The Prize Convention.

Raleigh News & Observer.

The prize convention of the State was that held in Craven county a week ago, if reports from that neck of the woods be true.

"There were eight Populists present," said Mr. W. W. Clark, of Newbern, at the Yarbrough last night. "They were fusionists without anything to fuse with, so they took all the offices. As I said, there were eight present, and seven offices to name candidates for. One of them, Gabe Hardison, already has an office—treasurer of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad—so the thing was easy.

"Early in the proceedings Gabe, being secretary of the convention, rose and said: Mr. Chairman, I nominate the following ticket."

"Thereupon he read a list containing the name of every man in the house except himself, with some sort of office attached.

"Now, Mr. Chairman," Gabe continued "since you are to be voted for I'll put the question. All in favor of nominating this ticket by acclamation will say aye."

"Nobody spoke, the candidates, of course feeling a delicacy in voting for themselves. Finally Gabe himself said 'aye'.

"All opposed say No."

"Nobody spoke.

"The ayes have it," said Gabe and this ticket is unanimously nominated."

"And the convention adjourned."

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any Salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve the great pile cure. James Plummer.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy-thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. James Plummer.
