THE DAILY UNION BANNE

VOL.

SALISBURY, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1865.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION AND AD-VERTISING.

	Our paper will be published daily at the following rates in Federal currency:	w-
	Daily I year,$10	00
	" 6 months, 5	00
	" 1 month, 1	00
	Weekly, I year, T $2	00
	" 6 months, 2	oe
	" 1 month,	50
4	Cash in advance.

Rates of Advertising.

in.	Ten line		(PAY	AI	L	EI	N	A	Di	A	N	35)	è,		į
10	constitu	te	a son	ar	en C	Hat	10	10	*	-	P	f	ï	'n	i		-	77	,
	Square,						٠		Į.	v.			Ų		h		$	1	00
î		î	week															3	50
î	-4	2				15												6	00
i	4.6	3	14															8	00
ī	44	1	mont															10	.00
î	44	2	44	1													ı	15	00
î	44	3	-															20	00
-		Ξ,

To Advertisers in Detail.

Quarter	THE RAT	1	me	nth.											$20	0
e co	44	2	303,3	-44	1913										30	0
44		3		44,	*										40	0
Half	Column	1		44											30	0
44	6	2		44											42	0
	u	3		44	190										50	0
One	Column	1		14											50	0
44	11	2		44											75	0
	44	3		11								٠			100	0
Spec	ial Notice	8 1	will	be	ch	a	rg	e	d	1	03	1	t	e!	squ	ar seventy-five cents for each insertion, for 1 month. advance.

The name of no subscriber entered on our books unless paid for in advance. No one is authorized to receive and receipt for money for subscription or other work done at this Office, except the Publisher and the Proprie-

All letters concerning business of the office must be addressed to

J. J. STEWART, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

Written for the Union Banner.

BY AN OFFICER OF THE 23D A. C. ON A LADY'S CURLS.

Come gentle muse, inspire my pen, And help me to indite a rhyme, On things almost beyond my ken, Oh! Goddess pray keep me in time.

This little town is full of dears Of varied sizes, shapes and forms; Of varied notions, hopes and years, Of power to raise and quell, fierce storms.

Some forms celestial, some divine; Some forms terrestrial, course and fair, With dancing eyes, with features fine, With black, brown, auburn and red hair.

But none so gay, so fresh, so true So brilliant, witty, full of life As she whose curls I no review Ah! she will make a splendid wife.

Adown her cheeks they float, they hang In ringlets crisp and short and round, Each glance at them gives such a pang, Causing each heart to start, to bound.

No spit curls hang around her face No greasy curls are clustered there, But nature shines with richest grace, Revealing beanties rich and rare.

And then her cheeks, with pinkish tint, Snugly embosomed, how they glow! One glance at them would soften flint, And make one think of heaven below.

Mischief beams out her dancing eyes, And then her voice, so sweet, so low, In her sweet presence, how time flies. Nearher each heart feels love's warm glow.

But oh! her curls, her magic curls, Who can resist their matchless charms, With twists and turns and cork screw quirls They vanquish, then subdue our arms.

Dear lady, when you twist your curls Around your taper fingers, thin, Say not that Yankees all are churls, But give to one a chance to win.

Let not those charms, so bright, so fair, Be buried in oblivion deep, But let them float upon the air Lulling the senses to sweet sleep.

Now gentle muse my task is done To thee my thanks I gladly pay, Watch o'er this lady till she's won And keep her curls from growing gray. .

FLORIDA .- Provisional Governor Wm. Marvin, of Florida, issued his proclamation to the people of that State on the 3d inst., announcing his appointment by the President and informing them of the necessary steps to be taken to restore civil assembling of the same are not decided ten down the names.

upon; but they will be named as soon as De Caston then asked M. G-- to proper time shall have been given for write a number of historical dates on a the people to take the oath of allegiance piece of paper, fold it up and hold in his and for other necessary preliminaries. hand.

