INCONSISTENCY.

For inconsistency some, if not all, of the Populist papers take the cake. The Progressive Farmer and the Caucasian are fine instances. They are both leading Populist papers in the State and both are read perhaps more by the Populists than any other papers in North Carolina. During the latter part and after the closing of the last legislature—their own legislature—they gave vent to some very bitter denunciations against it. Words, it seemed, were not severe enough to express their contempt of some of the proceedings, in fact, these papers were, if anything, even harder in their condemnation of the legislature than Democratic papers. Now they are praising it. Fusion management of the State's affairs has been very good they say. They cannot say too much in favor of it. Aught said against the brilliant record of that legislature, according to their version, is Democratic misrepresentation. And thus it goes.

The people, however, will not be fooled by their praise this time. The acts of the fusion legislature are too well known for even these great lights to deceive them.

The proceedings of the two fusion legislatures are known and read not only all over North Carolina but for a distance outside of it. The voters, if indications do not fail, will certainly denounce them at the polls on election day.

—The Democrats of Vermont in the last election, cut down the Republican majority of 38,000 in 1896 to 23,000 and elected fifty members of the Legislature against nineteen in 1896.

—At Vicksburg, Miss., yesterday the Republicans of the Third district nominated T. J. Jones, a negro, for Congress, in opposition to Gen. T. C. Catchings.

—The distress produced in France by the Czar's proposal of disarmament is very real and very great. Its effect, it is held, is to throw upon France the blame of keeping armies big, whereas it belongs to Germany and must continue to belong to Germany until Alsace and Lorraine are restored to France. The Czar says peace while the object of France's arming is still unattained. France's ally thus, in effect, deserts her and rebukes her. Stupefaction was produced at Paris by the fact that such a proposal was made to the world by Russia without first consulting France.

—The recently completed school census of Chicago shows that in one block in the Sixteenth ward there are but seven American-born residents out of a total of 2,728, the majority being Poles. In another block there are 2,583 Poles out of a total population of 2,584, the other man being a Chinaman. The total population of the city is estimated at 1,851,588, which figures would indicate a growth of over 70 per cent. since 1890.

—The contracts for building three battle ships have been awarded to the Cramps, the Newport News Shipbuilding Company and the Union Iron Works of San Francisco. They will be of 12,500 tons displacement and have speed of 18 knots.

—The decision of United States Circuit Judge Simonton in the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad case is regarded as a victory for the Ryan interests in the contest for the control of the Seaboard Air Line system.

—The Republican Congressional convention of the Fourth district is called to meet in Raleigh September 30th. E. A. Johnson (col.), is the chairman of the Republican Congressional executive committee.

—It is hard enough under any circumstances for a bachelor to hold a baby, but it's simply torture when the baby's mother is the girl who jilted him two years before.

—Some of the New Jersey newspapers are discussing the possibility of electing Grover Cleveland to the Senate of the United States in place of Senator Smith, whose term is about to expire.

—On October 19 the Lafayette memorial commission proposes to take up a collection in the schools and colleges in the United States to build a monument to Lafayette in Paris.

A French paper imparts the interesting information that a great many cattle die in the United States from a disease called blizzards. When they get down with a sure case of blizzards there is no such thing as curing them.

When the timber supply gives out on this side Russia has a patch of 88,000,000 acres in one province to fall back on, in which the axe has as yet been scarcely heard.

North Carolina Leads.

Wilmington Messenger.

North Carolina is the leading manufacturing State in the South, and some idea may be had of the growth of the cotton mill industry when the statistics are examined. The statistics up to August 31, 1898, show that North Carolina has 1,018,303 spindles in operation, the second largest number in the South. She has 186 mills, including those under construction, out of 491 mills in the South—nearly 40 per cent. of the entire factories in the South.

North Carolina has more spindles than the States of Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi and Missouri combined. She has nearly 27 per cent. of all the spindles in the South. She has 23,351 looms out of a total of 103,305 looms in all the Southern States.

Out of 21 mills under construction in the South, North Carolina is building 11, over 50 per cent.

During the year ending August 31, 1898, the mills of North Carolina consumed 150,802,889 pounds of lint cotton (332,801 bales.)
