thomas Cain and his three children, Mary, Anna and Hugh, living in Brooklyn, N. Y., agreed to put into a common fund, every week, all the dimes and quarters that they did not need for any immediate purpose.

ANNIE DIED IN 1896. THE OTHERS CONTINUED TO ADD SURPLUS DIMES AND QUARTERS.

Annie died in 1896. The others continued to add surplus dimes and quarters. The other day the father died. The funeral expenses, as they had paid, Anna's then Hugh and Mary decided to quit saving and divide up the fund. They had $5,000 apiece.

OUR SUPER-WATERLOO

Many battles of the great war have been called "decisive" because of their importance from one angle or another. But military authorities seem to be coming around to the general agreement that the most decisive blow since the Germans were first checked at the Marne was that dealt by the American army in the Meuse-Argonne battle beginning the last week in September and lasting through October.

In that great "Battle of the Wilderness" involving the hardest fighting of the war, in a spot where hard and persistent fighting had the greatest strategic value, Pershing used up all the German reserves, wore down all opposition, cut the enemy's main line of communication and broke the back of the German army.

THE STAFF OF THE OFFICIALS.

the annoyance and inconvenience to the individual. It is unfortunate that any one should suffer. It is hard for any business to pay a penalty, but the hard part is that men, women and children should suffer and die with a disease while science works day and night to find a way to cure and to prevent. It is the duty of us to act and find no fault. The greatest scourge this Nation has ever seen is on us, and together we must stand and find a way out. The best leadership may not have developed as yet, but until it does, it is our duty to follow that leadership at hand.

REJUVENATED FARMS

Some years ago there appeared in a magazine an article entitled "Abandoned Farms of Old New England." The article was profusely illustrated with pictures of quaint old farmhouses falling to decay, of fields grown up to goldenrod and thistle, of orchards run wild and dying. All this was accepted as a matter of course. These farms had "run out." Nobody thought anything about it.

The discouraged owners had drifted to the neighboring cities, or set sail in their prairie schooners for that golden west where with a minimum of effort they fondly hoped to reap a maximum of reward. With the story of their awakening it is not the purpose of this article to deal, but rather with the false premise which allowed any farm to go to run when by proper rotation of crops and careful fertilizing it might even now be as productive in its small way as its mighty brother of the west, with no idle years to its account.