As has been done by all the other pro"I have my list already!" cried Mr. visional governors, Mr. Marvin informs (, triumphantly. the zitizens that slavery is dead and cannot be resuscited; and the old county in- so kind as to open the paper I gave you sional Services to the citizens of Salisbury and vicincumbents are anthorized to still act in on entering your study." matters pertaining to the administration of estates, the recording of deeds, and the indispensable business. Until the regular civil government shall have been formained and exact duplicate of my list.

restored, the Governor leaves to the milzance of its breaches throughout the tronomer, M. Le Verrier, had assembled State, and only national officers of a loyal State or Territory are authorized to ders. administer the allegiance oath.

A NECROMANCER IN PARIS. A Paris correspondent of the Montreal

Herald says: There is in this city a certain M. de Caston, a man ot good family and great acquirements, whose feats of prestidigitation are equal to those of the most renowned professors of the art.

towels, and then covered with a paletot, he will read without hesitation, and as fast as written, a mass of cipher written No advertisement inserted unless paid for in at his request on the opposite wall. At wate out the terms of some terrifically one of his sceanes he threw a folded pa- abstruse and complicate computation, per to a lady who had never seen him, wen De Caston, placing his paper on requesting her to put in her pocket un- the instant before the mathematician, reopened.

Absorbed in watching the marvelous things done by the performer, the lady your problem." And correct it was. had quite forgotten the paper, when de Caston requested her to name one of the three kingdoms of nature. She named the vegetable kingdom. De Caston, singling out another lady, requested her to name some class of objects belonging to that kingdom. "Flowers," replied the lady., Turning to the third lady, he asked to name a flower. "The rose," said the third lady.

Turning again to my friend, he requestad her to read the contents of the paper in her pocket; on doing which she found these words: "The Vegetable gint natiff, and he informed he didn't Kingdom. Flowers. The Rose." A cre; I think he lied. man of great literary reputation, being invited to a private performance of De Caston's went away incredulous and disgusted, that gentlemen should league themselves with a charlaton. A day or kunted till I get tired, then estimated. two afterwards he received a note from his perfectly harie renting tew see the De Caston, saying that he should call up-fenales here in search of natural protecon him in a day or two. M. L-G-ac- tos, I kounted sixteen yesterday in the cordingly got down some rare old histo- ple; they awl sighed as I passed by rian from one of his slielves, and picked tem, with down cast eyes. I felt sorry out about twenty dates of little known for them, but couldn't help them, for I historic facts in the annals of several a thoroughly marrid, and intend tew countries, in remote ages. He drew up main so. There iz two breezes here, his paper, folded it, put it away in his ages breeze and a jersee breeze, and i waistcoat pocket, not showing it to any wise all persons tew use the sea breeze

De Caston, "keep your seat, and let me place myself here," and drawing a chair of them, they bite side ways, and hang to the opposite side of the table, he took on like a dead hoss shoe, they make good a folded paper from his pocket, and gave it to Mr. G—, "Don't open it till I ask you to do so," said De Caston; and Mr. thing. The bathing is luxurious, and the Sterling G-placed it unopened in his pocket.

ed the visitor.

continued, holding out his hand, "just dors, tew give the guests as much brinimagine that I am offering you a pack afteonst air az possible. The lodging of cards, of which you select four."

M. G-feigned to draw out four hi cards, and to place them before him on what cards you have chosen, and fold it heleberry. The servants are generalnp'as soon as written.

M. G-did so. "You have chosen the ace of spades, t the king of clubs, the knave of diamonds, and the queen of hearts," quietly re- lines met here from all partes of the marked the wizard, as Mr. G—finish- kinry tew vow and sware, and menny ed folding his paper. Those being the abat that comes here tuff and hearty, of delegates to a convention and for the cards of which M. G -- had just writ- get home smashed, and bleeding lav at itary to preserve order and take cogni- scientific men, including the great asprivately to witness De Caston's won-"I do not pretend to any vast amount of science," remarked that gentlemon, but I have discovered a method of calculation which enables me to solve any mathematical problem, no matter how difficult, instantaneously." "Nonsense, sir," shouted M. Le Verrie, who is very irascible and rude when out of temper, "the thing is impossible!"

