Letter From Gen. Joseph E. Johnston.

The Fredericksburg Ledger gives the following timely and patriotic letter from General Johnston:

BUFFALO SPRINGS,
Mecklenburg Co., Va.,
July 17, 1865.

You ask my "views of the future course and future interests of us." The case is so plain that very little can be said or written upon it. We of the South referred the questions at issue between us and the United States to the arbitration of the sword. The decision has been made—and it is against us. We must acquiesce in that decision, accept it as final, and recognize the fact that Virginia is again one of the United States. Our duties and interests coincide. We shall consult the one and perform the other by doing all we can to promote the welfare of our neighbors and kindred, and to restore the prosperity of the country. We should at once commence the duties of peaceful citizens by entering upon some useful pursuit, qualifying ourselves to vote, if possible—and at the polls our votes should be cast for conservative men—men who understand and will maintain the interests of Virginia as one of the United States.

This is the course which I have recommended to all those with whom I have conversed on the subject and is that which I have adopted for myself, as far as practicable.

Very truly yours,
J. E. JOHNSTON.

Restoration Of the South, Socially and Commercially.

From every quarter of the South we hear of her restoration, socially and commercially. Steamship lines have been re-established, telegraphic communications re-opened, mail facilities renewed and railroads constructed all over the country. This work of restoration is going on quietly but vigorously in the natural but legitimate way. But what are the politicians doing, both North and South? Instead of helping in this labor of restoration they are making a great fuss about the nigger. The nigger-worshippers are striving to make another bleeding Kansas out of the South.—This was begun by Chase, who soiled his judicial ermine by advancing mischievous sentiments about negro equality and all that, and the mischief he began is being carried on by his followers and partisans. It would be well for President Johnson to look after this style of partisans in office in the South. While the work of restoration is going on with success, socially and commercially, the politicians are busy with their plots, and casting obstacles in the way of the return of repose, prosperity and security to the Southern country. The President should turn all these fellows out of office.—N. Y. Herald.
