Cyrus P. Lockey says the Republican Executive Committee of New Hanover county has met and denounced the infamous editorial of the Daily Record that has capped the climax of all insults to the white race. Mr. Lockey says the paper will suspend. One Hill E. King, a clerk in the Agricultural Department, puts on the finishing touch by denouncing this editorial and very sagaciously concludes that it sounds like the work of a Democrat and ventures the opinion that a Democrat wrote or inspired it and got this negro to publish it. Could anything be more like Butler's Rocky Mount speech?

And is it not wonderful that for want of something bad to say of Democracy the things too outrageous to be condoned are transferred by such geniuses to the debtor column against Democrats?—Concord Standard.

Our readers will notice that a part of the editorial referred to was published in the SUN several days ago. The article reeked with revenge and hatred at the white race. It was also an unwarranted misrepresentation of the conditions existing between the negro men and the poor white women of the State. The language was so shameful and disgraceful that the decent and intelligent negroes in this section of the State could not but feel a sense of revolt and condemnation at the editor.

Down with such characters.

The St. Louis Republic thinks that the South will profit most from new markets with the acquisition of Cuba, Porto Rico and ports in the far east. It estimates that the new markets for cotton alone will be worth to this country "incalculably more than the cost of the war."

Klondike enthusiasm is suffering from a severe cold. Ships going to Alaska carry few passengers; those returning are crowded. The bubble has frozen.

—There is a precinct in the Sixth Congressional district in which 15 Populist votes were cast in 1886. Now, before the campaign has fairly opened, 11 of the 15 Populists have openly declared their determination to vote the Democratic ticket. The Star can give the names of these 11 voters who cannot stand Dockery and negro fusion any longer, but we are not calling names just now.—Wilmington Star.

—Notwithstanding the "wave of prosperity" that swept over the country after McKinley's election, the shrinkage in the taxable value of real estate in Georgia this year compared with last was about $3,000,000, and this in the face of an increase of $3,000,000 in Fulton county, which includes the city of Atlanta. Outside of that county the decrease would be about $6,000,000.

—Alabama has set a good example to the other States of the South. The Democrats carried the State in the recent election by sixty thousand majority. White supremacy was the issue there as here. It is not to be supposed for a minute that when the roll of those States enjoying a white man's government is called, North Carolina will be found in the rear ranks.

—England's purchase of 70,000 tons of coal at Newport News, Va., wherewith to stock up her naval stations may be merely a transient bit of trade. It is worth while, however, to remember, in the craze to get coaling stations around the globe, that we are something of a coaling station ourselves, and have not as yet fairly begun to develop our capacity in that line.

—Last Saturday after the Republican convention adjourned, says the Carthage Blade, we heard a prominent Populist say: "My party may fuse with that gang if they want to, but I will vote a Democratic ticket from now on, and don't you forget it."

—An exchange remarks that he is a lucky Klondiker who gets back with $5,000 to $10,000. A good many of them may consider themselves lucky if they get back with their skin and bones.

—The Seaboard Air Line and the Southern Railway this week paid into the State treasury their State taxes for 1898—$15,134 and $26,414 respectively.

—Ohio Democrats declare for Bryan in 1900 on the Chicago platform.

Recent Such Gross Libel.

Poor white farmers' wives are charged by the negro editor of the Republican organ at Wilmington with "clandestine meetings" with negro men. Will not every farmer in the State resent such gross libel upon the women of our State? Poverty is no crime, though it may be a misfortune, but this misfortune should protect its innocent victims from such vicious slanders.—Raleigh Post.

The Army of China.

The regular army of China is said to consist of 323,000. Besides this, the Emperor's army, there is a national army of 650,000 men, who are paid about five shillings a month. The cavalry receives about fifteen shillings a month, feed their own horses, and if they are lost or killed are required to replace them out of their pay.

The present plan is to begin running through trains between Winston and Mooresville on or about September 15th. The delay is caused by the trestles, some of which are not completed.—Winston Sentinel.

Dead Again!

Atlanta Constitution.

The burial of the silver question goes merrily on. There has hardly been a day during the past three years that we have not been told by the esteemed gold organs of the east and their cuckoos in other parts of the country that "silver is dead." Every turn in the affairs of the government, foreign or domestic, and every event that can be construed as having any political bearing whatsoever, has been hailed as another evidence of the great fact—the death of silver. That the issue, with the lusty vigor of youth, persisted in kicking out of its ready-made, gold-plated coffin, made no difference with the esteemed doctors charged with editing the Wall street newspapers. They had said it was dead, and dead it must be, if they have to keep on killing it every day.

Hendersonville Hustler: The Transylvania Democracy held their county convention last Monday and put a strong ticket in the field. Perfect harmony prevailed and prospects for success are very flattering.

White Folks Will Not Stand These Things.

In his speech at Monroe on Tuesday, Mr. John D. Bellamy stated that in Robeson county, Miss Britt, a white lady teacher, had to walk seven miles to get a negro school committee to sign her voucher for the money she had earned. This is not all the indignities to which white people are subjected, for Mr. Bellamy added:

"Another white lady in Robeson county had to stand an examination before seven buck negroes and not one of them ever offered her a seat. In another township a negro committee took the chair in a white lady's school and bossed it. We will not stand this, and I warn the negro, for many of them do not want this, I warn him if he continues we will put it down. Russell is vile. He selected, not a quiet and inoffensive negro, to put forward, but a mean one, Jim Young, whom he himself had publicly prosecuted in Wilmington for perjury. This man he put on the board that controls the deaf, dumb and blind institutes, he made him fertilizer inspector, and then, turning down competent white men and two respectable negroes, he made him colonel of a negro regiment, all because Young has influence with the negroes and will use it for Russell."

We do not expect these things to excite indignation in the breasts of those white men who are getting big salaries through negro support. They have already sold their birthright for a mess of potage, and would see every white teacher in the State further humiliated in order to keep their jobs. They are even now running over the State apologizing for such offenses as Mr. Bellamy mentioned and keeping silent upon the greater outrages that have made the white women of the country district afraid to leave their homes without protection.

Our appeal is to white men with white hearts, who love their race better than they love pie. They compose the rank and file of the white men of all parties. They want decent government. They are tired of the scandals, the elevation of the negro, and the outrages that characterize the present rule.

They are laying aside the party ties and coming together to restore White Supremacy in their loved State.—Raleigh News and Observer.
