STATE NEWS.

Monroe Enquirer: Mr. F. P. Saunders, who lives in the eastern portion of Marshville township, says that he has been making trips from his home to Waxhaw for several years and that crops are far better now along his line of travel than he has ever seen them.

Greensboro Record: J. R. Hughes is a success on potato raising. If he can do as well with other crops as with this one, he should get rich. He brought a dozen Irish potatoes to this office this morning, samples of four hundred bushels on less than two acres. The dozen weighed nine and three quarter pounds.

Goldsboro Argus: There are more cattle sold in Goldsboro in a week, the year round, than are sold in any other town in the State in a month. These are pastured and fattened by the purchasers and then shipped to northern markets in carload lots. The farmers are the beneficiaries.

R. N. Hackett, while here yesterday, told a Sentinel man a story which sounds rather "fishy," but he says he can furnish proof to any doubting Thomases. He has a farm in Wilkes which is strictly Democratic. The tenant is white and only white oak, white pine and white hickory grow on it. Even the blackberries are white. The tenant recently caught two white squirrels on the farm and Mr. Hackett has been advised that white ghosts have been seen around it.—Winston Sentinel.

Rattlesnake in the Wagon.

Amos Sidberry, of Onslow county, arrived in the city Thursday night with a cart load of hams, eggs and chickens. While coming along the Newbern road near Mr. Oscar Pearsall's place, he was startled by the ominous rattle of a rattlesnake. He thought it was in the road and hurried over the spot, but rattling started up again after he had gone 100 yards. When he got under the electric light at Twelfth and Market streets, he cautiously examined the bed of his cart and found a rattlesnake about four and a half feet long.—Wilmington Messenger.

In China to salute any one by taking off one's hat is a deliberate insult.

The vocabulary of an ordinary intelligent educated person includes only about four thousand words.

The eyes of the birds that fly by night are generally about double the size of those of day birds.

Alcohol is being used with mantle lamps to illuminate parts of Berlin's park—the Thiergarten.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D., "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at T. F. Klutz & Co's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Captain Eulate, of the Viscaya, who is one of the naval prisoners at Annapolis, has very punctilious views regarding the usages of polite society. Imagine his surprise the other day when a cheeky woman exclaimed: "Oh, Captain Eulate, I have a favor to ask of you," and approaching the distinguished prisoner of war she whipped out a pair of scissors and shipped off one of the buttons of his coat. The Spanish commander was speechless with indignation and astonishment.
