To the Citizens of North-Carolina ..

The termination ot a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity affored me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those purious and deleterious compounds which, under York, and are doing a very extensive business, and have or hand the largest stock that can be found in equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate Impor-
