There is Nothing "Just as Good" as

Tailor - Made Clothing!

Common Clothes have their manufacturers, their students, who study to see how cheaply they can do it. Their product Appeals to Nothing but the Sense of Price. It is my province to appeal to those who have taste, a desire for dress, a love of appearance, that can appreciate the superior skill and workmanship contained in nothing but Strictly Tailor-Made Garments.

LOUIS LICHTENSTEIN, Tailor,

SALISBURY, N. C.

James Young as David Garrick.

The audience at the opera house last night was well pleased with James Young who presented David Garrick. It was the first time Mr. Young ever appeared in comedy here. (He has visited the city three times.)

In presenting the comedy Mr. Young brings before the mind the actor—David Garrick—as he really lived and moved among his contemporaries. Some of the scenes were very funny and approached the farce, but were kept within the bounds of delicate high comedy by the artistic touches and consummate acting of Mr. Young and his excellent company.

What a multitude of wants and must-haves crop up.

Your underwear and your linen suddenly becomes unsuitable, and you discover that your neckwear and your socks and your gloves are not much better than none at all. It takes quite a bit of money to buy a SPRING OUTFIT of all these things, but if you come here you'll find that you can fit yourself out for what you expected to pay for the "MUST-HAVES" alone.
