LOCAL.

The Sleeky Season.

Is not yet over, and excellent old Oat-tard, London Dock, Cognac, Sherry, Madeira and Port Wines, for medicinal purposes only, can be had at the Boyden House Store. We suppose Howerton would have sent us a bottle if not against orders.

This is a gentle hint with a double entendre—we hope "due notice" of the same will be taken and we will "govern ourselves accordingly." This is only one good thing out of many Howerton is selling, as one might say—pluribus unum.

Howerton has got nearly if not quite anything that the most fastidious taste might demand in Dry Goods and Groceries, etc.

Queer.

Our contemporary the Wilmington Journal of the 4th contains an article in which it is stated that Judge Pearson was defeated by a Mr. Hanes, the author of Davidson. Our contemporary has fallen into an error. The authorship of the Davidson articles is generally attributed to Col. Hanes, of Davidson, at present serving as one of Gov. Holden's aids. We notice this in justice to Col. Hanes. We understand that the delegate from Yadkin, stated during the canvass that if elected he would introduce an ordinance granting a bounty of one dollar per day to deserters from the Confederate Army, for every day they were compelled to lie out.

He can at least lay claim to originality.

Dr. Jones.

We see from the published proceedings of the Convention, that Dr. Jones has introduced into the Convention an ordinance looking to a general Amnesty.

Take of these Buttons.

We understand that several parties were on Friday last deprived of their military buttons by a guard. We had been under the impression that the order relative to removing military insignia only applied so far as the buttons were concerned, to the Confederate staff buttons. We take it for granted that there is good reason for the present order, although we have not heard the reason suggested. Good taste should have suggested to all as it did to many the propriety of voluntarily removing all badges of rebellion as soon as it was ascertained that the Confederacy had (in the classic language of Gen. Frazier when he surrendered Cumberland Gap) "gone up."

A GOOD HOTEL.

There is no private "Institution" that the American Nation think of and appreciate like a good hotel. If any of our friends should be travelling to New Berne we recommend them to call at the "North Carolina Hotel," kept by Gen. L. S. Baker, formerly of the Confederate army. The General married, it will be remembered, in this city.

The Test Oath.

Our contemporary the Raleigh Sentinel, expresses the opinion that no gentleman fit in other respects to go to Congress can take the test oath. We are surprised at such a declaration, as we were under the impression that one of the most distinguished jurists in the State, a resident of Raleigh, not to speak of others, could take the oath.

Behind those Beseece Gales.

The lips of girlhood, there should be a fragrant palace elegantly furnished with ivory and coral. To drop metaphor. Young ladies, you should keep your teeth and gums in perfect order, if you hope in after life, to enjoy the blessings of a sound set of dentals and a sweet breath. What will enable you to do this? you ask Nothing but Fragrant Soapwort. We reply.

Land For Sale.

I OFFER for sale my Farm known as "the Graham place," located in Rowan Co., on Third Creek some 2 1/2 miles from Third Creek Depot, containing 600 acres.

This farm has a abundance of timber and wood-land, and is easily divided into two Farms, as it formerly was. It has about 20 or 75 acres of rich bottom land, all of which will make productive meadow or grass land—also several orchards. The improvements consist of two dwellinghouses and the usual farm buildings.
