Our Fall Styles in Men's Hats

are the most superb creations of the best and most popular hatters. Our fine Derby and Alpines are perfection in shape, superiority and workmanship, and are the standards of fashion everywhere, and the proper finish to correct attire. All are invited to inspect our new stock before buying elsewhere.

SMOOT BROS. & ROGERS.

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO

V. WALLACE.

Mr. Leo Wallace, his buyer, is now in the Northern Markets, and on his return will have one of the most complete stocks of Fall and Winter Goods ever offered in this market.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Weather forecast: Showers tonight and Sunday. Continued low temperature.

The Chestnut Hill public school opens Monday. The teachers urge that the scholars come promptly.

Mr. Everhardt, of the Southern shop force, had his arm broken yesterday by a portion of scaffolding falling on it.

Our "Four Leaf Clover" and "Queen Quality" lines are attracting buyers of fine shoes.—Burt Shoe Co.

A colored man who has been selling cloth about the city was arrested this morning. The officers wanted to investigate to see where he got the cloth.

If "a dollar saved is a dollar earned," money waits on buying here; note these points of evidence about our store.—Burt Shoe Co.

Engineer W. P. Terrell has news that his son, Clyde, is getting along nicely at the Philadelphia hospital where he has been for several weeks for treatment.

The heirs of Eliza Reed have disposed of their property which has recently been advertised for sale. The property consisted of four vacant lots and two lots with houses.

School Boys.

The young men of Salisbury, such as have not finished their college course, are returning to school, and others are going to the several colleges of the State to enter.

This morning Will McCannless went to Durham to enter Trinity College.

Charles and Ernest Woodson and Julius Caldwell went to Chapel Hill this morning to re-enter the University.

Judge Dick's Critical Condition.

For some time the condition of Judge Dick has been extremely critical. Occasionally he would rally and his friends saw a gleam of hope, but to-day he is very low and the anxious watchers would not be surprised for the grim reaper to claim him at any moment. Relatives out of the city have been summoned to his bedside, and near him are faithful and fond loved ones who would fain have him linger here. It is not thought he will rally.—Greensboro Telegram.

Clerk Superior Court.

It Will Iron Right.

A collar that you buy from us will iron perfectly straight and smooth.

Many collars are carelessly made, and the first time they are ironed will show a ridge or a bad crease, and absolutely spoil the appearance of the collar.

Every collar and cuff that we sell is made by a reliable firm, and has been thoroughly stretched and carefully ironed before it comes to us. It will pay you to buy your furnishings here for you will get none but the best.