"Try me," returned De Caston, re-With his head tied up in a couple of questing a great mathematician present to propound some very difficult problem inthe upper regions of algebra. The mathematician took out his pencil and find that this is the correct solution of

Josh Billings at a Watering Place,

Josh writes from Long Branch, New Jusey, to the Troy News as follows:

"Arrived here just in time tew see the Atlantik Osean, which is now on exhilishun, and dewing a good bizziness tew full houses. Took a bath tew onst, and was astonished to find the water so saltwas; enquiren the kause of an intelli-

There is about one hundred and sixty tlousand human being, and other folks here now, az near az kan git at it; I one. De Caston arrived next day, and was shown at once to the study.

"Pray don't disturb yourself," said by after it gite here. Yesterday I bathers resemble mermades, half men "Have you a pack of cards?" demand- adhalf wimmin; they all dress in the pektaw kostum, and when they emerge "However, we can do just as well with- from the water, yu kant tell which is out cards as with them by simply imagining that we have them." "Now," he havels, and they are prinsipally bilt out ms are small, but handy, each one a door tew them, and a looking glass Dinner iz served at 2 o'clock, part of the United States. Be good enough to write on a paper an opens with soup, and shuts up with ak, but many of them have lived so aming the whites that they begin adop our kuller. The beach, bi lite, is worthy ov a philosopher.

DENTISTRY.

L. Coleman D. D. S.

(Successor to Dr. W. F. Bason,) RESPECTFULLY OFFERS HIS PROFES-

Dr. C. feels assured with the experience of four-en (14) years practice he can give general satisfac-When money cannot be paid for operations on the teeth, provisions will be received; such as bacon On another occasion, a little group of hans, no. I flour, chickers, butter, eggs, &c., at market prices.

FARM of 425 acres-near Salisbury-good A land-fine water-excellent houses-productive meadows and fair fences. Apply to T. G. HAUGHTON.

Salisbury, August 9, 1865.

20 ACRES of LAND NEAR

TO BE SOLD ON THE 21st AUG. INST. I will sell at public sale, on the premises, Aug.

21st, the valuable property on which I reside, commarked, "I think, Monsieur, you will prising 20 acres of land, dwelling house, kitchen and other building. Also, her household and kitchen furniture, some > farming tools, an excellent Wheat Fan, one-horse wagon, &c. &c. IF Terms of sale cash.

Aug. 14, 1865

MARY M. JAMES.

MORGANTON, N. C.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING LEASED the above Hotel for a number of years, are now refitting it and puting it in good order for the accommodation of the public, and those who wish to visit Morganton and enjoy the fresh Mountain breeze, will find at the Walton House a good, comfortable Room and the best furnished table in the State.

'August 7th, 1865.

HUNT & WALTON.

SWEPSON, MENDENHALL, &' CO .. GENERAL

Commission Merchants.

FOR THE SALE OF

TOBACCO, RAW COTTON, COTTON YARNS, CLOTHS, & NAVAL STORES. 121 Front St., New York.

T. J. SUMNER, Company Shops, N. C. Robert R. Swepson, Sam'l. G. Murphy, New York City. Cyrus P. Mendenhall, President Farmer's Bank, Greensboro

Dan'l. Worth, Company Shops, N. C. Geo. W. Swepson, Haw River, N. C.

july 5-d6m

BOOKS.

Campbell and Albright, PUBLISHERRS,

And dealers in Books, Stationery, de.

GREENSBORO, N. C.,

CONTINUE TO PUBLISH "OUR OWN" SERIES of School Books, consisting of Primers. Spelling Books, Readers, Arithmetics and English Grammers; also Bingham's Latin Grammer and Cosar. We offer our Books to Teachers and Bookselfers on as he wall, and two wash bowles and a moderate terms as are offered by publishers in any

IF For specimen copies or lists of prices adderess

Aug. 10th

65-3mo.

Professionally Engaged.

Salisbury June 13, 1865.