THERE SHOULD BE NO ABUSE.

In the conduct of the county canvass the SUN desires to say by way of suggestion that there should be no abuse of men because of opposition to the Democratic party. The canvass should be aggressive and determined, but of a quiet, persuasive sort. The doings of the fusion crowd, the conditions it has already brought upon the State, the danger of matters growing worse under them and negro domination in the east should be held out before the people. This can be done in an honest, candid way that will have a good effect.

The good citizens of Rowan are tired of fusion rule. Some, and perhaps many, of the Populists who left the Democratic party are also tired of it and it will take but little to bring them back to the Democratic party. To vilify them will keep them with the fusionists.

Democratic speakers as they go out over the county, in our opinion, should couch their addresses in language single to this fact and may confidently expect to gain friends for Democracy. It will, we believe, mean greater success for the Democratic party in Rowan.

Cotton sold on the Raleigh market Saturday for 4 1/2 and 5 1/2 cents per pound, or $20.00 per bale. The average price in 1896 was 7.42 per pound, or $30 per bale. Yet, the Raleigh Post says, we failed to see Cy Thompson or Hal Ayer or Dr. Ramsey or Treasurer Worth or Supt. Mewborne on the cotton exchange denouncing McKinley and Russell for this cheap cotton. The poor farmer notes this absence and silence with painful misgivings.

—J. W. Thompson, of Cumberland county, writes as follows to the Wythville News: "I joined the Populist party, believing it was for free silver and a low tariff. But I find the leaders of the Populist party have placed the party on the block to be bid off by the highest bidder, and I see them joining the Republican party, which is for the gold standard, a high tariff and negro rule, and you all know that the white people of this country can't and won't stand that, and the only salvation I see for them is to come to the Democratic party. So my vote henceforth will be for white supremacy and Democratic principles."

—C. C. Bell, a farmer Populist, writes to the Newbern Journal: "I expect to vote a Democratic ticket as all true patriotic white men should do. I, like many others, went to the party with a pure motive, but alas, it means office for a pie-hunting crowd of white men and negroes. You who love daughters, sisters, mothers and wives, think what you are doing before you cast a Pop-Republican vote."

—Jerry Simpson, candidate for re-election to Congress from Kansas, proposes to Chester I. Long, his opponent, that they make no speeches this campaign. This is the fourth time the two have contended for a seat in the national House of Representatives.

—Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, says the title of "Daughter of the Confederacy" cannot be transferred to Miss Lucy Lee Hill.

—A newly arrived immigrant at New York was so glad to meet his sweetheart that he shook her hand until he broke her arm, and then they arrested him and fined him for boisterous conduct.

—Wholesale cigarette suckers. Two were recently arrested who confessed to stealing forty bicycles and as many cameras during the summer to get money to buy these coffin nails.

—The Schwan board recommends sites for camps at Columbia, Greenville and Spartanburg, S. C., and Augusta, Atlanta, Athens, Albany, Macon, Americus and Columbus, Ga.

—President McKinley, though often referred to by the military title of major, never really rose above the grade of captain.

Negro Regiment Disorderly.
The Knoxville Journal and Tribune the leading Republican paper of Tennessee, says the Third N. C. Negro regiment is very disorderly and the people in the neighborhood are afraid for their lives. People have been rocked on the highways, pedestrians cursed, and pistols fired constantly at night. This Republican paper says that the conduct of the Third is in striking contrast to the orderly behavior of the colored regiment from Virginia, with its white officers, which is in camp next to negro Jim Young's crowd.

Leaves This Month.

Gordon Cilley writes the Charlotte Observer concerning the First North Carolina:

The officers, when questioned, say there is little doubt that the regiment will leave here for Cuba before the 20th of October; that is certainly the plan of the administration, as they deduce not only from unmistakable indications, but also from actual statements. The hope is everywhere expressed that our duty will be to garrison either Morro or Cardenas Castle, and, as this is the oldest volunteer regiment in the United States at present, this is no less than probable. Seniority means everything in the army.

If it ever becomes necessary to sink another Merrimac Kansas stands ready to furnish a heroine who is equal to the job. One day last week Mrs. Cowrin Moore, who lives near Manchester, slid down a rope to the bottom of her well and rescued a little pig that had fallen in. On reaching the bottom she put the pig in the bucket, climbed back hand over hand on the rope to the surface and then drew the pig out in safety.
